They are marked ESV where they appear. Quotations from Sirach, Wisdom of Solomon, Baruch, 1 Enoch, and Jubilees are my paraphrases of common English translations, so verse numbers may differ slightly in the copy you own. Check them against a translation before you quote them.

What this book is. A companion to the daily pages. For each of the 91 days it gives (1) a deeper look at the day's verse through the Ethiopian canon, (2) what the sky actually looked like, computed from astronomical formulas, and (3) a plain word about how to read both, including where trauma, addiction, and spiritual warfare come in.

What this book is not. It is not astrology or fortune-telling, and it will never tell you what a moon phase or a constellation "means" for your life. It is not therapy, medical care, addiction treatment, or crisis support, and the author is not a clinician. It does not tell you what happened to anyone's soul. Prayer sits beside treatment, medication, safe housing, and safety planning. It does not replace them.

About the Ethiopian canon texts. 1 Enoch (Henok) and Jubilees (Kufale) survive in full only in Ge'ez, the classical language of Ethiopia. The Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahedo Church receives them, along with Sirach, Wisdom of Solomon, and Baruch, as canon. Most other churches do not treat them all as Scripture, though Jude 14–15 quotes 1 Enoch 1:9. I treat them as ancient witnesses worth knowing, and I let the Bible carry the weight. Where a verse has no real parallel in the canon, I say so instead of inventing one.

How "exact" the sky is. Each day's moon, sun, and star data is computed for the evening of that date at 02:00 UTC the next day, which is about 9 p.m. Central, 10 p.m. Eastern, and 7 p.m. Pacific. Moon illumination and age are accurate to about a percent or better, and constellations use the modern IAU boundaries. Sunrise, sunset, and moonrise depend on where you stand, so they appear only if a location is added. Meteor-shower dates are annual and approximate.

How to Read This Book

Signs get abused, so this book uses a short set of tests. Before you decide what any verse, canon text, dream, or sky event "means," run it through these six. If it fails one, set it down.

#	Test	The question
1	Christ	Does it point toward Jesus, and not toward me, a sign, a person, or a product?
2	Scripture	Does it agree with the clear teaching of the Bible read in context? Canon texts outside the Protestant Bible can add color but cannot override it.
3	Fruit	Does it lead toward love, truth, safety, humility, and responsibility, or toward fear, secrecy, shame, and control?
4	Freedom	Does it leave room to choose, to say no, to ask questions, to leave, and to get treatment?
5	Cost	Does it ask for money, silence, or loyalty to a leader in exchange for the "answer"?
6	Humility	Does it admit what it does not know, including about the dead?

What the Bible says about reading the sky

- The lights are for time. "Let them be for signs and for seasons, and for days and years" (Gen. 1:14, ESV). A sign marks something. It does not decide it.
- The sky tells about God. "The heavens declare the glory of God" (Ps. 19:1, ESV). "For his invisible attributes … have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made" (Rom. 1:20, ESV).
- Do not worship them. Deuteronomy 4:19 warns against being drawn to bow down to the sun, moon, and stars. Jeremiah 10:2 says not to be dismayed at the signs of the heavens as the nations are. Isaiah 47:13–14 mocks those who gaze at the stars to tell the future.
- They are praising Him. "Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars!" (Ps. 148:3, ESV). He "determines the number of the stars; he gives to all of them their names" (Ps. 147:4, ESV).

So this book will say, "Here is the sky tonight, and here is what the canon and Scripture say about the verse for the day." It will not say, "This moon means a hard week for you." If anyone tells you a star position decides your relationships, your sobriety, or your safety, that is a claim Scripture does not make.

Reading the Sky Chips and the Moon

Reading the sky chips on each day

- Moon: phase, how much of the visible face is lit, days since the new moon, and the constellation it stands in.
- Sun: the constellation behind it and its declination (how far north or south of the celestial equator, in degrees).
- Star: a bright star near due south around 9 p.m. local sun time, so you can find it. It is a landmark, not a message.
- Enoch: the moon’s light counted in fourteenths, the old way (see below).

A note on the moon and the calendar

The Bible itself speaks of new moons and festivals (Num. 28:11; Ps. 81:3). The Enoch and Jubilees tradition, which this workbook follows for its 364-day count, argues for reckoning by the sun and warns against dating the festivals by the moon (Jubilees 6:36–37). Both appear in this canon. I show the moon because it is beautiful and real and because you asked for it, and I count the days by the sun.

1 Enoch also counts the moon’s light in fourteenths (chapters 73–74 and 78), growing for about two weeks and then fading for two. The “Enoch’s count” chip on each day is that old way of saying the same thing, and it is approximate.

Eclipses: No eclipses fall in this window. (checked from the Moon’s position at each new and full moon.)

The sun’s constellation. The sun’s apparent position moves through the modern IAU constellations: Virgo until about October 30, Libra until about November 22, Scorpius for about a week (November 23–29), Ophiuchus from about November 30, Sagittarius from about December 18, and Capricornus from about January 20. The constellations are star patterns on a map. They are not “signs” that assign traits to a day or a person.

The solstice. The winter solstice is the day the sun reaches its lowest point in the Northern Hemisphere. After it the days lengthen. In the Southern Hemisphere it is reversed.

Trauma in the Canon

The canon does not hand trauma a tidy explanation. Read together, it says a few plain things.

1. The cry is heard

1 Enoch 9:3–11 pictures the souls of the killed and the groans of the oppressed going up to the gates of heaven, and the angels bringing the case before God. That is a canon witness that suffering inflicted on people is not invisible to heaven. Compare Exodus 3:7 and Genesis 4:10.

2. Fear is described without blame

Wisdom of Solomon 17 describes terror in the dark, and 17:12 says fear is the surrender of the help that reason offers. Sirach 40:5–7 describes troubled thoughts that disturb sleep. Neither blames the sufferer. They treat a frightened body and mind as something real that needs care.

3. “Tested like gold” needs a warning label

Sirach 2:1–6 and Wisdom 3:5–6 use refining language. In their setting it is about perseverance in faith. It is not a claim that God sends abuse, assault, or trafficking to refine a person. Job’s friends tried that reading and God rebuked them for it (Job 42:7). Human harm is human harm.

4. Mourning is allowed

Sirach 7:34 says to mourn with those who mourn. Sirach 38:16–23 says to weep for the dead and then to receive comfort and not be consumed. Both halves matter.

5. How this book reads it

- A trauma response is not evidence of weak faith or a demon.
- Grounding, sleep, safety, and counseling are part of rebuilding, not substitutes for faith.
- Nothing in these pages asks you to relive anything, name the harm, or forgive on a timeline.

If remembering floods you, stop, look around the room, name five things you can see, and put the book down. A page is never worth your safety.

Addiction and Bondage in the Canon

Addiction as we name it today is not a category in these texts, but the canon knows what it is to be mastered by something.

What it says about wine and bondage

- Sirach 31:25–30 says not to try to prove yourself by wine, because wine has destroyed many. Sirach 19:1–2 says workers who are drunkards will not become rich, and that whoever despises small things will fall little by little.
- Proverbs 23:29–35 describes the wounds and the pull of drink with a hard honesty.
- Noah's vineyard (Gen. 9:20–21; Jubilees 7) is a vineyard that bore fruit and then led to his fall. The same good thing can be misused. This is told without disgust and it does not end the story of Noah.

What it says about getting out

- Prayer for freedom and a clean heart. In Jubilees 1:19–21 Moses prays that the spirit of Belial not rule over Israel and that God create a clean heart in them, much like Psalm 51:10.
- Return is open. Sirach 17:24–26 says God gives a return to those who repent. Proverbs 24:16 says the righteous fall seven times and rise again.
- Responsibility is real. Sirach 5:5–7 warns against presuming on mercy. Sirach 15:11–20 says not to blame the Lord for your failing. God does not cause a relapse.
- Medicine is allowed. Sirach 38:1–14 says to honor the physician and to pray. Jubilees 10:10–13 says angels taught Noah remedies from plants. Jesus calls Himself a physician for the sick (Mark 2:17).

How this book reads it

- Grace is not enabling, and understanding is not excusing. Hold both.
- A relapse does not make a person disposable. It does call for a plan and for people.
- Prayer does not replace treatment, detox with medical support, medication, or a recovery community.
- Be careful of any teaching that sells a spiritual cure and tells you to drop real care.

Withdrawal from alcohol and some other substances can be medically dangerous. Do not stop suddenly without a clinician. SAMHSA 1-800-662-4357 can help find treatment. In an emergency call 911.

Spiritual Warfare, Carefully

The Enoch and Jubilees tradition has a much larger cast of spiritual beings than most Bibles do. It is worth knowing what these books say, and being careful about what they do not say.

What the texts say

- 1 Enoch 6–16. The Watchers, angels who descended and taught people forbidden things and fathered the giants. Chapter 10 has the angel Raphael bind Azazel and speaks of healing the earth. 15:8–12 says spirits came from the giants. Jude 6 and 2 Peter 2:4 both mention angels who sinned.
- Jubilees 10. After the flood Noah prays, evil spirits are bound, a tenth is left under Prince Mastema, and the angels teach Noah remedies from plants.
- Jubilees 11, 17, 48. Mastema sends ravens to eat the seed, urges the testing of Abraham, and opposes Moses at the Exodus. In each, God acts and the opposition fails.

What they do not say

None of these books says every trauma response, illness, addiction, intrusive thought, or difficult person is demonic. None says spiritual warfare removes responsibility. And none says an exercise, a ritual, or a worksheet literally breaks a curse. Broken chains are a symbol of freedom, and freedom also takes people, time, and help.

What the Bible adds

- Ephesians 6:10–18 says our struggle is not only against flesh and blood, and then spends its words on truth, righteousness, peace, faith, and prayer.
- James 4:7 says to submit to God and resist the devil. 1 Peter 5:8–9 says to be sober-minded and watchful.
- Jesus loosed a woman from a bond (Luke 13:16), and the same Gospels also show Him healing ordinary illness without naming a demon.

A careful way to read it

- Ask first what is physical, what is relational, what is a habit, and what is trauma. Then ask what is spiritual.
- In Jubilees 11 the ravens were stopped with a plow. Practical defense is spiritual wisdom.
- Do not accept a label that someone else pressures you into. Do not accept a “deliverance” that costs money, demands secrecy, or tells you to stop treatment.
- Do not blame yourself for being targeted, and do not use “attack” to avoid a choice.

Soul Contracts, Heavenly Tablets, and Grief

This page touches a real loss and a real belief, so it is written slowly. The next pages say what Scripture does teach about why you are here.

What a soul contract is

A soul contract is the idea that before birth a soul agrees to a set of lessons, relationships, and sometimes the time and manner of its death. It comes from New Age and reincarnation-based teaching. It is not in the Bible, and it is not in 1 Enoch, Jubilees, Sirach, Wisdom, or Baruch. This book will not dress it in a verse. It says so plainly because the book is for people at risk, and a frame that sounds biblical and is not can hurt them.

What the canon does say, which can sound close

- God knows our days. “In your book were written, every one of them, the days that were formed for me, when as yet there was none of them” (Ps. 139:16, ESV). Job 14:5 says a person’s days are determined. This is about God’s knowledge and care, not a deal the soul made.
- Heavenly tablets. 1 Enoch 81:1–2 and Jubilees 3:10 and 5:13 speak of things written on heavenly tablets: judgments, laws, and the names of the righteous. Jubilees 5:17–18 also says there is forgiveness written for those who turn. The tablets are not a script you signed.
- Real choice. Sirach 15:11–20 says God left people to their own choice, set fire and water before them, and does not cause our failing. Deuteronomy 30:19 says “choose life.”
- God does not author evil. “God cannot be tempted with evil, and he himself tempts no one” (James 1:13, ESV).
- God can redeem harm without scripting it. “You meant evil against me, but God meant it for good” (Gen. 50:20, ESV). Joseph’s brothers chose evil. God worked good beyond it.
- A short life can be fulfilled. Wisdom of Solomon 4:7–14 says the righteous who die early will be at rest, and 4:13 says that being perfected in a short time, he fulfilled long years. That is a hope about people God is pleased with. It is not a formula, and it does not say a death was arranged.

Why this book does not build on a “fulfilled soul contract” for an addiction loss

1. It can imply that an overdose or any death was agreed to or required, which can make God or the soul the author of something that addiction and a broken world caused.
2. It can close the door on grief, anger, and “what if” questions that need room.
3. For a woman still struggling who reads “her ending was written,” it can sound like “mine is too,” or “nothing I do matters.” That is the opposite of “choose life.”
4. It makes claims about an unseen soul that no one can check.

What you can honestly say instead

“[Name]’s life mattered. Their death is a real loss. I do not know everything about their last days or their soul, and I do not have to. God knew them fully (Ps. 139). The Judge of all the earth does right (Gen. 18:25). Their story moves me, and I am building something so someone else has a place to reach.”

No one can tell you where any person stands with God. What Scripture gives us to hold is this: He is near to the brokenhearted (Ps. 34:18, ESV), nothing “will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord” (Rom. 8:39, ESV), and He is the just and merciful judge. The canon’s hope in Wisdom 3:1–3 is that the souls of the righteous are in God’s hand. It is a hope offered, not a verdict about one person.

If you carry a belief about someone you lost

If you privately sense purpose in how a loved one’s life has shaped yours, that is your testimony and your grief, and it is yours to keep. It helps to label it for what it is, a personal belief and not a teaching of Scripture, and to leave it out of any pages you share with others. Grief resources, if you want them: GRASP (Grief Recovery After a Substance Passing, grasphelp.org), GriefShare (griefshare.org), and 988 any time. Confirm current details.

MY OWN PAGE (PRIVATE)

What I know about the person I lost.

What I do not know, and may never.

What I want to say to them.

Why Am I Here? Calling, Not Contract

You asked how to wake up to why you are here. Scripture has a real answer, and it is bigger and kinder than a contract. Here is what it says, what it does not say, and how to tell the difference.

What Scripture says about purpose

- You are loved before you are useful. Jesus heard “This is my beloved Son” before He did any ministry (Matt. 3:17). Start there.
- You were made on purpose. “For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them” (Eph. 2:10, ESV).
- God finishes what He starts. “I cry out to God Most High, to God who fulfills his purpose for me” (Ps. 57:2, ESV). “The LORD will fulfill his purpose for me; your steadfast love, O LORD, endures forever” (Ps. 138:8, ESV).
- Pain can become comfort for others. God “comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God” (2 Cor. 1:3–4, ESV). That is what reaching back is.
- Place and time are not random to God. He “determined allotted periods and the boundaries of their dwelling place, that they should seek God” (Acts 17:26–27, ESV). “God settles the solitary in a home” (Ps. 68:6, ESV).
- God can use what others meant for harm. “You meant evil against me, but God meant it for good” (Gen. 50:20, ESV).

Providence is not a contract

A contract says you agreed to it beforehand. Providence says God works with what actually happens, including adoptions, losses, and the strange coincidences that make a person say, “What are the odds?” Scripture lets you receive those details as meaningful, as a gift and a sign of care, without claiming you or anyone else signed for them. Where a family came together in a way that seems too specific to be chance, you can thank God for it and not need it explained.

On a goodbye you cannot fully read

A hug that felt like no other is love, and love is real whether or not the person knew it was the last. You may never know what was in someone’s heart that day, and you do not have to settle it. You do not owe anyone a performance to honor them. Love honors them. Guilt does not.

If the night is the hardest time: a pain that comes at night can be grief, trauma, or sleep. Tell a doctor or counselor about it, and keep 988 (call or text) in reach. Wanting your life to mean something is good. Pressure to prove it is not from God.

Waking Up to Your Calling

Seven steps to wake up to your calling

1. Start with who, not what. You are beloved first. Say it out loud once today.
2. Tell the truth about the pain. Write what hurts at night, plainly, without making it prettier. Get care for sleep and safety.
3. Take an inventory. Four lists: what I have survived, what I am good at, what breaks my heart, and what people already thank me for. The overlap is a clue, not a verdict.
4. Run it through the six tests on the “How to Read This Book” page: Christ, Scripture, fruit, freedom, cost, humility.
5. Take one small, real step this week. “One who is faithful in a very little is also faithful in much” (Luke 16:10, ESV). A call, a meeting, one page of writing, one act of help.
6. Ask wise, safe people. “Without counsel plans fail, but with many advisers they succeed” (Prov. 15:22, ESV). Choose people who respect your no and keep your confidence.
7. Hold it loosely and keep walking. Moses waited forty years in the wilderness. A calling grows and gets revised. Certainty is not required for obedience.

Watch for these

- Anyone who sells you your purpose, or says a “reading” will reveal it.
- Any voice that says you must do this or something bad will happen. “God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control” (2 Tim. 1:7, ESV).
- A calling that requires secrecy, a leader’s approval for everything, or dropping treatment.
- The idea that you have to complete someone else’s story. Your purpose is yours.

Esther was told, “Who knows whether you have not come to the kingdom for such a time as this?” (Esth. 4:14, ESV). Notice it is a question. The invitation is real. The certainty is not promised. Take the next faithful step.

WHAT I THINK I AM HERE FOR, IN PENCIL, AND MY ONE SMALL STEP THIS WEEK

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 1 · Wed Oct 28, 2026 · Ethiopian Tikimt 18 — Genesis 1:14–19 · Day One of Something

Moon: Waning gibbous · 88% lit · 18.4 days old · in Taurus | Sun: in Virgo · declination -13.4° | Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 11/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 2:9 repeats the purpose of the lights: signs, sabbaths, months, years. 1 Enoch 72:1 opens the Astronomical Book with the angel Uriel showing Enoch the courses of the luminaries. The Ge'ez (Ethiopic) text is the only complete copy of 1 Enoch that survives, which is why the Ethiopian church matters so much to this story.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Read the sky as a clock and a witness, not a fortune. Genesis gives the lights a job: mark time. Nothing in them decides your worth or your day. If a day feels doomed, that is a feeling to bring to God, not a message from the stars.

Sky anchor, Psalm 121:6 (ESV): "The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night."

MY NOTES

Day 2 · Thu Oct 29, 2026 · Ethiopian Tikimt 19 — Genesis 1:20–23 · Blessed Before You Produce

Moon: Waning gibbous · 80% lit · 19.4 days old · in Taurus | Sun: in Virgo · declination -13.7° | Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 10/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 2 retells the fifth day. 1 Enoch 60:7–9 names Leviathan and Behemoth as creatures God keeps in their appointed places. The canon pictures even frightening things as made and held by God.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

A body on high alert is a creature doing what it was made to do: protect you. That alarm is not a demon and not a lack of faith. It is a protector that has been on duty too long. God blessed living things before they proved anything.

Sky anchor, Psalm 121:6 (ESV): "The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night."

MY NOTES

Day 3 · Fri Oct 30, 2026 · Ethiopian Tikimt 20 — Genesis 2:18 · Made for Each Other

Moon: Waning gibbous · 70% lit · 20.4 days old · in Gemini | Sun: in Virgo · declination -14.1° | Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 9/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 3:4–8 retells the making of Eve and her being brought to Adam. Sirach 6:14–17 calls a faithful friend a sturdy shelter. Sirach 12:8 adds that a friend is not known in prosperity, nor an enemy hidden in adversity.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Isolation often rides in on trauma and addiction. Do not call every lonely day spiritual warfare, and do not ignore how often harm works by cutting a person off. Safe people respect your no, keep your confidences, and leave you more yourself.

Sky anchor, Psalm 121:6 (ESV): "The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night."

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 4 · Sat Oct 31, 2026 · Ethiopian Tikimt 21 — Genesis 2:1–3 · The Day That Was Finished

Moon: Last quarter · 59% lit · 21.4 days old · in Cancer | Sun: in Libra · declination -14.4° | Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 8/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 2:17–33 says the Sabbath was kept in heaven first, by the angels of the presence, before it was given to people. The Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahedo Church keeps both Saturday and Sunday as holy days.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Rest is not a reward you earn after fixing yourself. Slavery and addiction both steal rest, and Sabbath is God giving it back. Resting on the Sabbath does not replace treatment, medication, or safety planning. It sits beside them.

Sky anchor, Psalm 136:9 (ESV): "the moon and stars to rule over the night, for his steadfast love endures forever."

MY NOTES

Day 5 · Sun Nov 1, 2026 · Ethiopian Tikimt 22 — John 1:1–5 · The Light That Stays

Moon: Last quarter · 48% lit · 22.4 days old · in Cancer | Sun: in Libra · declination -14.7° | Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 7/14 light, fading | Last quarter · Nov 1 20:28 UTC

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 48:2–3 (the Similitudes) says the Chosen One's name was named before the sun and the stars were made. Wisdom of Solomon 7:26 calls wisdom a reflection of eternal light. Christians have long read these as pointing toward Christ, while the passages themselves are ancient Jewish writing.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Light came first, before sun, moon, or stars. That is why the sky is not the source of light but a lamp that points beyond itself. Jesus is the light that the dark has not overcome. You do not have to feel it for it to be true.

Sky anchor, Psalm 136:9 (ESV): "the moon and stars to rule over the night, for his steadfast love endures forever."

MY NOTES

Day 6 · Mon Nov 2, 2026 · Ethiopian Tikimt 23 — Genesis 1:6–8 · Where Water Meets Water

Moon: Waning crescent · 37% lit · 23.4 days old · in Leo | Sun: in Libra · declination -15.0° | Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 6/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 2:4 retells the second day, the firmament dividing the waters. 1 Enoch 76 describes the twelve gates of the winds, each in its ordered place.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

God makes order by separating. That is the pattern behind a boundary. A boundary is not a curse, a grudge, or a failure to forgive. It is room. Unclear boundaries are one of the most common doors for harm, so building them is practical wisdom and not unforgiveness.

Sky anchor, Job 38:33 (ESV): "Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?"

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 7 · Tue Nov 3, 2026 · Ethiopian Tikimt 24 — Genesis 1:9–13 · Ground Is Where Seeds Go

Moon: Waning crescent · 27% lit · 24.4 days old · in Leo | Sun: in Libra · declination -15.3°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 5/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 2:7 retells the third day, the dry land and the plants. 1 Enoch 3:1 says to observe how the trees put on their leaves and bear fruit in their season.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Seeds are planted in ground, not in feelings. Every recovery starts with something small and practical. The enemy of that is rarely a dramatic attack. It is usually "too big, too late, too tired," and that deserves a practical answer.

Sky anchor, Job 38:33 (ESV): "Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?"

MY NOTES

Day 8 · Wed Nov 4, 2026 · Ethiopian Tikimt 25 — Psalm 19:1–2 · The Heavens Keep Time

Moon: Waning crescent · 18% lit · 25.4 days old · in Leo | Sun: in Libra · declination -15.6°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 4/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 2:1–5:3 asks the reader to watch how the heavens keep their order, and chapter 5 says the problem is people who do not. Sirach 43 is a long hymn to the sun, moon, and stars as the work of the Most High.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

The sky does not fail, and that is not a shaming line. It is a promise that God's order is reliable. When your own order falls apart, the reliable one is still there. A slip does not break the heavens.

Sky anchor, Job 38:33 (ESV): "Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?"

MY NOTES

Day 9 · Thu Nov 5, 2026 · Ethiopian Tikimt 26 — Zechariah 4:10 · Small Steps Are Real Steps

Moon: Waning crescent · 10% lit · 26.4 days old · in Virgo | Sun: in Libra · declination -15.9°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 3/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 2:1–6 says to prepare for testing and that gold is tried in fire. Sirach 11:21 says it is easy in the Lord's sight to enrich a poor person quickly and suddenly.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Be careful with the "testing" language. Scripture does not say God sends trauma or addiction to test you, and Sirach itself says God does not cause our wrong turns (15:11–13). What it does say is that small, faithful steps in hard times are seen. They count.

Sky anchor, Job 38:33 (ESV): "Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?"

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 10 · Fri Nov 6, 2026 · Ethiopian Tikimt 27 Proverbs 27:17 · Iron on Iron

Moon: Waning crescent · 5% lit · 27.4 days old · in Virgo | Sun: in Libra · declination -16.2°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 2/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 6:7 says to gain friends through testing and not to trust them hastily. Sirach 12:10–18 warns about an enemy who speaks sweetly and weeps like a friend.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Discernment is not cynicism. Some people sharpen you and some use you. The canon gives you permission to test a relationship over time. Fruit tells you who is safe: respect for no, steadiness over time, and no demand for secrecy.

Sky anchor, Job 38:33 (ESV): "Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?"

MY NOTES

Day 11 · Sat Nov 7, 2026 · Ethiopian Tikimt 28 Psalm 46:10 · Be Still, Child

Moon: Waning crescent · 2% lit · 28.4 days old · in Virgo | Sun: in Libra · declination -16.5°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 1/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 1:3–8 pictures the earth shaking at God's coming, and then says that with the righteous He will make peace. That is the same pairing as Psalm 46: shaking all around and God as a refuge.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

"Be still" is not "feel nothing." It is "stop striving, because God is God." When craving, grief, or panic is loud, stillness may mean sitting with a person or a phone call for fifteen minutes. That is not weak. It is how people ride out a wave.

Sky anchor, Job 38:33 (ESV): "Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?"

MY NOTES

Day 12 · Sun Nov 8, 2026 · Ethiopian Tikimt 29 Psalm 119:105 · A Lamp for the Next Step

Moon: New moon · 0% lit · 29.4 days old · in Libra | Sun: in Libra · declination -16.8°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 0/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 4:17–19 says Enoch was the first to learn writing and to write down the signs of the sky in order. 1 Enoch 81:1–2 has Enoch told to read the heavenly tablets. Sirach 24:23 identifies wisdom with the book of the covenant.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Scripture is a lamp, not a weapon. It was never meant to be used to shame someone into silence. If someone handed you a verse to make your pain disappear, that was a misuse, and you are allowed to say so.

Sky anchor, Psalm 104:19 (ESV): "He made the moon to mark the seasons."

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 13 · Mon Nov 9, 2026 · Ethiopian Tikimt 30 Ephesians 4:25–27 · Say the True Thing

Moon: New moon · 1% lit · 0.8 days old · in Libra | Sun: in Libra · declination -17.1°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 1/14 light, growing | New moon · Nov 9 07:02 UTC

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 9:3–11 pictures the cries of those who have been killed and oppressed going up to the gates of heaven, and the angels bringing their case before God. Sirach 28:1–7 teaches forgiveness and warns against holding a grudge.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Your anger at harm is not demonic. In the canon it is heard in heaven. Forgiveness does not erase the facts, restore access, or require reconciliation. Take the anger to God and a safe person before you take it anywhere else.

Sky anchor, Psalm 104:19 (ESV): "He made the moon to mark the seasons."

MY NOTES

Day 14 · Tue Nov 10, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 1 Mark 4:26–29 · Plant a Routine

Moon: Waxing crescent · 3% lit · 1.8 days old · in Scorpius | Sun: in Libra · declination -17.4°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 2/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 7:1–2 says Noah planted a vineyard and waited until the fourth year for the fruit to be holy, echoing Leviticus 19:23–25. 1 Enoch 3 again points to the patience of trees.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Fruit takes years. Recovery and healing do too. Do not treat a slow season as a sign God left or that you are cursed. Patience is part of how the vineyard works.

Sky anchor, Psalm 8:3 (ESV): "When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place."

MY NOTES

Day 15 · Wed Nov 11, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 2 Psalm 90:12 · Teach Us to Number

Moon: Waxing crescent · 7% lit · 2.8 days old · in Ophiuchus | Sun: in Libra · declination -17.7°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 3/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 4:29–30 says Adam died before reaching a thousand years, because a thousand years are as one day, echoing Psalm 90:4. Jubilees 23:11–12 describes the days of the generations growing shorter.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Every canon text that counts days is also saying they are limited. That is not meant to frighten you. It is meant to make you wise. For anyone who lost years to addiction or abuse, the numbered days are grief and invitation at once.

Sky anchor, Psalm 8:3 (ESV): "When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place."

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 16 · Thu Nov 12, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 3 — Psalm 104:19–23 · Rhythms in the Body

Moon: Waxing crescent · 13% lit · 3.8 days old · in Sagittarius | Sun: in Libra · declination -17.9°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 4/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 72 tracks the sun through six gates in the east and six in the west, with days lengthening and shortening across the year. 1 Enoch 73–74 does the same for the moon.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

The body has its own rhythm, and trauma can scramble it. That is not a character flaw. Rebuilding sleep and daylight is spiritual work in the plain sense that a rested person can pray, think, and choose.

Sky anchor, Psalm 8:3 (ESV): "When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place."

MY NOTES

Day 17 · Fri Nov 13, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 4 — Proverbs 16:9 · Make the Call

Moon: Waxing crescent · 20% lit · 4.8 days old · in Sagittarius | Sun: in Libra · declination -18.2°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 5/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 15:14–17 says God created humankind and left them in the power of their own choice, and that fire and water are set before them to stretch out a hand to whichever they want.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

This is the passage to hold when you hear "it was all written." God sets real choices before you. Planning is not a lack of faith, and making the call is not arrogance. The Lord establishes steps that you actually take.

Sky anchor, Psalm 8:3 (ESV): "When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place."

MY NOTES

Day 18 · Sat Nov 14, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 5 — Mark 2:23–28 · The Sabbath Was Made for You

Moon: Waxing crescent · 28% lit · 5.8 days old · in Sagittarius | Sun: in Libra · declination -18.4°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 6/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 50:6–13 lists strict Sabbath prohibitions, many with severe penalties. Mark 2:27 and Luke 13 show Jesus reading the Sabbath through mercy.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

The canon here is stricter than Jesus. That tension is worth knowing about. When a rule about rest starts hurting the person it was meant to restore, Jesus' reading wins. Your rest rule should leave you more rested, not more ashamed.

Sky anchor, Psalm 8:3 (ESV): "When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place."

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 19 · Sun Nov 15, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 6 — Joshua 4:1–7; Psalm 77:11 · Stones of Remembrance

Moon: First quarter · 37% lit · 6.8 days old · in Capricornus | Sun: in Libra · declination -18.7° | Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 7/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 1:5–7 has God tell Moses to write down all these words. 1 Enoch 82:1 has Enoch tell Methuselah to preserve the books and hand them to the generations.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Writing things down is an ancient act of faith. A page of stones, the moments help showed up, is a record that you can return to on a day when your mind insists nothing ever helped.

Sky anchor, Isaiah 40:26 (ESV): "He who brings out their host by number, calling them all by name."

MY NOTES

Day 20 · Mon Nov 16, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 7 — Ephesians 5:15–17 · No More Borrowed Time

Moon: First quarter · 46% lit · 7.8 days old · in Capricornus | Sun: in Libra · declination -18.9° | Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 8/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 80:2–8 describes the days of the sinners as a time when the years shorten and the lights lose their order. Jubilees 6:36–38 warns of people who err about the days and feasts.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

"The days are evil" can be read two ways: as fear, or as a call to be careful with your time. Choose the second. You do not have to name every drained hour a spiritual attack to protect your time with a boundary.

Sky anchor, Isaiah 40:26 (ESV): "He who brings out their host by number, calling them all by name."

MY NOTES

Day 21 · Tue Nov 17, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 8 — Proverbs 27:23 · Know the Condition of Your Flock

Moon: Waxing gibbous · 56% lit · 8.8 days old · in Aquarius | Sun: in Libra · declination -19.2° | Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 9/14 light, growing | First quarter · Nov 17 11:47 UTC | Leonids meteor shower peak (annual, approx.)

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 11:11–24 says Prince Mastema sent ravens to eat the seed, and Abram invented a plow with a seed funnel so the birds could not reach it. Sirach 7:15 says do not hate hard work, which was created by the Most High.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Here the answer to a spiritual threat is a practical tool. Protecting a seed took a plow. Protecting your recovery may take a calendar, a ride, and a meeting list. Practical defenses are not a lack of faith.

Sky anchor, Psalm 148:3 (ESV): "Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars!"

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 22 · Wed Nov 18, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 9 — Genesis 2:7; Psalm 103:13–14 · Formed from Dust

Moon: Waxing gibbous · 66% lit · 9.8 days old · in Aquarius | Sun: in Libra · declination -19.4°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 10/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 17:1–4 says the Lord created humans out of earth. Wisdom of Solomon 2:23 says God created humans for incorruption and made them in the image of His own eternity.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Dust and image, both. Nothing in the canon says addiction or abuse makes a person worth less. Shame tells you that you are only dust. God's word says you are dust and breath, and that He remembers it.

Sky anchor, Psalm 148:3 (ESV): "Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars!"

MY NOTES

Day 23 · Thu Nov 19, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 10 — Psalm 139:13–14 · Your Body Is Not the Enemy

Moon: Waxing gibbous · 75% lit · 10.8 days old · in Pisces | Sun: in Libra · declination -19.7°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 11/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Wisdom of Solomon 7:1–6 has Solomon say he is mortal like everyone else, born the same way as every person. Sirach 38:1–14 honors the physician as someone the Lord created.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

The body is not the enemy. Caring for it is stewardship, including medical and clinical care. Prayer and treatment are not rivals.

Sky anchor, Psalm 148:3 (ESV): "Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars!"

MY NOTES

Day 24 · Fri Nov 20, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 11 — Genesis 2:15 · Work It and Keep It

Moon: Waxing gibbous · 84% lit · 11.8 days old · in Pisces | Sun: in Libra · declination -19.9°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 12/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 7:15 says not to hate hard labor, which the Most High created. Jubilees 3 retells Adam being placed in the garden to tend and keep it.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Work before the fall was not a curse. If work has only meant exploitation for you, that was harm, not God's design. A practical step toward honest work can be spiritual in its own right.

Sky anchor, Psalm 148:3 (ESV): "Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars!"

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 25 · Sat Nov 21, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 12 — Psalm 127:2 · He Gives to His Beloved Sleep

Moon: Waxing gibbous · 91% lit · 12.8 days old · in Pisces | Sun: in Libra · declination -20.1°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 13/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 31:1–2 says wakefulness over wealth wastes the flesh. Sirach 40:5–7 describes troubled thoughts and fears that confuse a person's sleep at night.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Fear that steals sleep is described in the canon without blame. If your sleep is broken by trauma, that is not weak faith and not always spiritual attack. Rest where you can, and ask for medical help if it will not come.

Sky anchor, Psalm 148:3 (ESV): "Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars!"

MY NOTES

Day 26 · Sun Nov 22, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 13 — Job 33:4 · The Breath You Did Not Make

Moon: Full moon · 96% lit · 13.8 days old · in Aries | Sun: in Libra · declination -20.3°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 14/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Wisdom of Solomon 15:11 says a person fails to know the One who formed him and breathed a living spirit into him. Job 33:4 says the same: the breath of the Almighty gives me life.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Every breath is a gift you did not make. That is not meant to shame you for not feeling grateful. It is permission to start from what is true: you are alive, and God is the reason.

Sky anchor, Psalm 89:37 (ESV): "Like the moon it shall be established forever, a faithful witness in the skies."

MY NOTES

Day 27 · Mon Nov 23, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 14 — Romans 8:1; Psalm 103:10–12 · Dust Is Not Disgrace

Moon: Full moon · 99% lit · 14.8 days old · in Aries | Sun: in Scorpius · declination -20.5°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 14/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 2:11 says the Lord is compassionate and merciful, forgives sins, and saves in time of distress. Wisdom of Solomon 11:23–12:2 says God overlooks sins so that people may repent, and spares all things because they are His.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Shame and guilt are different. The canon speaks of mercy toward the person while still calling wrong, wrong. You can take responsibility and still refuse the verdict that you are worthless.

Sky anchor, Psalm 89:37 (ESV): "Like the moon it shall be established forever, a faithful witness in the skies."

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 28 · Tue Nov 24, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 15 — Psalm 40:2 · Ground Check

Moon: Full moon · 100% lit · 15.8 days old · in Taurus | Sun: in Scorpius · declination -20.7°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 14/14 light, fading | Full moon · Nov 24 14:53 UTC

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 51:1–12 is Ben Sira's prayer of thanks for being rescued from death, from the depths of Hades, and from slander. 1 Enoch 22 pictures hollow places where the dead wait for judgment.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

DOA is not your end. God pulls people out of pits. Whatever the dead wait for, the living still have days, and you are among them. Take the ground check as a gift, not an accusation.

Sky anchor, Psalm 89:37 (ESV): "Like the moon it shall be established forever, a faithful witness in the skies."

MY NOTES

Day 29 · Wed Nov 25, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 16 — Romans 7:15–25 · The War Inside

Moon: Waning gibbous · 97% lit · 16.8 days old · in Taurus | Sun: in Scorpius · declination -20.9°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 13/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 98:4 says sin was not sent on the earth but created by people themselves. 1 Enoch 6–16 tells of Watchers who corrupted the earth from outside. Sirach 15:11–13 says do not blame the Lord for your failing.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

The canon holds both: people choose, and evil also comes at people from outside. Both are true of addiction. You are responsible for your next step, and you did not start the harm that shaped you. Hold both without drowning in either.

Sky anchor, Psalm 121:6 (ESV): "The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night."

MY NOTES

Day 30 · Thu Nov 26, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 17 — 2 Corinthians 4:7–9 · Clay Jars, Real Treasure

Moon: Waning gibbous · 91% lit · 17.8 days old · in Gemini | Sun: in Scorpius · declination -21.1°
Star: Fomalhaut (Piscis Austrinus) · low in the south | Enoch: 12/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Wisdom of Solomon 9:15 says a perishable body weighs down the soul and this earthly tent burdens the thoughtful mind. Sirach 2 and 4 speak of being tested and tried.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

A clay jar under pressure is the right picture. The canon admits the weight. You do not have to pretend it is light. Naming where you feel pressure in your body is honest prayer.

Sky anchor, Psalm 121:6 (ESV): "The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night."

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 31 · Fri Nov 27, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 18 — Proverbs 24:16 · Relapse Is Not the Last Word

Moon: Waning gibbous · 83% lit · 18.8 days old · in Gemini | Sun: in Scorpius · declination -21.3° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 11/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 17:24–26 says God gives a return to those who repent and tells them to turn back to the Lord. Sirach 5:5–7 warns against presuming on mercy by adding sin to sin.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Both sides matter. Relapse is not the last word, and it is not nothing either. The canon holds grace and responsibility together. Make the plan, call the person, and do not hide.

Sky anchor, Psalm 121:6 (ESV): "The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night."

MY NOTES

Day 32 · Sat Nov 28, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 19 — Matthew 11:28–30 · Rest for Both Halves

Moon: Waning gibbous · 74% lit · 19.8 days old · in Cancer | Sun: in Scorpius · declination -21.5° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 10/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 51:23–27 invites the untaught to take up wisdom's yoke and says, "I have labored little and found much rest," which scholars often set beside Matthew 11:28–30. Sirach 6:24–31 describes the yoke of wisdom as something that becomes a robe of gladness.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Jesus' invitation has an echo in the canon, and it is rest for the weary. A divided heart is welcome. You do not have to fix the war inside before you come to Him.

Sky anchor, Psalm 121:6 (ESV): "The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night."

MY NOTES

Day 33 · Sun Nov 29, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 20 — Psalm 86:11 · Unite My Heart

Moon: Waning gibbous · 63% lit · 20.8 days old · in Leo | Sun: in Scorpius · declination -21.6° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 9/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 1:28 says not to approach the Lord with a divided mind. 1 Enoch 91:4 says to love uprightness and not to approach it with a double heart.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

A divided heart is common, and the canon names it plainly. The answer is not self-hatred. It is to ask God to unite you, which is what Psalm 86:11 does.

Sky anchor, Psalm 121:6 (ESV): "The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night."

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 34 · Mon Nov 30, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 21 — Galatians 5:16–17 · Both/And Is Not an Excuse

Moon: Last quarter · 52% lit · 21.8 days old · in Leo | Sun: in Ophiuchus · declination -21.8° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 8/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 15:11–20 says not to say "the Lord caused me to fall away," for He does not do what He hates, and that He commanded no one to be wicked.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

This one matters a lot for how we read struggle. God does not cause your relapse, and a "spiritual conflict" label is not an excuse. Both mercy and responsibility belong here, and neither cancels the other.

Sky anchor, Psalm 136:9 (ESV): "the moon and stars to rule over the night, for his steadfast love endures forever."

MY NOTES

Day 35 · Tue Dec 1, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 22 — Proverbs 4:23 · Guard the Wellspring

Moon: Last quarter · 41% lit · 22.8 days old · in Leo | Sun: in Ophiuchus · declination -21.9° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 7/14 light, fading | Last quarter · Dec 1 06:08 UTC

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 22:27–23:6 is a prayer that God would set a guard over the mouth and a seal on the lips, and keep the heart from being led by passion.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

A prayer for a guard is the same as an if-then plan in older words. Planning ahead is not a lack of trust. It is how you guard the wellspring while you are clear.

Sky anchor, Psalm 136:9 (ESV): "the moon and stars to rule over the night, for his steadfast love endures forever."

MY NOTES

Day 36 · Wed Dec 2, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 23 — Ecclesiastes 4:9–10 · Two Are Better Than One

Moon: Waning crescent · 31% lit · 23.8 days old · in Virgo | Sun: in Ophiuchus · declination -22.1° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 6/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 6:14–17 calls a faithful friend a sturdy shelter and a treasure. Sirach 12:8–9 says a friend is not known in prosperity, and an enemy is not hidden in adversity.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Adversity shows who stays. If someone disappeared when you were at your lowest, that is information about them, not a verdict on you. The circle you draw today can be small and still be real.

Sky anchor, Job 38:33 (ESV): "Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?"

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 37 · Thu Dec 3, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 24 — Galatians 6:2 · Carry It Together

Moon: Waning crescent · 22% lit · 24.8 days old · in Virgo | Sun: in Ophiuchus · declination -22.2° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 5/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 4:1–10 tells the reader not to deprive the poor, to help the oppressed, and to be a father to orphans and a husband to widows. 4:9 says to deliver the oppressed from the hand of the oppressor.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Burden-bearing is a command in the canon too. It is not a favor to the weak. If you need help, you are not a burden. If you can help, you are not above it.

Sky anchor, Job 38:33 (ESV): "Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?"

MY NOTES

Day 38 · Fri Dec 4, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 25 — Proverbs 17:17 · A Friend Loves at All Times

Moon: Waning crescent · 14% lit · 25.8 days old · in Virgo | Sun: in Ophiuchus · declination -22.3° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 4/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 37:1–6 says some friends are friends in name only, and warns about a companion who turns into an enemy in time of trouble.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

A faithful friend is a gift and a rare one. Do not call every betrayal a spiritual attack, and do not blame yourself for trusting. Grow in discernment, and keep the door open for the ones who stay.

Sky anchor, Job 38:33 (ESV): "Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?"

MY NOTES

Day 39 · Sat Dec 5, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 26 — Job 2:11–13 · Sit With Me

Moon: Waning crescent · 8% lit · 26.8 days old · in Libra | Sun: in Ophiuchus · declination -22.5° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 3/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 7:34 says do not fail those who weep, but mourn with those who mourn. Wisdom of Solomon 3:1–3 says the souls of the righteous are in God's hand and are at peace, though to the foolish they seemed to have died.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Presence is a ministry. If someone you love is gone, the best companions say little. Wisdom 3 is a hope the canon offers, and it is a hope, not a verdict on any one person.

Sky anchor, Job 38:33 (ESV): "Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?"

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 40 · Sun Dec 6, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 27 — Hebrews 10:24–25 · Do Not Neglect Meeting

Moon: Waning crescent · 4% lit · 27.8 days old · in Libra | Sun: in Ophiuchus · declination -22.6° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 2/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 6:34–37 tells the reader to stand in the assembly of the elders and to meditate on the commandments. 1 Enoch 1:1 begins with "the words of the blessing of Enoch."

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Gathering was always part of the faith. If a gathering hurt you, you are allowed to leave and look again. Safe community does not charge for belonging, demand secrets, or punish questions.

Sky anchor, Job 38:33 (ESV): "Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?"

MY NOTES

Day 41 · Mon Dec 7, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 28 — Proverbs 18:1 · Isolation Is Not Safety

Moon: New moon · 1% lit · 28.8 days old · in Scorpius | Sun: in Ophiuchus · declination -22.7° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 1/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 12:10–18 warns that an enemy may speak sweetly and weep like a friend, and that if he finds an opening he may not be satisfied until he has drawn your blood.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Isolation can be chosen, imposed, or both, and the canon does not mock someone for being careful. Distance from a dangerous person is not the isolation this proverb warns about.

Sky anchor, Psalm 104:19 (ESV): "He made the moon to mark the seasons."

MY NOTES

Day 42 · Tue Dec 8, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 29 — Ecclesiastes 4:12 · A Cord of Three

Moon: New moon · 0% lit · 0.0 days old · in Ophiuchus | Sun: in Ophiuchus · declination -22.8° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 0/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 40:23–24 says kindred and helpers are for a time of trouble. Ecclesiastes 4:12 says a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Build your support in more than one strand. One person cannot be your whole circle, and a hotline number counts as a strand.

Sky anchor, Psalm 104:19 (ESV): "He made the moon to mark the seasons."

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 43 · Wed Dec 9, 2026 · Ethiopian Hidar 30 — Psalm 18:29 · Leap the Wall

Moon: Waxing crescent · 1% lit · 1.0 days old · in Sagittarius | Sun: in Ophiuchus · declination -22.9°
Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 1/14 light, growing | New moon · Dec 9 00:51 UTC

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 48:9–19 retells the Exodus with Prince Mastema trying to stop Moses and then being bound while Israel goes out. 1 Enoch 10:4–8 has the angel Raphael bind Azazel and cover him in darkness.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

In these texts, the barrier falls because God acts, not because a person was stronger. That does not mean you wait passively. It means you take the smallest crack and ask for help with it. A wall that "can't be climbed" may still have a door.

Sky anchor, Psalm 8:3 (ESV): "When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place."

MY NOTES

Day 44 · Thu Dec 10, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 1 — Isaiah 58:6–8 · Loose the Bonds

Moon: Waxing crescent · 4% lit · 2.0 days old · in Sagittarius | Sun: in Ophiuchus · declination -23.0°
Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 2/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 94–99 (the Epistle of Enoch) pronounces woes on oppressors and offers hope to those who suffered. 96:1–3 says the righteous who have suffered should be of good hope.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

God is against chains, and the canon does not shy away from saying so. If you were bound, the injustice is real and heaven knows it. Releasing tension in the body is a small way to practice what freedom feels like.

Sky anchor, Psalm 8:3 (ESV): "When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place."

MY NOTES

Day 45 · Fri Dec 11, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 2 — John 11:38–44 · Unbind Him

Moon: Waxing crescent · 8% lit · 3.0 days old · in Sagittarius | Sun: in Ophiuchus · declination -23.1°
Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 3/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 51:1–2 says the earth will give back what was entrusted to it and Sheol will give back what it received. 1 Enoch 91:10 says the righteous will arise from sleep.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Resurrection hope runs through the canon, and Jesus raising Lazarus shows it. But notice who did the unbinding: the community. You can be alive and still wrapped, and asking for help with the wrappings is not weakness.

Sky anchor, Psalm 8:3 (ESV): "When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place."

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 46 · Sat Dec 12, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 3 — Luke 13:10–17 · Straightened on the Sabbath

Moon: Waxing crescent · 14% lit · 4.0 days old · in Capricornus | Sun: in Ophiuchus · declination -23.1° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 4/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 50:6–13 lists strict Sabbath prohibitions. Jubilees 10:10–13 says angels taught Noah remedies from the plants of the earth for diseases. Luke 13 has Jesus healing on the Sabbath.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

The canon contains both strictness and healing. Jesus reads the Sabbath as a day for loosing people. The passage names a spiritual cause for this woman's bent back, but it does not say every ailment has one, and neither do I.

Sky anchor, Psalm 8:3 (ESV): "When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place."

MY NOTES

Day 47 · Sun Dec 13, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 4 — Luke 4:16–21; Leviticus 25:10 · Proclaim Liberty

Moon: Waxing crescent · 21% lit · 5.0 days old · in Capricornus | Sun: in Ophiuchus · declination -23.2° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 5/14 light, growing | Geminids meteor shower peak, Dec 13–14 (annual, approx.)

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 50:1–5 speaks of the jubilee years. Jubilees 1:22–25 promises that God will circumcise their hearts and create in them a holy spirit.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Liberty is built into the calendar of the canon. Jesus announces it in Nazareth as present. Where release feels far away, name what you want freedom from and for, and take one concrete step toward it.

Sky anchor, Psalm 8:3 (ESV): "When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place."

MY NOTES

Day 48 · Mon Dec 14, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 5 — Galatians 5:1 · Chains Fall, Choices Remain

Moon: Waxing crescent · 29% lit · 6.0 days old · in Aquarius | Sun: in Ophiuchus · declination -23.3° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 6/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 1:19–21 has Moses pray that the spirit of Belial not rule over Israel and that God create in them a clean heart.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

This prayer sits beside Psalm 51:10 and Galatians 5:1. It asks for freedom and a clean heart in the same breath. The canon's answer to bondage is prayer plus a changed heart, and it does not skip the practical steps that make standing firm possible.

Sky anchor, Psalm 8:3 (ESV): "When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place."

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 49 · Tue Dec 15, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 6 — Hosea 2:14–15 · A Door of Hope

Moon: First quarter · 39% lit · 7.0 days old · in Aquarius | Sun: in Ophiuchus · declination -23.3° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 7/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Baruch 4:21–29 tells the children to take courage because the One who brought the calamity will bring everlasting joy. Jubilees 1:15–18 promises that God will return them and build His sanctuary among them.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

These texts attribute exile to God's discipline of a people. Do not turn that into "God did this to you." Most trauma is human harm, and God is against it. The part to keep is the promise: a valley of trouble can become a door of hope.

Sky anchor, Isaiah 40:26 (ESV): "He who brings out their host by number, calling them all by name."

MY NOTES

Day 50 · Wed Dec 16, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 7 — 1 Corinthians 13:12 · In a Mirror, Dimly

Moon: First quarter · 49% lit · 8.0 days old · in Pisces | Sun: in Ophiuchus · declination -23.3° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 8/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Wisdom of Solomon 9:13–18 asks who can learn the counsel of God and says our plans are unstable. 1 Enoch 93:11–14 asks who can hear the voice of the Holy One without being troubled.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Not knowing is the human condition. No soul contract or hidden script has to be decoded for you to live faithfully. The canon's answer to not knowing is trust and the next faithful step.

Sky anchor, Isaiah 40:26 (ESV): "He who brings out their host by number, calling them all by name."

MY NOTES

Day 51 · Thu Dec 17, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 8 — 1 Thessalonians 5:16–18 · Give Thanks Without Pretending

Moon: Waxing gibbous · 59% lit · 9.0 days old · in Pisces | Sun: in Ophiuchus · declination -23.4° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 9/14 light, growing | First quarter · Dec 17 05:42 UTC

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 50:22–24 calls the reader to bless the God who works wonders everywhere. Sirach 38:16–23 says to weep bitterly for the dead and mourn, and then to be comforted.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Gratitude and grief are not enemies. The canon tells people to mourn well and then to receive comfort, in that order. Do not hurry grief, and do not let it be the only thing you are allowed to feel.

Sky anchor, Psalm 148:3 (ESV): "Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars!"

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 52 · Fri Dec 18, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 9 — Exodus 16:4; Matthew 6:11 · Daily Bread

Moon: Waxing gibbous · 69% lit · 10.0 days old · in Pisces | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -23.4° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 10/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Wisdom of Solomon 16:20–29 retells the manna as the food of angels. 16:28 says people must rise before the sun to give thanks and pray at the dawning of the light.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Daily bread and the dawn are tied together in this text. It is one more reason to treat a small morning anchor as holy. Needing the day's bread and not the month's is how God taught people to trust.

Sky anchor, Psalm 148:3 (ESV): "Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars!"

MY NOTES

Day 53 · Sat Dec 19, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 10 — Matthew 6:34 · Do Not Be Anxious About Tomorrow

Moon: Waxing gibbous · 79% lit · 11.0 days old · in Aries | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -23.4° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 11/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 30:21–25 says not to give yourself over to sorrow, and that anxiety brings premature old age. 30:23 says to delight your soul and comfort your heart.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

This is a practical word about worry in a canon text. It does not shame the anxious. It says to comfort your heart. A worry window is a way of doing that.

Sky anchor, Psalm 148:3 (ESV): "Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars!"

MY NOTES

Day 54 · Sun Dec 20, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 11 — Isaiah 9:2 · Waiting in the Dark

Moon: Waxing gibbous · 87% lit · 12.0 days old · in Aries | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -23.4° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 12/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 48:4 says the Chosen One will be a light to the nations and the hope of those who are troubled of heart.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Advent is waiting in the dark without pretending it is morning. If you are in that place, you are in the part of the story where waiting is faithful. Light a small light and say what you are waiting for.

Sky anchor, Psalm 148:3 (ESV): "Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars!"

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 55 · Mon Dec 21, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 12 — Matthew 5:37 · A Simple Yes or No

Moon: Waxing gibbous · 94% lit · 13.0 days old · in Taurus | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -23.4° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 13/14 light, growing | Winter solstice (Northern Hemisphere) · Dec 21 20:49 UTC

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 23:9–11 warns against accustoming the mouth to oaths. Sirach 5:10–14 says to be steady in your convictions and quick to hear but deliberate in answering.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

A plain no is not rudeness. It is integrity. If a gathering is unsafe, you do not owe a long explanation or your presence.

Sky anchor, Psalm 148:3 (ESV): "Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars!"

MY NOTES

Day 56 · Tue Dec 22, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 13 — Ecclesiastes 11:4–6 · Sow Anyway

Moon: Full moon · 98% lit · 14.0 days old · in Taurus | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -23.4° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 14/14 light, growing | Ursids meteor shower peak (annual, approx.)

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 11:21–28 warns that no one knows the future and that a day of prosperity can be forgotten in adversity. Jubilees 11:23–24 has Abram sowing in faith.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

The canon admits that the future is not yours to see. It never says to stop sowing because of that. Do one small thing without a guarantee.

Sky anchor, Psalm 89:37 (ESV): "Like the moon it shall be established forever, a faithful witness in the skies."

MY NOTES

Day 57 · Wed Dec 23, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 14 — Isaiah 43:1 · Called by Name

Moon: Full moon · 100% lit · 15.0 days old · in Gemini | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -23.4° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 14/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Baruch 3:34–35 says the stars shine at their watches and answer when called. 1 Enoch 48:3 says a name was named before the sun and stars were made.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Names matter in the canon. A name given in harm is not final, and God's name for you stands. If a label has followed you, you are allowed to put it down.

Sky anchor, Psalm 89:37 (ESV): "Like the moon it shall be established forever, a faithful witness in the skies."

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 58 · Thu Dec 24, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 15

Psalm 147:3–4 · He Counts the Stars, He Binds the Wounds

Moon: Full moon · 98% lit · 16.0 days old · in Gemini | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -23.4° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 13/14 light, fading | Full moon · Dec 24 01:28 UTC

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 43:1–4 says Enoch saw how God called the stars by their names and they obeyed Him. Baruch 3:34–35 has the stars answer, "Here we are."

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

This is the closest the canon comes to your sky tonight. Stars are called by name, and so are you. The sky is not a message about your fate. It is a picture of a God who knows each one.

Sky anchor, Psalm 89:37 (ESV): "Like the moon it shall be established forever, a faithful witness in the skies."

MY NOTES

Day 59 · Fri Dec 25, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 16

Genesis 16:7–14 · The God Who Sees

Moon: Waning gibbous · 94% lit · 17.0 days old · in Cancer | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -23.4° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 12/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 14 retells the story of Hagar and Ishmael. 1 Enoch 9:10 says the cry of those who perished has gone up to the gate of heaven.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

God sees the trafficked, the used, and the run-away. The canon does not minimize their cries. If you or someone you know is in danger, call for help now: that is also a way of agreeing with a God who hears.

Sky anchor, Psalm 121:6 (ESV): "The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night."

MY NOTES

Day 60 · Sat Dec 26, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 17

Psalm 139:11–12 · Rest in Being Known

Moon: Waning gibbous · 87% lit · 18.0 days old · in Cancer | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -23.3° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 11/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 9:5 says all things are naked and open in God's sight and nothing can hide from Him. Sirach 42:18–20 says He searches the abyss and the human heart.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Being known by God is not surveillance. In the canon it is how the oppressed are heard. For anyone who was watched by someone who meant harm, this is a different kind of seeing.

Sky anchor, Psalm 121:6 (ESV): "The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night."

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 61 · Sun Dec 27, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 18 Lamentations 3:22–23 · New Month, New Mercies

Moon: Waning gibbous · 78% lit · 19.0 days old · in Leo | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -23.3° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 10/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 18:8–14 says God is patient with people and pours out mercy on them. Baruch 2:31 says God will give them a heart that obeys.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Mercy is renewed, and so are chances to begin again. A new month does not erase anything, and it does not need to. It is permission to start the next day from where you are.

Sky anchor, Psalm 121:6 (ESV): "The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night."

MY NOTES

Day 62 · Mon Dec 28, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 19 Revelation 2:17 · Not Your Name

Moon: Waning gibbous · 68% lit · 20.0 days old · in Leo | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -23.2° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 9/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

I do not know of a direct canon parallel for the white stone in Revelation 2:17. The nearest thread is names: 1 Enoch 43:1–4 and Baruch 3:34–35 have the stars called by name.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

A new name is promised by Jesus to those who overcome. Names assigned by shame are not final. You can refuse a label honestly and still wait for the name you have not yet received.

Sky anchor, Psalm 121:6 (ESV): "The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night."

MY NOTES

Day 63 · Tue Dec 29, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 20 Isaiah 61:3 · Corner to Crown

Moon: Waning gibbous · 58% lit · 21.0 days old · in Virgo | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -23.2° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 8/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Wisdom of Solomon 5:15–16 says the righteous will receive a glorious crown and a beautiful diadem from the Lord's hand. Sirach 6:30–31 describes wisdom's fetters as a golden ornament and a crown of gladness.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

A crown is a gift for the one who mourned. Dignity is not earned by being fixed. A dignity act, however small, is a way of agreeing with what God says.

Sky anchor, Psalm 121:6 (ESV): "The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night."

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 64 · Wed Dec 30, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 21 — Deuteronomy 5:12–15 · You Were a Slave

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 49 retells the Passover in Egypt. Jubilees 50 closes the book on the Sabbath and jubilee years.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Deliverance and rest are tied together in the canon. If rest felt unsafe because it was punished, your body may need time to believe the change. Rest is evidence that you are no longer owned.

Sky anchor, Psalm 136:9 (ESV): "the moon and stars to rule over the night, for his steadfast love endures forever."

MY NOTES

Day 65 · Thu Dec 31, 2026 · Ethiopian Tahsas 22 — 1 Kings 19:1–8 · Elijah Ate First

Moon: Last quarter · 37% lit · 23.0 days old · in Virgo | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -23.0° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 6/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 30:14–16 says good health is better than gold. Sirach 30:23 says to delight your soul and comfort your heart.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Elijah was fed and slept before he heard God. Do not make a spiritual project of what is a physical need. Eat, drink, sleep, and then listen.

Sky anchor, Psalm 136:9 (ESV): "the moon and stars to rule over the night, for his steadfast love endures forever."

MY NOTES

Day 66 · Fri Jan 1, 2027 · Ethiopian Tahsas 23 — Mark 2:17; Sirach 38:1–14 · Honor the Physician

Moon: Waning crescent · 28% lit · 24.0 days old · in Virgo | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -22.9° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 5/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 38:1–14 says to honor the physician and to pray, and also to let the physician do his work. Jubilees 10:10–13 says angels taught Noah remedies from plants. 1 Enoch 7:1 and 8:3 say the Watchers taught forbidden "cutting of roots" and enchantments.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

The canon is not uniform here. Enoch fears corrupted knowledge, and Jubilees and Sirach bless medicine. Read with Jesus: He called Himself a physician for the sick (Mark 2:17). Treatment is not witchcraft. Be careful of anyone who sells spiritual cures for addiction or illness and tells you to drop real care.

Sky anchor, Job 38:33 (ESV): "Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?"

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 67 · Sat Jan 2, 2027 · Ethiopian Tahsas 24 — Hebrews 4:9–11 · A Sabbath Rest Remains

Moon: Waning crescent · 19% lit · 25.0 days old · in Libra | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -22.9° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 4/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 24:7–11 has wisdom seek a resting place and find it in Jacob. Jubilees 2:17–33 treats the Sabbath as a heavenly sign.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Hebrews says a Sabbath rest remains. That means rest is promised and still on its way. In the meantime you can practice it, in pieces, with your whole body.

Sky anchor, Job 38:33 (ESV): "Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?"

MY NOTES

Day 68 · Sun Jan 3, 2027 · Ethiopian Tahsas 25 — Psalm 4:8 · Safe Enough to Sleep

Moon: Waning crescent · 12% lit · 26.0 days old · in Scorpius | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -22.8° | Star: Mirfak (Perseus) | Enoch: 3/14 light, fading | Quadrantids meteor shower peak, Jan 3–4 (annual, approx.)

CANON DEEP DIVE

Wisdom of Solomon 17:1–21 describes terror in the darkness, and 17:12 says fear is the surrender of the help that reason offers.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

The canon describes night terror honestly. Fear that makes reason go quiet is not unbelief. If your home is not safe, call for help. If your nights are unsafe inside you, say so to a doctor or counselor too.

Sky anchor, Job 38:33 (ESV): "Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?"

MY NOTES

Day 69 · Mon Jan 4, 2027 · Ethiopian Tahsas 26 — Mark 1:35–38 · Rest Is Not Rebellion

Moon: Waning crescent · 7% lit · 27.0 days old · in Scorpius | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -22.7° | Star: Aldebaran (Taurus) | Enoch: 2/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 12:1–2 says Enoch was hidden and no one knew where he was. In 1 Enoch 13 he then intercedes on others' behalf.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Withdrawing to pray and then going back to the people is the pattern here, and it is Jesus' pattern in Mark 1. Saying no to good things is how you say yes to the right ones.

Sky anchor, Job 38:33 (ESV): "Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?"

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 70 · Tue Jan 5, 2027 · Ethiopian Tahsas 27 — Jeremiah 4:3 · Break Up the Fallow Ground

Moon: Waning crescent · 3% lit · 28.0 days old · in Ophiuchus | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -22.5° | Star: Aldebaran (Taurus) | Enoch: 1/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 6:18–19 says to come to wisdom like one who plows and sows. Jubilees 11:23 has Abram invent a seed plow.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Clearing thorns takes tools and help. If the thorn is a substance, bring a supporter before you start pulling.

Sky anchor, Job 38:33 (ESV): "Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?"

MY NOTES

Day 71 · Wed Jan 6, 2027 · Ethiopian Tahsas 28 — John 8:12 · I Am the Light of the World

Moon: New moon · 1% lit · 29.0 days old · in Sagittarius | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -22.4° | Star: Aldebaran (Taurus) | Enoch: 0/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 38:4 says the light of the Lord of Spirits will be seen on the face of the holy. Wisdom of Solomon 7:26 calls wisdom a reflection of eternal light.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Jesus is the light of the world. Following Him means walking in what He shows. A gap between what you say and do is information. It is not an attack, and it is not the end of you.

Sky anchor, Psalm 104:19 (ESV): "He made the moon to mark the seasons."

MY NOTES

Day 72 · Thu Jan 7, 2027 · Ethiopian Tahsas 29 — Ephesians 5:8–10 · Walk as Children of Light

Moon: New moon · 0% lit · 0.2 days old · in Sagittarius | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -22.3° | Star: Aldebaran (Taurus) | Enoch: 0/14 light, growing | New moon · Jan 7 20:24 UTC

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 108:11–15 says God will bring those who loved His name into shining light. 108:8–9 says they were tried in fire.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Being light in the Lord is an identity before it is a behavior. The canon admits the testing. It does not say the testing was good, only that those who endured will shine.

Sky anchor, Psalm 104:19 (ESV): "He made the moon to mark the seasons."

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 73 · Fri Jan 8, 2027 · Ethiopian Tahsas 30 — Matthew 5:14–16 · Let Your Light Shine

Moon: Waxing crescent · 1% lit · 1.2 days old · in Capricornus | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -22.2° | Star: Aldebaran (Taurus) | Enoch: 1/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 50:5–7 describes the high priest Simon as the morning star among the clouds, like the moon when full, like the sun shining on the temple. Sirach 43:1–12 is a hymn to the sun, moon, and stars.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Light is a gift, and a quiet good deed is a way to hold it. The canon praises the lights of heaven as the work of God, which is a different thing from being led by them.

Sky anchor, Psalm 8:3 (ESV): "When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place."

MY NOTES

Day 74 · Sat Jan 9, 2027 · Ethiopian Tir 1 — James 1:17 · No Variation, No Shadow

Moon: Waxing crescent · 4% lit · 2.2 days old · in Capricornus | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -22.0° | Star: Aldebaran (Taurus) | Enoch: 2/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 43:1–5 calls the sun a marvelous instrument, the work of the Most High, and says that at noon it parches the land. 1 Enoch 72 follows the sun through its gates.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

God does not change like the shadows do. Sit in the sun and receive a good gift. You are not earning anything today.

Sky anchor, Psalm 8:3 (ESV): "When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place."

MY NOTES

Day 75 · Sun Jan 10, 2027 · Ethiopian Tir 2 — Psalm 36:7–9 · In Your Light We See Light

Moon: Waxing crescent · 9% lit · 3.2 days old · in Capricornus | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -21.9° | Star: Aldebaran (Taurus) | Enoch: 3/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 24:19–22 says those who eat wisdom will hunger for more and those who drink will thirst for more. Sirach 15:3 says she will feed him with the bread of understanding and give him the water of wisdom to drink.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

My own word for God, the OG Plug, is a metaphor and not a title from Scripture. What the old source promised and took is a real comparison. The Source gives without taking more than it gives.

Sky anchor, Psalm 8:3 (ESV): "When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place."

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 76 · Mon Jan 11, 2027 · Ethiopian Tir 3 — Psalm 30:5 · The Longest Night

Moon: Waxing crescent · 15% lit · 4.2 days old · in Aquarius | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -21.7° | Star: Aldebaran (Taurus) | Enoch: 4/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 72 describes the longest day as two-thirds of the day and the shortest night as one-third, which is steeper than the real daylight at Jerusalem. The chapter is a schematic and not a measurement.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

The winter solstice, around December 21, is the longest night in the Northern Hemisphere, and after it the days lengthen. That is astronomy, not a sign about you. Let the longest night be honest, and look for the small sign that light returns.

Sky anchor, Psalm 8:3 (ESV): "When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place."

MY NOTES

Day 77 · Tue Jan 12, 2027 · Ethiopian Tir 4 — John 3:19–21 · Bring It to the Light

Moon: Waxing crescent · 23% lit · 5.2 days old · in Pisces | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -21.5° | Star: Aldebaran (Taurus) | Enoch: 5/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 17:15–20 says people's ways are always before the Lord and are not hidden from His eyes. Sirach 17:24–26 invites them to return.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Bringing something to the light is not exposure. It is telling someone safe. Hidden things lose power when named to a trustworthy person.

Sky anchor, Psalm 8:3 (ESV): "When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place."

MY NOTES

Day 78 · Wed Jan 13, 2027 · Ethiopian Tir 5 — John 15:4–5 · Abide

Moon: Waxing crescent · 32% lit · 6.2 days old · in Pisces | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -21.4° | Star: Aldebaran (Taurus) | Enoch: 6/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 24:17–21 has wisdom say "Like the vine I bud forth delights." 1 Enoch 10:18–19 pictures a future in which the vine will be planted and bear abundant fruit. Jubilees 7:1 says Noah planted a vineyard.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Fruit grows from connection, not from straining. The canon sees vineyards as God's and as ours to tend. Abiding is not passive. It is staying close to the Source.

Sky anchor, Psalm 8:3 (ESV): "When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place."

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 79 · Thu Jan 14, 2027 · Ethiopian Tir 6 — Luke 2:8–14 · Good News for the Night Shift

Moon: First quarter · 42% lit · 7.2 days old · in Pisces | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -21.2° | Star: Aldebaran (Taurus) | Enoch: 7/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Wisdom of Solomon 18:14–15 says that while gentle silence enveloped all things and night was in the midst of its swift course, God's all-powerful word leaped from heaven.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Christmastime is heavy for many. This line suits a night like that. It says that God arrives in the middle of the night, in silence. If tonight is hard, you are not behind.

Sky anchor, Isaiah 40:26 (ESV): "He who brings out their host by number, calling them all by name."

MY NOTES

Day 80 · Fri Jan 15, 2027 · Ethiopian Tir 7 — John 1:14 · God With Us

Moon: First quarter · 53% lit · 8.2 days old · in Pisces | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -21.0° | Star: Aldebaran (Taurus) | Enoch: 8/14 light, growing | First quarter · Jan 15 20:34 UTC

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 24:8–12 has wisdom say that her Creator assigned a place for her tent, and she took root in a people. John 1:14 uses a word for dwelling that means pitching a tent.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

The Word became flesh and moved in. That is the heart of it: God came near. If this season is hard, that is not a failure of Christmas. Let one small thing be a gift.

Sky anchor, Isaiah 40:26 (ESV): "He who brings out their host by number, calling them all by name."

MY NOTES

Day 81 · Sat Jan 16, 2027 · Ethiopian Tir 8 — Psalm 23:1–3 · He Restores My Soul

Moon: Waxing gibbous · 63% lit · 9.2 days old · in Aries | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -20.8° | Star: Rigel (Orion) | Enoch: 9/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Wisdom of Solomon 4:7–14 says the righteous, though they die early, will be at rest, and 4:13 says that being perfected in a short time, he fulfilled long years. Wisdom 3:1–3 says the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

This is the closest the canon comes to the language of a short life being "fulfilled." It is about the righteous, it is a hope and not a formula, and it does not say a death was planned, required, or agreed to. See the essay on soul contracts for how to hold this carefully.

Sky anchor, Psalm 148:3 (ESV): "Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars!"

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 82 · Sun Jan 17, 2027 · Ethiopian Tir 9 — Isaiah 27:2–3 · Keeper of the Vineyard

Moon: Waxing gibbous · 74% lit · 10.2 days old · in Aries | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -20.6°
Star: Rigel (Orion) | Enoch: 10/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 7 retells Noah's vineyard, his wine, and the first fruits. 1 Enoch 10:19 pictures abundant vines. Sirach 6:19 describes wisdom like one who plows and sows.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Be careful with the vineyard image. Noah's vineyard also led to Noah's fall in Genesis 9:20–21. Good things can be misused, and tending a vineyard includes tending what you do with its fruit.

Sky anchor, Psalm 148:3 (ESV): "Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars!"

MY NOTES

Day 83 · Mon Jan 18, 2027 · Ethiopian Tir 10 — Song of Solomon 2:15 · Catch the Little Foxes

Moon: Waxing gibbous · 83% lit · 11.2 days old · in Taurus | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -20.4°
Star: Rigel (Orion) | Enoch: 11/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 19:1–2 says that workers who are drunkards will not become rich, that whoever despises small things will fall little by little, and that wine and women lead the intelligent astray.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Little foxes are small things, and the canon says to take small things seriously. This is not shaming anyone. It is a reason to put a fence around the small ones before they grow.

Sky anchor, Psalm 148:3 (ESV): "Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars!"

MY NOTES

Day 84 · Tue Jan 19, 2027 · Ethiopian Tir 11 — John 15:2 · Pruning Is Not Punishing

Moon: Waxing gibbous · 91% lit · 12.2 days old · in Taurus | Sun: in Sagittarius · declination -20.2°
Star: Rigel (Orion) | Enoch: 12/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 4:17–19 says wisdom first walks with a person on winding paths and tests them, then comes straight back and gladdens them. Wisdom of Solomon 3:5–6 says they were tested like gold in a furnace.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Be careful here too. The canon uses refining language, and it is not saying that abuse or trauma is God's pruning. A vinedresser prunes for fruit with care. If what happened to you was harm, call it harm.

Sky anchor, Psalm 148:3 (ESV): "Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars!"

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 85 · Wed Jan 20, 2027 · Ethiopian Tir 12 — Deuteronomy 30:15–20 · Choose Life

Moon: Waxing gibbous · 97% lit · 13.2 days old · in Gemini | Sun: in Capricornus · declination -20.0° | Star: Rigel (Orion) | Enoch: 13/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

Jubilees 5:13–18 pictures judgments written on the heavenly tablets, and also says there is forgiveness written for those who turn. 1 Enoch 81:1–2 has Enoch told to read the heavenly tablets. Sirach 15:14–17 says God left humankind to their own choice.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

This is the best place to see why "it was all written" is not the whole canon. Even the tablets include a pardon for those who turn. Choice is real. Choose life, and do not choose alone.

Sky anchor, Psalm 148:3 (ESV): "Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars!"

MY NOTES

Day 86 · Thu Jan 21, 2027 · Ethiopian Tir 13 — Philippians 3:13–14 · Forgetting What Lies Behind

Moon: Full moon · 100% lit · 14.2 days old · in Gemini | Sun: in Capricornus · declination -19.8° | Star: Rigel (Orion) | Enoch: 14/14 light, growing

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 104:1–6 tells the righteous to be of good hope and says they will shine like the lights of heaven. Daniel 12:3 says the wise will shine like the brightness of the sky.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Shining like the sky is a promise about the end, not a description of this week. On a year-end night, a kind look back and a safe night are enough.

Sky anchor, Psalm 89:37 (ESV): "Like the moon it shall be established forever, a faithful witness in the skies."

MY NOTES

Day 87 · Fri Jan 22, 2027 · Ethiopian Tir 14 — Revelation 21:5 · All Things New

Moon: Full moon · 100% lit · 15.2 days old · in Cancer | Sun: in Capricornus · declination -19.5° | Star: Capella (Auriga) | Enoch: 14/14 light, fading | Full moon · Jan 22 12:17 UTC

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 72:1 speaks of the courses of the luminaries until the new creation is accomplished, which lasts forever. Jubilees 1:29 looks ahead to the day of the new creation.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

Renewal is the canon's horizon. Revelation 21:5 says God is making things new. It does not say the year will be perfect. Begin with small practices.

Sky anchor, Psalm 89:37 (ESV): "Like the moon it shall be established forever, a faithful witness in the skies."

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 88 · Sat Jan 23, 2027 · Ethiopian Tir 15 — Psalm 121:7–8 · The Keeper of Your Going Out

Moon: Waning gibbous · 96% lit · 16.2 days old · in Leo | Sun: in Capricornus · declination -19.3° | Star: Capella (Auriga) | Enoch: 13/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 100:5 says God will set a guard of holy angels over all the righteous. Jubilees 10 describes angels binding evil spirits at Noah's prayer.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

The canon speaks of guarding. Psalm 121 does too. Both can be held beside real safety steps. A guard in prayer does not replace locking a door, a safety plan, or a phone number.

Sky anchor, Psalm 121:6 (ESV): "The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night."

MY NOTES

Day 89 · Sun Jan 24, 2027 · Ethiopian Tir 16 — Joshua 24:14–15 · Choose This Day

Moon: Waning gibbous · 91% lit · 17.2 days old · in Sextans | Sun: in Capricornus · declination -19.1° | Star: Capella (Auriga) | Enoch: 12/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Baruch 4:1 says wisdom is the book of the commandments of God and that all who hold her fast will live. Sirach 15:14–17 says choice is set before each person.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

"As for me" is a first-person choice, and you cannot make it for anyone else. Not your family, not your friends, and not someone you lost.

Sky anchor, Psalm 121:6 (ESV): "The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night."

MY NOTES

Day 90 · Mon Jan 25, 2027 · Ethiopian Tir 17 — Proverbs 4:25–27 · Ponder the Path

Moon: Waning gibbous · 83% lit · 18.2 days old · in Leo | Sun: in Capricornus · declination -18.8° | Star: Capella (Auriga) | Enoch: 11/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

1 Enoch 91:4 says to love uprightness and walk in it, and not to approach it with a double heart. 1 Enoch 91:18–19 describes the path of righteousness and the path of violence.

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

A no-list and a yes-list are a way of pondering the path of your feet. Keep them short and share them with a safe person.

Sky anchor, Psalm 121:6 (ESV): "The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night."

MY NOTES

The sky marks time and points to its Maker. It does not predict anyone's day.

Day 91 · Tue Jan 26, 2027 · Ethiopian Tir 18 Numbers 6:24–26 · The Blessing

Moon: Waning gibbous · 74% lit · 19.2 days old · in Virgo Sun: in Capricornus · declination -18.6°

Star: Alnilam (Orion) Enoch: 10/14 light, fading

CANON DEEP DIVE

Sirach 50:20–21 describes Simon the high priest coming down to bless the whole congregation. 1 Enoch 1:1 opens with "the words of the blessing of Enoch."

HOW GOD WOULD WANT IT READ

This blessing asks for keeping, light, grace, and peace. Receive it as a gift and not as a prediction of how your life will go. The next season begins when you decide it does.

Sky anchor, Psalm 121:6 (ESV): "The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night."

MY NOTES

Closing Page

You do not have to decode the sky, a verse, or a canon text to be loved by God or to take your next step. These pages are a way to look closer at things God made and wrote about, and to look at them with Jesus at the center.

Where this stops. If anything here makes you more afraid, more secret, or less able to get care, set it down. The Bible's own answer to confusion is Christ, truth, safe people, and the next faithful step.

WHAT I AM TAKING FROM THE DEEP DIVE

Sunrise, sunset, day length, moonrise, and moonset depend on exactly where you stand, so they are not on the day pages yet. To add them, put one line in `data/location.txt`, like `Austin, TX | 30.27 | -97.74 | America/Chicago`, and rebuild.

Until then, use the moon's phase, the sun's constellation and declination, and the evening star on each page. Those are the same everywhere on Earth for a given date and hour, apart from how high the star appears in your sky.

You survived. Now we rebuild.
