Scripture. Scripture quotations are from the ESV Bible (The Holy Bible, English Standard Version), copyright © 2001 by Crossway, a publishing ministry of Good News Publishers. All rights reserved. Quotations are identified as ESV on the page. Please read each passage in its full context in your own Bible. Where a verse is not quoted, the reference is given and the idea is paraphrased.

Not treatment. This workbook is a devotional and journaling tool. It is not medical care, therapy, addiction treatment, legal advice, or crisis support, and the author is not a licensed clinician. Prayer sits beside treatment, medical care, safe housing, and safety planning. It does not replace them. If a page raises something heavy, skip it. You never have to relive anything to finish a page.

Not an emergency service. If you are in immediate danger, call 911 (US). The numbers below are for the United States and may change, so confirm them. Outside the US, look up your local equivalents.

About the Ethiopian canon texts. 1 Enoch (Henok), Jubilees (Kufale), Sirach, Wisdom of Solomon, and Baruch are quoted or referenced here as ancient writings. The Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahedo Church receives them as canon. Most Protestant, Catholic, and Eastern Orthodox churches do not treat all of them as Scripture, though Jude 14–15 quotes 1 Enoch 1:9. Read them as witnesses to how God's people understood time and creation, and let Scripture carry the weight. Chapter references follow common translations, so verse numbers may differ slightly in yours.

About the physics. Every quantum-physics idea in this book is offered as an analogy or a picture, and each one is labeled that way. These ideas do not prove Scripture and do not show that thoughts control reality. Scripture is not a physics textbook, and physics is not a theology. Where an idea is popular but wrong, the page says so.

About the creative symbols. Broken chains, vineyards, and sunrise are symbols of freedom and renewal. A page or a prayer does not literally break a curse or guarantee an outcome. Real change also takes support, time, and often professional help.

What's Ahead

Ninety-one days is thirteen weeks, one full quarter of the 364-day calendar. Each week has a theme, a Scripture, a thread from the Ethiopian canon, and one quantum-physics picture. Each day gives you a page to read, write on, and act from. Here is the road.

Wk	Theme and goal	Dates
1	Let There Be Lights Find your starting line. One honest place to stand, and a rhythm of lights to orient by.	Oct 28 – Nov 3
2	Order in the Heavens Build one small rhythm you can repeat, and trust small steps to count.	Nov 4 – Nov 10
3	Number Your Days Count the days honestly, grieve the lost ones, and plan the next ones with real limits in mind.	Nov 11 – Nov 17
4	Dust and Breath Treat your body and your story as formed, not forged by shame. Get grounded.	Nov 18 – Nov 24
5	Both/And Tell the truth about the split without hating yourself, and start building a plan for the part of you that wants to live.	Nov 25 – Dec 1
6	Not Alone Reach one safe person, and start building a circle that does not depend on one person.	Dec 2 – Dec 8
7	Walls and Breakthrough Name the wall, find the smallest crack, and ask for the specific help that crack requires.	Dec 9 – Dec 15
8	What We Cannot Know Hold the unknown with open hands, practice gratitude through a heavy season, and keep doing the next faithful thing.	Dec 16 – Dec 22
9	Known by Name Take back your name, set down names that are not yours, and let one true thing about you be said out loud.	Dec 23 – Dec 29
10	Ground State Receive real rest, eat, sleep, and let medical and professional care be part of your rebuilding.	Dec 30 – Jan 5
11	Aligned Light Close the gap between what you say you value and how you spend your day, one small honest alignment at a time.	Jan 6 – Jan 12
12	Vine and Branch Stay connected to the Source, name what needs pruning, and tend your own vineyard first.	Jan 13 – Jan 19
13	From Possible to Chosen Look back with honesty, choose what comes next on purpose, and close this season with a blessing.	Jan 20 – Jan 26

Prelude: four days to get ready, Sat Oct 24 to Tue Oct 27, then Day 1 on Wednesday, October 28. Three months: Month 1, The Lights Are Set (Oct 28 – Nov 26). Month 2, The Ground Is Broken (Nov 27 – Dec 26). Month 3, The Vine Is Tended (Dec 27 – Jan 26).

Start Here

I did not build this on a clean stage. I built it on the floor. I know what it is to be alone and scared of people, to go looking for another plug, and to reach for help and find strings attached. I also know what it is to be handed a watered-down verse and told to pray it away. I needed somewhere that could hold the truth about trauma without pushing God out of the room. This is my attempt to build that for you.

I am not finished. I am not a counselor or a doctor, and surviving something did not make me qualified to treat you. I am building as I go, with my American Bully, Big Boy, beside me. What I can do is reach back with what I have learned, what Scripture actually teaches, and something practical you can use today.

This workbook starts today, Saturday, October 24, 2026, with a four-day Prelude, and then runs ninety-one days from Wednesday, October 28 to Tuesday, January 26, 2027. Each day is one page. Each page has the same five parts, so when you are tired you will always know where to go next:

Part	What it is
1. Sanctuary	A short, optional grounding exercise and a one-line prayer. Skip it, keep your eyes open, or use any anchor that works for you.
2. Scripture & Teaching	A passage, what it meant in context, and how it speaks to someone rebuilding. Then three boxes: God’s original intent, a quantum-physics picture, and an Ethiopian canon thread.
3. Sacred Reflection	Three prompts with room to write. Grief, anger, doubt, honesty, and hope are all welcome here.
4. Soft Action	One realistic step, broken into three small steps with checkboxes. You are allowed to do less.
5. Supplication	A prayer for the days you cannot find your own words, and one short declaration.

Grace is not enabling, and understanding is not excusing. A relapse does not make you disposable. Forgiveness does not automatically restore trust or access. You can tell God the truth before you know how to clean it up.

You survived. Now we rebuild. We do not have to rebuild your whole life before sundown. We do need to choose what happens next. Turn the page.

How the Calendar Works

The 364-day pattern. 1 Enoch 72–82 and Jubilees 6 describe a solar year of exactly 364 days: 52 weeks and four seasons of 91 days (13 weeks). As scholars read these texts, each season begins on the fourth day of the week, a Wednesday. Each season is three months of 30, 30, and 31 days. This workbook is one season of that pattern.

Why you start today but Day 1 is Wednesday. Wednesday is the fourth day of the creation week, when God set the sun, moon, and stars (Gen. 1:14–19), and it is the day each 91-day season begins. Today, Saturday, October 24, 2026, is not a Wednesday, so you begin with a four-day Prelude (Saturday through Tuesday) to get your ground ready. Day 1 is Wednesday, October 28, and Day 91 is Tuesday, January 26, 2027. I chose that anchor. I am not claiming October 28 is the official new year of the Enoch calendar. Scholars reconstruct how the 364-day year lined up with the Gregorian one in different ways, and the ancient sources do not settle it. The 364-day year is also about a day and a quarter shorter than the sun's true year (about 365.24 days), and the old texts do not clearly say how that was corrected. Staying inside one 91-day season avoids guessing.

Every page shows three dates. The Gregorian date, the workbook's 364-day position (Month, Day, Week), and the Ethiopian date. The Ethiopian calendar is a different solar calendar with 12 months of 30 days plus a short thirteenth month, and it is about seven to eight years behind the Gregorian one. Today, October 24, 2026, is Tikimt 14, 2019 E.C..

Weeks run Wednesday to Tuesday. Each weekday keeps one job all season, matched to the creation week:

Weekday	Creation day	Job for the day
Wednesday	Fourth Day: The Lights Are Set	Orient and plan
Thursday	Fifth Day: Water and Sky	Body and breath
Friday	Sixth Day: Made for Each Other	Connect and do the work
Saturday	Seventh Day: Sabbath	Rest
Sunday	First Day: Let There Be Light	Worship and gratitude
Monday	Second Day: The Great Separation	Boundaries and truth
Tuesday	Third Day: Ground and Vine	Plant and prune

About Sabbath. Saturday is the seventh day, and it is your Sabbath. If your church gathers on Sunday, keep both: rest on one and worship on the other. Rest was never meant to be a performance. It is the first thing slavery takes, and the first thing God gives back (Deut. 5:15). Take what you can get, even twenty minutes.

Where to start each week. Read the Week Map first, then the Day-by-Day Steps, then each day's page. Fill in the monthly calendar as you go.

MY STARTING CHECK-IN (OCTOBER 24, 2026): HOW AM I, HONESTLY?

Four Days Before the Lights

Why a Prelude?

Each 91-day season of the 364-day calendar begins on a Wednesday, the fourth day of the creation week, when God set the lights. Today is Saturday, and you decided to start today. So you start today, with four short days to rest, build a support list, make room, and get your ground ready. Day 1 is Wednesday, October 28.

WHAT EACH DAY DOES

Sat Oct 24	Start and rest. Say where you are, and rest before doing anything.
Sun Oct 25	Light for the road. Make a one-page support list with safe people and numbers.
Mon Oct 26	Make room. Pick your daily window, your spot, and what stays out of it.
Tue Oct 27	Get the ground ready. Gather what you need and set an alarm for Day 1.

THE FOUR DAYS AT A GLANCE

MY SUPPORT THIS SEASON

Who I will check in with, and what I need from them:

WHY I AM STARTING TODAY, IN MY OWN WORDS

Saturday, October 24, 2026

Prelude · Day 1 of 4 | Day 1 is Wed Oct 28 | Seventh Day: Sabbath | Ethiopian: Tikimt 14, 2019 E.C.

Start Where You Are

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.

Ground: Rest a hand on your chest, or on a pet if you have one, and feel something steady. Pray: Father, I am Yours, resting or not.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

Isaiah 30:15

"In returning and rest you shall be saved; in quietness and in trust shall be your strength." (Isa. 30:15, ESV)

Today is a Saturday, the Sabbath, and it is also the day you decided to begin. I will not call that fate. I will call it a gift of timing. Isaiah says strength comes in returning and rest, in quietness and trust. The people in that passage were unwilling to rest, which is a warning to anyone who learned that stopping is dangerous. You do not have to be ready. You do not have to be sober a certain length, or healed, or sure. You only have to show up, and the first act of showing up is to rest a few minutes and say, "I am here." Welcome. The lights get set on Wednesday.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT

God's pattern is rest first, then work. The first full day people ever had was the Sabbath.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY

An atom has to take in energy before it can give off light. Light goes out after energy comes in. Resting is how you take in.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD

Jubilees 2:17–33 says the Sabbath was kept in heaven before it was given to people.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What brought me to this book today?

2. What am I afraid will happen if I start?

3. What would resting for ten minutes feel like in my body?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Write your starting sentence, then rest for ten minutes. You do not have to feel ready.

- [ ] Write: "I am starting on ____ (date) and I am here because ____."
- [ ] Rest for ten minutes, lying down or sitting, with no phone.
- [ ] Say out loud: "I am here. That is enough."

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, I am here, and I do not feel ready. I am not going to pretend I am. Meet me in this quiet. Give me rest before I do anything else, and let this be a real beginning. In Jesus' name, amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I do not have to be ready to begin. I only have to show up.

Sunday, October 25, 2026

Prelude · Day 2 of 4 | Day 1 is Wed Oct 28 | First Day: Let There Be Light | Ethiopian: Tikimt 15, 2019 E.C.

PRELUDE 2 OF 4

Light for the Road

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Look toward the nearest light or window and let your shoulders drop. Pray: Spirit of God, make this hour Yours.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Psalm 27:1

"The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?" (Ps. 27:1, ESV)

David wrote this with enemies close, and he still put light first. Fear is not a sin, and it is not proof of weak faith. It is information. If you are starting something new, fear will talk. The question is whether it gets the only vote. Today, Sunday, the day of light, we do something practical so that fear has less room: we make a support list before we need it. Safe people, safe numbers, safe places. If you have none yet, the numbers on this page count. A list on paper is a lamp you can find in the dark.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God is called light and stronghold in the same breath. He brings both guidance and protection.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
A small light is easiest to see where it is darkest. You do not need a big light to find the way.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
1 Enoch 38:4 says the light of the Lord of Spirits will be seen on the face of the holy.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What am I most afraid of as I start?

2. Who or what has helped me feel safe before?

3. What would I want in my pocket on a bad night?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Make a one-page support list: three people or places, and three numbers. Keep it where you can find it.

- [ ] Write three people or places you could turn to, even if one is a church office or a group.
- [ ] Add the numbers: 988 (call or text), SAMHSA 1-800-662-4357, and 211 for local help.
- [ ] Put the page where you will find it on a hard night.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Lord, You are my light. I am afraid of some things and I will tell You which ones. Give me safe people and safe places. Let this list be a lamp I can find when it is dark. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Fear can talk, and it does not get the only vote.

Monday, October 26, 2026

Prelude · Day 3 of 4 | Day 1 is Wed Oct 28 | Second Day: The Great Separation | Ethiopian: Tikimt 16, 2019 E.C.

PRELUDE 3 OF 4

Count the Cost, Make Room

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your palms together for ten seconds, then let go. Pray: Lord, stand beside me while I tell the truth.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Luke 14:28

"For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it?" (Luke 14:28, ESV)

Jesus is not trying to scare anyone off when He talks about counting the cost. He is being honest, the way a builder is. Rebuilding a life takes time, space, and people, and ten minutes of planning now saves a lot of quitting later. Monday is for boundaries, so today you make room. Pick a daily window, even ten or twenty minutes. Pick a spot. Decide what stays out of that window: the phone, the loudest person, the old habit. Tell one person what you are doing. Being honest about the cost is not unbelief. It is wisdom.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God honors planning. Boundaries around time and place are part of how people finish what they start.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
An electron cannot move up a level with a little energy. It needs a set amount to make the jump. Making room is gathering enough for the next step.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Sirach 18:19–20 says to learn before you speak and to care for your health before you fall ill, which is advice about preparing ahead.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What will this cost me in time, comfort, or habit?

2. What is likely to get in the way of my daily window?

3. What boundary would protect it?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Choose your daily window, your spot, and one thing you will keep out of it. Tell one person.

- [ ] Pick a time you can keep on a rough day, even ten minutes.
- [ ] Pick a spot, and decide what stays out of that time.
- [ ] Tell one safe person what you are starting.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Father, I want to finish this, so help me count the cost honestly. Show me where I can make room. Give me a boundary I can keep, and let me not be ashamed to ask for help. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Counting the cost is wisdom, not doubt.

Tuesday, October 27, 2026

Prelude · Day 4 of 4 | Day 1 is Wed Oct 28 | Third Day: Ground and Vine | Ethiopian: Tikimt 17, 2019 E.C.

PRELUDE 4 OF 4

Get the Ground Ready

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name three sounds you can hear, near or far. Pray: God, steady my hands for what is ahead.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Proverbs 24:27

"Prepare your work outside; get everything ready for yourself in the field, and after that build your house." (Prov. 24:27, ESV)

Tomorrow is Day 1, Wednesday, the fourth day of the creation week, the day God set the lights. Tonight is for the ground. The Proverb says to prepare the field first and build the house after, which is the order a vineyard keeper would follow. Fix the small things: a pen that works, a spot to sit, a Bible or an app, water, a phone alarm. Choose the time you will start tomorrow. If you want to know how the 364-day calendar works, the next pages explain it. For now, get ready. Tuesday is for the vineyard: plant, prune, prepare.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God teaches preparation before building. Good ground comes before good fruit.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
A solar panel has to be built and pointed at the sun before it can use the light. Preparation comes before power.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Jubilees 7:1–2 says Noah planted a vineyard and waited until the fourth year for the fruit.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What do I need on hand so tomorrow is easy?

2. What could make me skip Day 1, and how can I get ahead of it?

3. What do I want to remember about why I am starting?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Set up for Day 1: gather your pen, this book, a Bible or app, and water. Set a phone alarm for your start time.

- [ ] Gather your pen, this book, and a Bible or app, and put them where you will sit.
- [ ] Set an alarm for your start time tomorrow.
- [ ] Write one sentence about why you are starting, and put it on the first page.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Lord, You prepared the ground before You set the lights. Help me prepare mine. Keep me from skipping what is small, and meet me tomorrow at the start. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Good ground comes before good fruit.

MONTHLY QUESTION

Where am I standing, and what is one small rhythm I can keep?

MY INTENTION FOR THIS MONTH

Let There Be Lights

Genesis 1:14–19

“And God said, ‘Let there be lights in the expanse of the heavens to separate the day from the night. And let them be for signs and for seasons, and for days and years.’” (Gen. 1:14, ESV)

GOD’S ORIGINAL INTENT

God built time into creation as a gift: lights for signs and seasons, so people would know when to work, rest, and gather. It was a rhythm for people, never a cage.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD

Jubilees 2 and 1 Enoch 72–82 (the Astronomical Book) tie the sun, moon, and stars to the counting of days, sabbaths, seasons, and years. 1 Enoch 72–82 describes a 364-day year of exactly 52 weeks.

QUANTUM PICTURE (AN ANALOGY, NOT A PROOF)

Light does not arrive as a smooth pour. It comes in tiny packets of energy called photons. Sunlight on your skin is a countless number of them landing at once, and each one is small.

Where this picture stops: Photons describe how light behaves at very small scales. They do not prove Genesis, and Genesis is not a physics textbook. The picture only helps me notice that real things can arrive small and still carry real power.

THIS WEEK’S GOAL

Find your starting line. One honest place to stand, and a rhythm of lights to orient by.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

Genesis 1:14–19

"And God said, 'Let there be lights in the expanse of the heavens to separate the day from the night. And let them be for signs and for seasons, and for days and years.'" (Gen. 1:14, ESV)

Before there was a calendar on your phone, God hung lights in the sky and told them to keep time for us. Genesis calls them "signs," markers that tell you where you are. Maybe you landed here tired, or a few days sober, or not sure you want to be. I remember what it is to start on the floor. A starting line does not have to be pretty. Today we plant a flag in the real date and say: this is where I am. We rebuild from here.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God built time as a gift. The lights were "for signs and for seasons," a way to know when to work, rest, and gather. They were never meant to shame you.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Sunlight arrives in tiny packets of energy called photons. Each one is small, and together they warm a whole day. Starting small is how light has always started.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Jubilees 2 and 1 Enoch 72–82 also tie sun, moon, and stars to the count of days and seasons.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. Where am I standing today: body, money, relationships, faith? Write it plain, with no cleanup.

2. What am I afraid will be true if I look at it?

3. What would one small light look like by sundown?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Write today's full date at the top of a page and list three true facts about this moment. Facts, not feelings.

- [ ] Read Genesis 1:14–19 slowly, out loud if you can.
- [ ] Write today's date and three true facts: where you are, who is safe, what you have.
- [ ] Circle the fact that gives you the most steadiness.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, You hung the lights before I ever needed them. I am here, and I am not fixed. Meet me on this floor. Show me one true next step and give me enough courage to take it. I am starting small, and that is enough for You. In Jesus' name, amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can start where I am. The lights were set for me too.

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 2 of 30 | Week 1 · Day 2 of 7 | Fifth Day: Water and Sky | Ethiopian: Tikimt 19, 2019 E.C.

DAY 2 OF 91

Blessed Before You Produce

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your feet into the floor and take three slow breaths, out longer than in. Pray: God, You are nearer than my next breath.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Genesis 1:20–23

"And God blessed them, saying, 'Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.'" (Gen. 1:22, ESV)

On the fifth day God filled the water and the sky with living things, and before they had accomplished one thing, He blessed them. Blessing came first. Some of us learned the opposite: earn it, perform, stay ready to run. A body that has lived in survival mode forgets what unguarded breath feels like. Today is not about fixing that. It is about giving your body one small, safe minute and letting it learn that breathing is allowed.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God's original order is bless, then send. Worth is given before work.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Each photon's energy is set by its color and cannot be bargained up. Your worth is like that: set by who made you and what He says, not by your output today.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 2 and 1 Enoch 72–82 (the Astronomical Book) tie the sun, moon, and stars to the counting of days, sabbaths, seasons, and years.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What did I learn I had to earn before I was allowed to rest?

2. Where does my body brace first when I feel unsafe: jaw, shoulders, stomach?

3. What would "blessed first" change about today?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Take three minutes: three slow breaths with a longer breath out than in, then look at the sky or the nearest light.

- [ ] Sit or stand wherever you feel least exposed.
- [ ] Breathe in for 4, out for 6, three rounds. Stop if it makes you dizzy or anxious.
- [ ] Look at the sky or a light for one minute. Eyes open is fine.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Lord, You blessed the first living things before they did a thing. I have been proving myself for a long time. Teach my body that it can slow down. Give me one unguarded breath today, and let me believe You are not asking me to earn it. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I am blessed before I produce. My breath is allowed.

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 3 of 30 | Week 1 · Day 3 of 7 | Sixth Day: Made for Each Other | Ethiopian: Tikimt 20, 2019 E.C.

DAY 3 OF 91

Made for Each Other

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Hold something warm or cool and notice its weight and texture. Pray: Jesus, be with me in this room.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Genesis 2:18

"Then the LORD God said, 'It is not good that the man should be alone.'" (Gen. 2:18a, ESV)

All through Genesis 1, God looks at what He made and says "good." Then in chapter 2 He says the first "not good": being alone. That tells me loneliness is not weak faith. It is a real ache, and God took it seriously. But not every person is a safe person, and some of us were taught that connection costs everything. Reach for safe. Safe respects your no, does not need your story as entertainment, and does not require you to be fine.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God's design is connection that gives life, not isolation as holiness and not relationships that bind.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
Very little of the physical world is made of lone atoms. Most matter exists as bonds, because bonded atoms are usually in a more stable state.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 2 and 1 Enoch 72–82 (the Astronomical Book) tie the sun, moon, and stars to the counting of days, sabbaths, seasons, and years.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. Who has been safe for me, even in a small way?

2. What do I fear will happen if I reach out?

3. What would I want a safe person to know today?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Send one low-pressure message to a safe person. If no one comes to mind, write the message anyway and read it to God.

- [ ] Pick one safe person (or a church office, recovery group, or text line).
- [ ] Send: "Thinking of you. Today is a hard one. Can I check in tomorrow?"
- [ ] If you have no one yet, write it out and look for one safe door this week. In the US you can call or text 988 anytime.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, You said it is not good to be alone, so I know You understand this ache. Lead me to one safe person. Give me words when I have none, and protect me from people who only want what I can give them. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Wanting connection is not weakness. I can reach for what is safe.

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 4 of 30 | Week 1 · Day 4 of 7 | Seventh Day: Sabbath | Ethiopian: Tikimt 21, 2019 E.C.

DAY 4 OF 91

The Day That Was Finished

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Rest a hand on your chest, or on a pet if you have one, and feel something steady. Pray: Father, I am Yours, resting or not.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Genesis 2:1–3

"So God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it God rested from all his work that he had done in creation." (Gen. 2:3, ESV)

God did not rest because He was worn out. He rested because the work was finished and good, and He gave that rest to us before any rule or failure existed. Saturday is the seventh day. If your church gathers Sunday, keep both: rest on one, worship on the other, and carry no shame either way. Today nothing depends on you. If you cannot stop all day, take twenty minutes. A small rest is still a real one.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
Rest was built into the very first week of creation, before sin and before a single law.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
Sunlight takes about eight minutes to reach Earth. The light you are resting in today left the sun long before you started worrying.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Jubilees 2:17–33 treats the Sabbath as a sign set into the first week of creation.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What am I still trying to finish that no one asked me to finish?

2. What does rest feel like in my body, and what does it feel like when I try?

3. What is one thing I can call done enough for today?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Pick one thing to call finished (a bed made, dishes done) and stop there. Then do one thing just because it is good.

- [ ] Choose one task to call finished. Do it, then stop.
- [ ] Do one thing just because it is good: sit in the sun, pet your dog, drink something warm.
- [ ] Say out loud: "That is enough for today."

5 · SUPPLICATION

Father, You rested when the work was done. I do not know how to rest without guilt. Teach me today. Hold what I cannot finish, and let me sit in the light You made for free. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Rest is not a reward. It is a gift I can receive.

Sunday, November 1, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 5 of 30 | Week 1 · Day 5 of 7 | First Day: Let There Be Light | Ethiopian: Tikimt 22, 2019 E.C.

DAY 5 OF 91

On the calendar today · Clocks fall back (US). In most of the US, clocks go back one hour today. If yours do, you have an extra hour. Spend it on rest, not on catching up.

The Light That Stays

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Look toward the nearest light or window and let your shoulders drop. Pray: Spirit of God, make this hour Yours.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
John 1:1–5

"The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." (John 1:5, ESV)

John opens his Gospel with the same words as Genesis 1: "In the beginning." The light that was first on the first day is Jesus, and John says the dark has not overcome Him. It does not say the dark is not real. It says the dark does not win. Sunday is the first day of the week, and the day the Gospels say Jesus rose. So start with gratitude, not pretending. Count the small lights from this week. Even "I am still here" counts.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God's first act was light, and the Gospel says that light has a name and a face.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
Dark-adapted human eyes can respond to an extremely small number of photons. A little light is not nothing.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 2 and 1 Enoch 72–82 (the Astronomical Book) tie the sun, moon, and stars to the counting of days, sabbaths, seasons, and years.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. Where did I see even one small light this week?

2. Where does the dark still feel loud right now?

3. What would I say to Jesus about both?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Write a Light List of five small mercies from this week, then say thank you out loud once.

- [ ] Read John 1:1–5.
- [ ] Write five small mercies. "I am still here" is allowed.
- [ ] Say thank you out loud once, even if it feels strange.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Jesus, You are the light that was there before anything else. I believe You even when I cannot feel You. Help me see the small mercies I have been missing, and be near me where the dark still feels heavy. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

The darkness has not overcome the light, and I am not alone in the dark.

Monday, November 2, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 6 of 30 | Week 1 · Day 6 of 7 | Second Day: The Great Separation | Ethiopian: Tikimt 23, 2019 E.C.

DAY 6 OF 91

Where Water Meets Water

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your palms together for ten seconds, then let go. Pray: Lord, stand beside me while I tell the truth.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Genesis 1:6–8

"And God said, 'Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.'" (Gen. 1:6, ESV)

On the second day God made space by separating. He did not make less. He made room. Boundaries are not punishment. They are how life gets room to breathe. I know why you learned to survive without them. I also know we have to look at what it costs now. Understanding why someone hurt you is not excusing it, and forgiveness does not automatically restore access. If someone is dangerous, do not announce a boundary to them. Talk to an advocate first.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
Separation is part of God's creative work. Making space is holy.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
A prism splits sunlight into a rainbow because each color has a different energy. Separation reveals what was mixed in.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 2 and 1 Enoch 72–82 (the Astronomical Book) tie the sun, moon, and stars to the counting of days, sabbaths, seasons, and years.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. Where do I feel crowded, drained, or unsafe?

2. What is one place, person, or app I am done giving easy access to?

3. What would feel like more room?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Write a Yes / No / Not Yet list with one item under each. You do not have to confront anyone.

- [ ] Draw three columns: Yes, No, Not Yet.
- [ ] Put one thing under each. Keep it small and real.
- [ ] If someone may be dangerous, call the National DV Hotline: 1-800-799-7233 (text START to 88788).

5 · SUPPLICATION
God, You made space before You made anything else. I need space too. Show me what to separate from, give me wisdom to do it safely, and keep me from using boundaries as a weapon. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Boundaries are room, not punishment.

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 7 of 30 | Week 1 · Day 7 of 7 | Third Day: Ground and Vine

Ethiopian: Tikimt 24, 2019 E.C.

DAY 7 OF 91

Ground Is Where Seeds Go

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name three sounds you can hear, near or far. Pray: God, steady my hands for what is ahead.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Genesis 1:9–13

"And God said, 'Let the earth sprout vegetation, plants yielding seed . . .'" (Gen. 1:11, ESV)

Day three is when the dry land appears and the first plants sprout, and it is the first day the vineyard story could begin. A vineyard starts with ground, not fruit. Bando to vineyard starts the same way: one practical thing on solid ground. An ID, a phone number, an appointment, a meal. Nothing glamorous. Today pick one small piece of ground and do the first five minutes of it.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God's world is built so that life starts in soil. He made the ground before anyone had to tend it.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
A seedling's first leaves are light-catchers. Even before it can stand up, it is already turning toward the sun.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 2 and 1 Enoch 72–82 (the Astronomical Book) tie the sun, moon, and stars to the counting of days, sabbaths, seasons, and years.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What practical thing have I been avoiding because it feels too big?

2. What is the first five minutes of that thing?

3. What helps me start: a person, a place, a time of day?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Write one practical task on a card and do only its first five minutes (finding the number, locating the form).

- [ ] Pick one task: a call, a form, a document, a meal.
- [ ] Write it on a card. Write only the first five-minute step beneath it.
- [ ] Do the five minutes, then stop and mark it done.

5 · SUPPLICATION
Lord, You made the ground before You made the garden. Help me begin where the ground is. Give me one small task I can actually do, and let that be enough for today. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can start with five minutes on solid ground.

Order in the Heavens

Psalm 19:1–6

“The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky above proclaims his handiwork.” (Ps. 19:1, ESV)

GOD’S ORIGINAL INTENT

Creation keeps its order because God is faithful. Dependable patterns are part of His design, and you are allowed to lean on them.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD

1 Enoch 2:1 invites the reader to observe how the lights of heaven keep their appointed order and do not break it. Jude 14–15 quotes 1 Enoch 1:9, which is one reason many Christians treat Enoch as an ancient witness worth knowing.

QUANTUM PICTURE (AN ANALOGY, NOT A PROOF)

Energy inside an atom comes in steps, called energy levels. An electron can sit on one level or another, but not in between. A “quantum leap” in physics is the smallest possible hop, not a giant one.

Where this picture stops: Atoms are not people, and energy stairs are not a promise about your life. The picture only shows that in nature, real change often happens in small, exact, repeatable steps.

THIS WEEK’S GOAL

Build one small rhythm you can repeat, and trust small steps to count.

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 8 of 30 | Week 2 · Day 1 of 7 | Fourth Day: The Lights Are Set

Ethiopian: Tikimt 25, 2019 E.C.

DAY 8 OF 91

The Heavens Keep Time

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name five things you can see. Eyes open is fine. Pray: Lord, I am here. Meet me here.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Psalm 19:1–2

"The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky above proclaims his handiwork. Day to day pours out speech, and night to night reveals knowledge." (Ps. 19:1–2, ESV)

Creation is preaching without words, the same sermon every day. The sun does not need you to manage its rising, and that is a mercy when your life feels like chaos. You do not have to hold the whole sky up. Pick one thing today that is as dependable as sunrise: a glass of water, medication taken as prescribed, a short prayer. Not a new life. One anchor.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
Creation keeps its order because God is faithful. Dependable patterns are part of His design.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Electrons in an atom can only sit on certain energy levels, like stairs rather than a ramp. Nature builds with exact steps.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
1 Enoch 2:1 invites the reader to observe how the heavenly lights keep their appointed order.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What feels chaotic right now?

2. What is one thing in my day that already happens reliably?

3. What small anchor could I add at the same time every day?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Look up today's sunrise or sunset time and write it on your page. Choose one anchor task to pair with it.

- [ ] Look up tomorrow's sunrise or sunset time and write it down.
- [ ] Choose one anchor: water, medication as prescribed, a short prayer, a walk.
- [ ] Write: "At [time], I will [anchor]."

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, the sky keeps time without my help. Teach me to trust Your order when mine is falling apart. Give me one anchor I can keep, and help me begin again if I miss it. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

God's order holds even when mine does not.

DAY 9 OF 91

Small Steps Are Real Steps

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your feet into the floor and take three slow breaths, out longer than in. Pray: God, You are nearer than my next breath.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Zechariah 4:10

"For whoever has despised the day of small things shall rejoice, and shall see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel." (Zech. 4:10, ESV)

Zechariah spoke to people rebuilding after exile. The new foundation looked tiny next to the old temple, and some of them were discouraged. God said not to despise the day of small things. A plumb line is a builder's tool for making sure a wall is straight, and it only shows up when building has started. A small, straight foundation beats a large, crooked plan. Today we move the body a little, because breath and motion tell the nervous system you are building something.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God honors small beginnings. Rebuilding has always started small.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
In physics a "quantum leap" is the smallest possible change, an electron hopping one level. The phrase means something big in everyday speech, but in physics it is tiny and exact.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
1 Enoch 2:1 invites the reader to observe how the lights of heaven keep their appointed order and do not break it.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What small thing did I do this week that I discount?

2. Where am I comparing my rebuild to someone else's?

3. What would a straight, small foundation look like for me?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Move your body for ten minutes: a walk, a stretch, or moving any joint you can.

- [ ] Pick a movement that is safe for your body, even a few stretches.
- [ ] Do it for ten minutes or less. Stop if anything hurts.
- [ ] Afterward, write one sentence about how your body feels.

5 · SUPPLICATION
Lord, I have despised small things, especially my own. Help me see that You build with them. Give me one straight step today, and let me stop measuring it against anyone else's. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Small is not nothing. I am building.

DAY 10 OF 91

Iron on Iron

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Hold something warm or cool and notice its weight and texture. Pray: Jesus, be with me in this room.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Proverbs 27:17

"Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another." (Prov. 27:17, ESV)

Sharpening takes friction and heat, which is why this verse gets twisted. Real sharpening is mutual, willing, and aimed at your good. Control, shame, and manipulation are not sharpening, even when they use scripture. A simple test: after time with this person, do I feel more like who God is making me, or less? I have been around people who could quote the Bible and still treat a wound like an opportunity. You do not owe them access.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God designed people to strengthen each other. He did not design people to use each other.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
A steel blade's hardness comes from how its atoms are arranged. The same iron and carbon arranged differently can be soft or hard.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
1 Enoch 2:1 invites the reader to observe how the lights of heaven keep their appointed order and do not break it.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. Who makes me better in a way that feels safe?

2. Who leaves me smaller, even if they use good words?

3. What do I do differently around each?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Name one person who sharpens you and one pattern that dulls you. Thank the first.

- [ ] Write one name or place that sharpens you.
- [ ] Write one pattern that dulls you. No names are required.
- [ ] Send a short thank-you to the sharpener.

5 · SUPPLICATION
God, give me discernment. Show me who is iron and who is just friction. Heal what I learned about closeness, and help me keep my heart open to the right people and closed to the wrong ones. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can tell the difference between sharpening and harm.

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 11 of 30 | Week 2 · Day 4 of 7 | Seventh Day: Sabbath

Ethiopian: Tikimt 28, 2019 E.C.

DAY 11 OF 91

Be Still, Child

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.

Ground: Rest a hand on your chest, or on a pet if you have one, and feel something steady. Pray: Father, I am Yours, resting or not.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

Psalm 46:10

"Be still, and know that I am God." (Ps. 46:10, ESV)

Psalm 46 is set in the middle of earthquakes and roaring nations. "Be still" there means more like stop striving, let go. It is not telling you to sit quiet with no feelings. God is saying: you can stop fighting for control, because I am God and you are not. If you are in a craving, a spiral, or a grief, you can sit in it for fifteen minutes with a person or a phone call. Nothing has to be solved today.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT

Sabbath is permission to stop striving because God is God.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY

The lowest-energy state of an atom is called its ground state. Atoms resting there are not failing. They are stable.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD

Jubilees 2:17–33 treats the Sabbath as built into the first week of creation.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What am I striving to control right now?

2. What would stopping, even for fifteen minutes, feel like?

3. What do I need to hand to God that I cannot fix today?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Rest for fifteen minutes with no screen. If a craving hits, sit with it and call someone safe or a helpline.

- [ ] Choose a place with no screen.
- [ ] Sit for fifteen minutes. If a craving or spiral comes, name it and keep breathing.
- [ ] If it is too much, call 988 or SAMHSA at 1-800-662-4357.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, I have been fighting for so long. I do not know how to stop. Be near me in this quiet. Hold what I am too tired to hold, and let me remember that You are God and I am not. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can stop striving. God is God and I am not.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Psalm 119:105

"Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path." (Ps. 119:105, ESV)

A lamp lights the next few steps, not the whole road. If you have been given a watered-down verse and told to pray it away, I am sorry. Scripture does not shrink to fit that. Psalm 19, which we read this week, moves from the sky to the Word: creation shows God's glory, and the Word shows His ways. Today read slowly and underline words that match what you are living. You do not need to understand it all. You only need enough light to take the next step.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God gives His Word as a lamp for walking, not a floodlight for knowing everything.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
You do not need the whole sun to see your feet. A small, steady light is enough for the next step.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
1 Enoch 2:1 invites the reader to observe how the lights of heaven keep their appointed order and do not break it.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. Which words in Psalm 19 sound like me?

2. What part of Scripture have I been handed in a way that did not help?

3. What is the next step I can see right now?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Read Psalm 19 slowly and underline three words or phrases that match your life.

- [ ] Read Psalm 19 out loud or quietly.
- [ ] Underline three words or phrases that feel true.
- [ ] Write the next step you can see, and nothing beyond it.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Lord, thank You for a lamp, not a lecture. Where Scripture was used to hurt me, heal that. Where I need light, give me enough for the next step. I will trust You with the rest of the road. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I only need light for the next step.

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 13 of 30 | Week 2 · Day 6 of 7 | Second Day: The Great Separation | Ethiopian: Tikimt 30, 2019 E.C.

DAY 13 OF 91

Say the True Thing

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your palms together for ten seconds, then let go. Pray: Lord, stand beside me while I tell the truth.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Ephesians 4:25–27

"Be angry and do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger." (Eph. 4:26, ESV)

Paul does not say anger is the sin. He says do not sin in it and do not store it. Anger can be information: something mattered and was violated. "Do not let the sun go down" is about not letting it fester, not about forcing a conversation or reconciling with someone who is unsafe. If someone harmed you, you can tell the truth about it privately before you ever speak to them, or without ever speaking to them. You do not have to be polite to the truth.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God wants truth in the open, not buried anger and not a forced peace.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
Energy is not lost. It changes form. Anger is energy too. It can become protection and truth, or it can burn the one who carries it.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
1 Enoch 2:1 invites the reader to observe how the lights of heaven keep their appointed order and do not break it.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What am I angry about that I have not said out loud?

2. What did it cost me?

3. What is the safest place to say it: a page, a counselor, a safe friend?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Write a letter you will not send. Say what happened and what it cost. Then keep, shred, or burn it safely. If writing floods you, stop and ground.

- [ ] Write "What happened and what it cost." You do not need to be fair.
- [ ] Stop if your body floods. Look around and name five things you can see.
- [ ] Decide what to do with the page: keep it private, shred it, or give it to a counselor.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, You are not afraid of my anger. Help me tell the truth without being swallowed by it. Keep me safe while I do, and carry what I cannot carry. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

My anger can tell the truth without taking me down.

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 14 of 30 | Week 2 · Day 7 of 7 | Third Day: Ground and Vine | Ethiopian: Hidar 1, 2019 E.C.

DAY 14 OF 91

Plant a Routine

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name three sounds you can hear, near or far. Pray: God, steady my hands for what is ahead.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Mark 4:26–29

"He sleeps and rises night and day, and the seed sprouts and grows; he knows not how." (Mark 4:27, ESV)

Jesus says the kingdom is like a farmer who scatters seed and then goes about life while it grows. The farmer's part is real, since someone has to sow, but the growth is not his to force. Routines are seed. Pick one anchor, five minutes or less, tied to something you already do. Water and a prayer before the first scroll. A walk with your dog. Then leave it alone and let it grow. Missing a day is not failure. It is just a day.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God's kingdom grows by sowing and patience, not by pressure.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Atoms are stable enough to build you because their energy steps are reliable: same step, same energy, every time.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
1 Enoch 2:1 invites the reader to observe how the lights of heaven keep their appointed order and do not break it.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What time of day do I already have a reliable moment?

2. What is a five-minute anchor I could attach to it?

3. What will I say to myself if I miss a day?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Choose one anchor routine and attach it to something you already do. Do it once today.

- [ ] Pick one thing you already do every day.
- [ ] Attach a five-minute anchor to it.
- [ ] Write your "if I miss a day" sentence: "I will simply begin again."

5 · SUPPLICATION

Lord, You grow things I cannot. I will do my small part and trust You with the growing. Give me the grace to begin again when I miss. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I sow what I can and trust God with the growing.

Number Your Days

> Psalm 90:12
> “So teach us to number our days that we may get a heart of wisdom.” (Ps. 90:12, ESV)

GOD’S ORIGINAL INTENT

God made time a stewardship, not a threat. Numbering your days is how you learn they are a gift with edges.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD

Jubilees 6 describes four seasons and a year of 52 weeks, 364 days. Jubilees 6:36–37 warns what happens when people let the count drift. 1 Enoch 82 speaks of the leaders who keep the seasons in order.

QUANTUM PICTURE (AN ANALOGY, NOT A PROOF)

The second is now defined by atoms. A cesium-133 atom has a fixed vibration, and one second is 9,192,631,770 of its cycles. The most precise clocks people have built keep time by trusting an atom to behave the same way every time.

Where this picture stops: Accurate time is not the same as meaningful time. The Psalm asks for wisdom, not just good bookkeeping.

THIS WEEK’S GOAL

Count the days honestly, grieve the lost ones, and plan the next ones with real limits in mind.

Wednesday, November 11, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 15 of 30 | Week 3 · Day 1 of 7 | Fourth Day: The Lights Are Set

Ethiopian: Hidar 2, 2019 E.C.

DAY 15 OF 91

Teach Us to Number

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name five things you can see. Eyes open is fine. Pray: Lord, I am here. Meet me here.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

Psalm 90:12

"So teach us to number our days that we may get a heart of wisdom." (Ps. 90:12, ESV)

Psalm 90 is a prayer of Moses about how short we are and how long God is. Numbering your days is not panic. It is wisdom, learning that they have edges. If you lost years to addiction, abuse, or survival, there is grief here too, and verse 15 asks God to make us glad "as many days as you have afflicted us." Today we put this season on the page: ninety-one days, thirteen weeks. It is not a promise of an outcome. It is just a container big enough to hold real change.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT

God made time a stewardship, and numbering days is how you learn they are a gift.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE

The second is defined by cesium-133 atoms: 9,192,631,770 of their vibrations. The most accurate clocks ever built count on atoms behaving the same way every time.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD

Jubilees 6 describes four seasons of 13 weeks, a year of 364 days, 52 weeks.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What years or days do I need to grieve?

2. What do I most want to be different 91 days from now?

3. What do I have right now that I can build with?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Mark all 91 days on a calendar or in this book. Then list three resources you have today.

- [ ] Find a calendar or use the Month 1 page in this book.
- [ ] Mark Day 1 (October 28, 2026) and Day 91 (January 26, 2027).
- [ ] List three resources you already have: a person, a skill, a place, a tool.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Father, teach me to number my days. Hold the ones I lost. Give me a heart of wisdom for the ones ahead. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

My days have edges, and they are still a gift.

Thursday, November 12, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 16 of 30 | Week 3 · Day 2 of 7 | Fifth Day: Water and Sky | Ethiopian: Hidar 3, 2019 E.C.

DAY 16 OF 91

Rhythms in the Body

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your feet into the floor and take three slow breaths, out longer than in. Pray: God, You are nearer than my next breath.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Psalm 104:19–23

"He made the moon to mark the seasons; the sun knows its time for setting." (Ps. 104:19, ESV)

Psalm 104 describes a world with rhythm: the sun knows when to set, animals have their time to hunt and their time to rest, and people go out to work until evening. Your body also has a roughly 24-hour internal clock, and light helps set it. Survival life often scrambles sleep, and that is not a character flaw. It is a body doing what it had to. Today we do one small thing for that rhythm. If you work nights or your housing is unsafe, adjust to what is possible.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God built daily rhythm into creation, with work, rest, and dark and light all belonging.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
Morning daylight helps reset the body's internal clock. This is biology, not quantum physics, but it is the same sun doing the work.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 6 describes four seasons and a year of 52 weeks, 364 days.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. How has my sleep been, honestly?

2. What got in the way: safety, noise, cravings, work, worry?

3. What is one small change I could actually try?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Choose one sleep anchor, such as the same wake-up time for three days. Get a few minutes of outdoor light after waking if you can.

- [ ] Pick a wake-up time you can keep, even on a rough night.
- [ ] Step outside or near a window for five minutes after waking.
- [ ] If sleep is very hard, talk to a doctor or counselor about it.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, You made day and night with care. My body forgot the rhythm. Be patient with me. Help me find one small thing that gives me rest, and keep me safe while I sleep. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

My body can relearn rhythm one small anchor at a time.

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 17 of 30 | Week 3 · Day 3 of 7 | Sixth Day: Made for Each Other | Ethiopian: Hidar 4, 2019 E.C.

DAY 17 OF 91

Make the Call

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Hold something warm or cool and notice its weight and texture. Pray: Jesus, be with me in this room.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Proverbs 16:9

"The heart of man plans his way, but the LORD establishes his steps." (Prov. 16:9, ESV)

Planning is not a lack of faith, and neither is asking for professional help. This verse holds both: you plan, and God establishes your steps. Today, schedule one appointment: a doctor, counselor, recovery meeting, legal aid, benefits office. A phone call can feel like climbing a wall. Use the script below, and if cost is the barrier, ask about sliding-scale fees or free options. You are not too much trouble.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God works through human planning, and He does not ask you to rebuild alone.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
GPS only works because satellites carry atomic clocks that stay in step to billionths of a second. Knowing where you are starts with reliable time.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 6 describes four seasons and a year of 52 weeks, 364 days.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What appointment or call have I been avoiding?

2. What am I afraid they will say?

3. What would make the call easier: a friend nearby, a script, a time of day?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Make one appointment or one call. If cost or access is the barrier, dial 211 (US) for local services or visit FindTreatment.gov.

- [ ] Choose one call: doctor, counselor, meeting, legal aid.
- [ ] Say: "Hi, I would like to schedule an appointment. Do you offer sliding-scale or free options?"
- [ ] Write the date and time here: _____.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Lord, I make my plans and I ask You to establish my steps. Give me courage for this call. Open the right doors and close the wrong ones, and help me not give up if the first one does not work. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Asking for help is wise, not weak.

Saturday, November 14, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 18 of 30 | Week 3 · Day 4 of 7 | Seventh Day: Sabbath | Ethiopian: Hidar 5, 2019 E.C.

DAY 18 OF 91

The Sabbath Was Made for You

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Rest a hand on your chest, or on a pet if you have one, and feel something steady. Pray: Father, I am Yours, resting or not.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Mark 2:23–28

"The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath." (Mark 2:27, ESV)

Jesus' hungry disciples picked grain on the Sabbath, and the Pharisees objected. Jesus answers that the Sabbath was made for people, not people for the Sabbath. He is not throwing out rest. He is rescuing it from being a rulebook. Rest is not a performance to get right. If you are exhausted, rest. If you have kids, a job, or a shift, take what you can. Decide today what your rest rule is, and drop the shame.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
Sabbath is a gift for people who need to be restored, not a test to pass.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
We see the Sun as it was about eight minutes ago and the nearest other star as it was about four years ago. Rest is when you stop chasing the live feed.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Jubilees 2:17–33 treats the Sabbath as a sign built into the first week of creation.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What rules about rest did I inherit?

2. What does real rest look like for me, specifically?

3. What would I let go of today if no one judged me?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Write your rest rule: three things you will not do today and three things you will do.

- [ ] Write three things you will not do today.
- [ ] Write three things that restore you.
- [ ] Do at least one of the restoring things.

5 · SUPPLICATION
Jesus, You rescued the Sabbath from the rulebook. Rescue my rest too. Let me stop without guilt, and let me trust that the world will keep turning without me. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Rest was made for me.

Sunday, November 15, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 19 of 30 | Week 3 · Day 5 of 7 | First Day: Let There Be Light | Ethiopian: Hidar 6, 2019 E.C.

DAY 19 OF 91

Stones of Remembrance

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Look toward the nearest light or window and let your shoulders drop. Pray: Spirit of God, make this hour Yours.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Joshua 4:1–7; Psalm 77:11

"I will remember the deeds of the LORD; yes, I will remember your wonders of old." (Ps. 77:11, ESV)

When Israel crossed the Jordan, God had them set up twelve stones so their children would later ask, "What do these stones mean?" Memory was part of faithfulness. Some of your memories are heavy, and I am not asking you to dig those up today. I am asking you to find the stones: the places where God showed up, or you simply survived, even if you could not feel Him then. Write them down so you can find them again on a bad day.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God tells His people to remember what He has done, because memory is a source of strength.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
Starlight carries information about the past. Astronomers read old events in light that has been traveling for a very long time.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 6 describes four seasons and a year of 52 weeks, 364 days.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. When did I survive something I did not think I would?

2. Where, looking back, was there help I did not notice then?

3. What do I want to remember on a bad day?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Write three stones: moments when God showed up or you survived. Keep this page somewhere private and findable.

- [ ] Think of three moments, big or small.
- [ ] Write each on its own line, with a date if you know it.
- [ ] Keep the page where you can find it on a hard day.

5 · SUPPLICATION
God, help me remember what You have done, even when I could not see it then. Where I find only pain, give me one small stone. Let it hold me up when I forget. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can remember where help has already been.

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 20 of 30 | Week 3 · Day 6 of 7 | Second Day: The Great Separation | Ethiopian: Hidar 7, 2019 E.C.

DAY 20 OF 91

No More Borrowed Time

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your palms together for ten seconds, then let go. Pray: Lord, stand beside me while I tell the truth.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Ephesians 5:15–17

"Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time, because the days are evil." (Eph. 5:15–16, ESV)

"Making the best use of the time" is not a call to hustle. It is a call to notice where your hours are actually going. Some hours leak to a scroll, a toxic contact, an old habit, or just exhaustion. No shame here, only information. Today we look at one day honestly and decide on one boundary around your time. A boundary on time is a kindness to your future self.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God gives time to be stewarded, and wisdom shows up in how we spend our attention.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
Atomic clocks keep time so well because they are isolated from vibration and stray fields. Protecting a precious thing from interference is part of keeping it accurate.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 6 describes four seasons and a year of 52 weeks, 364 days.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. Where did my time go yesterday?

2. What leaks my hours or my energy without giving anything back?

3. What one boundary would protect my time?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Look at one day and mark three time leaks. Choose one boundary: a time limit, a muted app, a no-contact hour.

- [ ] Write down yesterday hour by hour, as best you remember.
- [ ] Circle three leaks.
- [ ] Choose one boundary and write it as a sentence.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, I have lost a lot of time. Show me honestly where it goes, without shame. Give me one boundary I can keep, and make me wise about my days. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

My time is worth protecting.

DAY 21 OF 91

Know the Condition of Your Flock

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name three sounds you can hear, near or far. Pray: God, steady my hands for what is ahead.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Proverbs 27:23

"Know well the condition of your flocks, and give attention to your herds." (Prov. 27:23, ESV)

This is a farmer's proverb: look at what is actually in front of you. For a rebuilder, the flock is your own life: sleep, food, money, health, supports. A farmer who does not check the flock finds out too late. Today we plan next week like a farmer. Three non-negotiables and one stretch. Non-negotiables are the basics, such as sleep, food, medication as prescribed, and one support contact. The stretch is something extra if you can.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God gives us responsibility for what He has entrusted to us, our own lives included.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
Cesium atoms count identical cycles forever. A routine works the same way: the same small cycle, repeated.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 6 describes four seasons and a year of 52 weeks, 364 days.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What is the real condition of my flock: sleep, food, money, health?

2. What basics have I neglected?

3. What is one stretch goal for the week?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Plan next week: write three non-negotiables and one stretch, then place them on a calendar.

- [ ] Write your three non-negotiables: sleep, food, one support contact.
- [ ] Write one stretch goal.
- [ ] Put them on a calendar or on the weekly page for Week 4.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Lord, You are the Shepherd, and You also trust me to tend what You have given. Help me see my life as it is, and plan with honesty. Give me enough strength for the basics. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can tend my life one week at a time.

Dust and Breath

Genesis 2:7; Psalm 103:13–14

“then the LORD God formed the man of dust from the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living creature.” (Gen. 2:7, ESV)

GOD’S ORIGINAL INTENT

God’s first word over people was dignity: formed by hand, given breath, and put in a garden to work and keep it. Dignity came before damage.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD

Sirach 17:1 says the Lord created human beings out of earth. Jubilees 3 retells the Garden, where the first man is placed to tend and keep it. Sirach is in the Ethiopian Orthodox canon.

QUANTUM PICTURE (AN ANALOGY, NOT A PROOF)

Nearly every element in your body heavier than hydrogen and helium was forged inside stars and scattered when those stars died. The iron in your blood and the calcium in your bones were made out there.

Where this picture stops: “Stardust” is true chemistry and good poetry. Your worth does not come from the chemistry. It comes from being made and loved by God.

THIS WEEK’S GOAL

Treat your body and your story as formed, not forged by shame. Get grounded.

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 22 of 30 | Week 4 · Day 1 of 7 | Fourth Day: The Lights Are Set | Ethiopian: Hidar 9, 2019 E.C.

DAY 22 OF 91

Formed from Dust

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name five things you can see. Eyes open is fine. Pray: Lord, I am here. Meet me here.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Genesis 2:7; Psalm 103:13–14

"For he knows our frame; he remembers that we are dust." (Ps. 103:14, ESV)

God formed the first man from dust and breathed into him. Dust means fragile, and breath means God-given. Both are true of you. Psalm 103 says God has compassion "as a father shows compassion to his children," and that He remembers we are dust. He is not surprised by how breakable you are. Some of us were taught that being fragile is being weak. Scripture says it is being human, and God is gentle with humans.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God's first word over people was dignity: formed by hand, breathed into, and put in a garden to tend.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
Nearly all the elements in your body heavier than hydrogen and helium were made in stars. "Stardust" is real chemistry, though your worth does not come from it.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Sirach 17:1 says the Lord created human beings out of earth.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What is fragile about me right now?

2. What is God-breathed about me, even on a bad day?

3. How would I treat someone I loved who felt this fragile?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Make two columns: "Dust" (what is fragile about me) and "Breath" (what is God-given about me). Fill each with at least three items.

- [ ] Draw two columns on a page.
- [ ] Fill "Dust" with three honest things.
- [ ] Fill "Breath" with three true things. Let both columns stand.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, You remember that I am dust, and You are not disgusted by it. Breathe into the places that feel flat. Teach me to treat myself with the same compassion You have for me. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I am dust and breath, and God is gentle with both.

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 23 of 30 | Week 4 · Day 2 of 7 | Fifth Day: Water and Sky | Ethiopian: Hidar 10, 2019 E.C.

DAY 23 OF 91

Your Body Is Not the Enemy

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your feet into the floor and take three slow breaths, out longer than in. Pray: God, You are nearer than my next breath.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Psalm 139:13–14

"I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well." (Ps. 139:14, ESV)

After trauma, addiction, or years of survival, the body can feel like the place where bad things happened or something to punish. David says the body was knit together by God. That does not erase what was done to it. It does mean your body is not your enemy and is not ruined past God's care. Today we do one body kindness, not a transformation: water, food, a shower, a stretch. Dignity is built in small acts.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God made bodies on purpose, and He called what He made good.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
Many of the atoms in your body are replaced over months and years. Renewal is happening in you right now, quietly.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Sirach 17:1 says the Lord created human beings out of earth.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. How have I treated my body lately?

2. What does my body need that I have been ignoring?

3. What would a kindness look like that is not a punishment disguised as self-care?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Do one body kindness today: water, a real meal, a shower, a stretch, or clean clothes.

- [ ] Choose one kindness that is realistic with what you have.
- [ ] Do it slowly, noticing how it feels.
- [ ] Say thank you to your body out loud, even if it feels awkward.

5 · SUPPLICATION
God, You knit my body together. I have not always treated it as Yours. Heal what shame taught me about it. Help me give it one small kindness today. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

My body is not my enemy. It was made with care.

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 24 of 30 | Week 4 · Day 3 of 7 | Sixth Day: Made for Each Other

Ethiopian: Hidar 11, 2019 E.C.

DAY 24 OF 91

Work It and Keep It

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Hold something warm or cool and notice its weight and texture. Pray: Jesus, be with me in this room.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Genesis 2:15

“The LORD God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to work it and keep it.” (Gen. 2:15, ESV)

Work was in the garden before sin. God gave it as part of being human. “Work it and keep it” means to cultivate and to protect, the language of someone who cares for a garden. Some of us have only known work as exploitation. That is not God’s original intent, and it can be healed. Today, do one practical piece of the rebuild: documents, résumé, benefits, a job lead. If you have no ID, no address, or no phone, that is a real barrier, and there are people who help with it.

GOD’S ORIGINAL INTENT
God gave people meaningful work, to cultivate and protect, as a gift and not a curse.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
The iron in your blood carries oxygen, and that iron was forged in stars and the explosions that end them. The materials of your body have been at work for a very long time.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Jubilees 3 retells the Garden, where the first man is set to tend and keep it.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What has work meant to me: safety, harm, survival, or shame?

2. What kind of work would feel like cultivating instead of surviving?

3. What is one practical blocker I can name?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Do one practical task: gather or request one document (ID, birth certificate, Social Security card), update a résumé line, or call about benefits. Dial 211 for help finding services.

- [ ] Pick one practical blocker.
- [ ] Take the first step: one call, one form, or one list of what you need.
- [ ] Write down who or what could help with the next step.

5 · SUPPLICATION
God, You gave people work before things went wrong. Heal my history with work. Help me find work that cultivates and protects. Give me one practical step today. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Good work was part of God’s original design for me too.

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 25 of 30 | Week 4 · Day 4 of 7 | Seventh Day: Sabbath

Ethiopian: Hidar 12, 2019 E.C.

DAY 25 OF 91

He Gives to His Beloved Sleep

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.

Ground: Rest a hand on your chest, or on a pet if you have one, and feel something steady. Pray: Father, I am Yours, resting or not.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

Psalm 127:2

"It is in vain that you rise up early and go late to rest, eating the bread of anxious toil; for he gives to his beloved sleep." (Ps. 127:2, ESV)

Anxious toil is when working does not feel like a choice, because stopping would feel unsafe. The Psalm says God gives sleep to His beloved. Not to the productive ones, not to the ones who earned it: the beloved. If you cannot sleep because your environment is not safe, I am not going to tell you to just trust God and snooze. I am going to say: rest where and how you can, and keep working on the safety. Sabbath is for the body too.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT

Rest is a gift God gives to those He loves. Sleep is not a reward for productivity.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY

Nearly every element in your body heavier than hydrogen and helium was forged inside stars and scattered when those stars died.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD

Sirach 17:1 says the Lord created human beings out of earth.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What makes it hard for me to rest?

2. Where do I feel unsafe or on guard, and what would help?

3. What does "beloved" feel like to me, and what does it not feel like?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Rest today. Nap, lie down, or sit with your eyes closed for twenty minutes. If you cannot rest safely, name what would need to change.

- [ ] Choose a place that feels as safe as you can make it.
- [ ] Rest for twenty minutes: lying down or sitting with your eyes closed.
- [ ] Write one thing that would make rest safer. It is okay if you cannot change it today.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Father, You give sleep to Your beloved. I am tired in places I cannot name. Help me rest where I can. Where I am not safe, send help and change my circumstances. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I am beloved, and rest is for me.

Sunday, November 22, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 26 of 30 | Week 4 · Day 5 of 7 | First Day: Let There Be Light | Ethiopian: Hidar 13, 2019 E.C.

DAY 26 OF 91

The Breath You Did Not Make

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Look toward the nearest light or window and let your shoulders drop. Pray: Spirit of God, make this hour Yours.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Job 33:4

"The Spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty gives me life." (Job 33:4, ESV)

Elihu says this in the middle of Job's suffering, so it is a speech by a man who is not yet right about everything, but this line stands. Your next breath is a gift you did not make. Today is Sunday, a day for gratitude and worship, so let gratitude be honest. If you get a free hour today, spend it on rest and not on catching up.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
Breath is a gift from God, and each one is received, not earned.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Nearly every element in your body heavier than hydrogen and helium was forged inside stars and scattered when those stars died.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Sirach 17:1 says the Lord created human beings out of earth.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What am I grateful for that surprised me this week?

2. What am I not grateful for, and can I say that honestly to God?

3. How would I spend a free hour just for rest?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Write three things you are grateful for and one thing you are not. Spend a free hour, or any hour, on rest or worship.

- [ ] Write three things you are grateful for. They can be small.
- [ ] Write one thing you are not grateful for. Tell God the truth.
- [ ] Spend one hour on rest or worship: a song, a service, a walk.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, You gave me breath. Thank You for it, and for this one more day. Where I cannot be grateful, be honest with me. Let this day be a gift, not a task. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Every breath is a gift I did not have to earn.

Monday, November 23, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 27 of 30 | Week 4 · Day 6 of 7 | Second Day: The Great Separation | Ethiopian: Hidar 14, 2019 E.C.

DAY 27 OF 91

Dust Is Not Disgrace

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your palms together for ten seconds, then let go. Pray: Lord, stand beside me while I tell the truth.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Romans 8:1; Psalm 103:10–12

"There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus." (Rom. 8:1, ESV)

Guilt says, "I did something wrong." Shame says, "I am something wrong." Guilt can lead to repair. Shame leads to hiding. Someone may have told you that you are trash, or you may have concluded it on your own. That is not what God says. If you did wrong, you can take responsibility, make amends where it is safe, and receive forgiveness. That is not the same as being worthless. Today we separate what you did from who you are.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God deals with sin and shame differently. He forgives the first and does not define you by the second.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Graphite and diamond are both carbon, but arranged differently. This is not a claim that suffering is good. It is just a reminder that the same material can be something else.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Sirach 17:1 says the Lord created human beings out of earth.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What shame sentence do I repeat to myself?

2. What is a fact I could say about what happened, without the shame?

3. What would God say about it, based on what Scripture says, not on what I feel?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Write one shame sentence, then rewrite it as a fact plus a truth. If you cannot find the truth yet, leave it blank.

- [ ] Write the shame sentence exactly as it sounds in your head.
- [ ] Rewrite it: "What happened is ____. What is also true is ____."
- [ ] Read Romans 8:1 out loud once.

5 · SUPPLICATION
Jesus, I have carried shame like it was my name. Separate what I did from who I am. Forgive what needs forgiving, and lift off what was never mine to carry. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

What I did and who I am are not the same thing.

Tuesday, November 24, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 28 of 30 | Week 4 · Day 7 of 7 | Third Day: Ground and Vine | Ethiopian: Hidar 15, 2019 E.C.

DAY 28 OF 91

Ground Check

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name three sounds you can hear, near or far. Pray: God, steady my hands for what is ahead.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Psalm 40:2

"He drew me up from the pit of destruction, out of the miry bog, and set my feet upon a rock, making my steps secure." (Ps. 40:2, ESV)

David describes being pulled out of a pit and set on a rock. DOA is not your end. It is where God starts. But rock does not mean everything is solved. It means you have somewhere solid to stand while you work on the rest. Today we do a ground check: what is under your feet right now? Place to sleep, food, phone, ID, a person. Honest inventory, no shame. Then we pick one gap.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God lifts people out of pits and sets them on solid ground. It is His starting point, not our ending.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Nearly every element in your body heavier than hydrogen and helium was forged inside stars and scattered when those stars died.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Sirach 17:1 says the Lord created human beings out of earth.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What is solid under my feet right now?

2. What is missing: housing, food, phone, ID, safe people?

3. Which gap would make the biggest difference if closed?

4 · SOFT ACTION
List what is under your feet: sleep, food, phone, ID, supports. Circle one gap and write who could help close it. Dial 211 for local help with housing, food, and more.

- [ ] List what is solid: place to sleep, food, phone, ID, support.
- [ ] List what is missing.
- [ ] Circle one gap and write one person or place that might help.

5 · SUPPLICATION
God, You set people on rock. Show me what is solid and what is not. Give me the courage to name the gaps, and send the right help for the one I choose. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I have ground to stand on, and I can work on the gaps.

MONTHLY QUESTION

What is hard and packed in me, and who can help me break it up?

MY INTENTION FOR THIS MONTH

Both/And

Romans 7:15–25; 2 Corinthians 4:7–9

“For I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate.” (Rom. 7:15, ESV)

GOD’S ORIGINAL INTENT

God sees the whole person: the part that wants out and the part that is tired of fighting. He does not require you to pretend you are not divided in order to come to Him.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD

Sirach 2:1–6 tells the one who comes to serve the Lord to prepare for testing and says gold is tried in fire. It names the struggle honestly instead of hiding it.

QUANTUM PICTURE (AN ANALOGY, NOT A PROOF)

Light shows up as a wave in some experiments and as a particle in others. Physicists do not pick one. They use both pictures, depending on the question being asked.

Where this picture stops: Wave-particle duality says nothing about good and evil, and it is not an excuse for harm. It only gives me words for holding two real things at once without lying about either.

THIS WEEK’S GOAL

Tell the truth about the split without hating yourself, and start building a plan for the part of you that wants to live.

Solar Walk · Month 1, Day 29 of 30 | Week 5 · Day 1 of 7 | Fourth Day: The Lights Are Set

Ethiopian: Hidar 16, 2019 E.C.

DAY 29 OF 91

The War Inside

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name five things you can see. Eyes open is fine. Pray: Lord, I am here. Meet me here.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Romans 7:15–25

"For I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate." (Rom. 7:15, ESV)

Paul is honest about being divided. Some read this as describing his life before Christ and some as his ongoing struggle. Either way he says it out loud, and nobody in the Bible tells him he has weak faith for saying it. If you want out and you also want the old plug, you are not a hypocrite. You are divided, and that is something to bring to God, not hide. Paul ends with a cry, "Who will deliver me?" and then answers: Jesus Christ our Lord (v. 24–25).

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God wants the truth about the divided heart, and He does not need you to look united in order to come to Him.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Light acts like a wave in some experiments and like a particle in others. Physicists use both pictures, because both are true of the same thing.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Sirach 2:1–6 names testing and struggle honestly: gold is tried in fire.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What part of me wants out?

2. What part of me still wants the old thing, and what is it trying to protect?

3. What would it be like to let both speak without judging either?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Make two columns: "The part that wants out" and "The part that wants the old plug." Let both speak. Ask what each is trying to protect.

- [ ] Draw two columns.
- [ ] Write what each side says, in its own voice.
- [ ] Under each, write what it is trying to protect, such as safety, comfort, or numbness.

5 · SUPPLICATION
God, I am divided and tired of pretending I am not. You know both sides of me. Meet me in the middle of the war. Help me tell the truth, and deliver me, because I cannot do it alone. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can tell the truth about being divided. God can hold it.

DAY 30 OF 91

On the calendar today · Thanksgiving (US). A day of thanks can be a heavy day. Give yourself an exit plan, a time limit, and one safe person to text. You can be thankful and sad on the same day. 988 is there any time.

Clay Jars, Real Treasure

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.

Ground: Press your feet into the floor and take three slow breaths, out longer than in. Pray: God, You are nearer than my next breath.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

2 Corinthians 4:7–9

"But we have this treasure in jars of clay, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us." (2 Cor. 4:7, ESV)

Paul calls himself and his friends clay jars: ordinary, breakable, nothing special. The treasure inside is God's. He lists being afflicted, perplexed, persecuted, and struck down, and says not crushed, not driven to despair, not forsaken, not destroyed. That does not mean the pressure is not real. It means the jar has not shattered. Today, pay attention to your body, because the jar is where the pressure lands. Notice where you hold it.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT

God puts His power in ordinary, breakable people so no one mistakes where the power comes from.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY

One light can show wave behavior and particle behavior. You can be both fragile and held.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD

Sirach 2:1–6 tells the one who comes to serve the Lord to prepare for testing and says gold is tried in fire.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. Where do I feel pressure in my body right now?

2. Where do I feel "not crushed" even though it is heavy?

3. What does it mean to me that the power is not mine?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Do a three-minute body check. Put a hand where you feel pressure, name the feeling, and breathe. Eyes open is fine, and skipping is fine.

- [ ] Place one hand on your chest, stomach, or wherever you notice pressure.
- [ ] Name the feeling in one word.
- [ ] Take three slow breaths, with a longer breath out. Stop if it is too much.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Lord, I am a clay jar and I feel the cracks. Thank You that the treasure is Yours and not mine. Hold me together where I cannot hold myself. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I am breakable and still held.

DAY 31 OF 91

Relapse Is Not the Last Word

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Hold something warm or cool and notice its weight and texture. Pray: Jesus, be with me in this room.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

Proverbs 24:16

"for the righteous falls seven times and rises again, but the wicked stumble in times of calamity." (Prov. 24:16, ESV)

This proverb is about getting back up. Seven is a number of completeness, so it describes someone who keeps falling and keeps rising. I will not tell you a slip does not matter, because it does, and responsibility is real. I also will not tell you a relapse makes you disposable, because it does not. Understanding is not excusing, and grace is not enabling. Both are true. The job today is to make a plan before you need one, while your head is clear.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God's heart toward the one who falls is to help them rise, not to write them off.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
When an electron drops from a high energy level to a lower one, it gives off a precise amount of light. Even a fall has a definite shape you can learn from.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Sirach 2:1–6 tells the one who comes to serve the Lord to prepare for testing and says gold is tried in fire.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What are my warning signs: a time of day, a feeling, a place, a person?

2. What has helped me get back up before?

3. Who could I call, and what would I say?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Write a slip plan: three warning signs, three people or numbers, and one place to go. SAMHSA National Helpline: 1-800-662-4357. In an emergency, call 911.

- [ ] List three warning signs.
- [ ] List three people or numbers you can call, and write them down where you can find them.
- [ ] Name one safe place to go if a craving hits.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, You do not write people off. If I fall, help me get up fast and not hide. Give me a plan I can follow before I need it, and give me people to call. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

A fall is not the end. I rise with help.

Ethiopian: Hidar 19, 2019 E.C.

DAY 32 OF 91

Rest for Both Halves

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.

Ground: Rest a hand on your chest, or on a pet if you have one, and feel something steady. Pray: Father, I am Yours, resting or not.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

Matthew 11:28–30

"Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." (Matt. 11:28, ESV)

Jesus does not say, "Come to me when you have your act together." He says come when you are laboring and heavy laden. The part of you that wants to get free is tired, and so is the part that wants to run. He invites both. On this Sabbath, you do not need to resolve the war inside. You can say, "I want rest and I want to run. I am tired and I am still here." That is not failure. That is an honest sentence, and Jesus can work with honest.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT

Jesus invites the weary as they are, not as they should be.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY

Light shows up as a wave in some experiments and as a particle in others.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD

Sirach 2:1–6 tells the one who comes to serve the Lord to prepare for testing and says gold is tried in fire.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What am I laboring under that I have not named?

2. What does rest look like for the part of me that wants out, and for the part that wants to run?

3. What would it be like to be honest with Jesus about both?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Write one both/and sentence: "I want ___ and I want ___. I am ___ and I am still here." Then rest for twenty minutes.

- [ ] Write your both/and sentence.
- [ ] Read it out loud to God.
- [ ] Rest for twenty minutes: lie down, sit outside, or close your eyes.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Jesus, I am tired and divided. You said come, so I am coming as I am. Give rest to the part of me that wants out and the part that wants to run. I am not hiding anything from You today. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can come tired and divided, and Jesus still says come.

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 3 of 30 | Week 5 · Day 5 of 7 | First Day: Let There Be Light | Ethiopian: Hidar 20, 2019 E.C.

DAY 33 OF 91

On the calendar today · First Sunday of Advent. Advent is the four weeks before Christmas, a season of waiting for the light (Isa. 9:2). If you are waiting in the dark, you are in the right part of the story. Light one small light tonight.

Unite My Heart

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Look toward the nearest light or window and let your shoulders drop. Pray: Spirit of God, make this hour Yours.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Psalm 86:11

"Teach me your way, O LORD, that I may walk in your truth; unite my heart to fear your name." (Ps. 86:11, ESV)

David knew his heart could be pulled in two directions, so he asks God to unite it. Notice what he does not do. He does not pretend it is already united. He asks for help. Sunday is a day to worship from the true place, not the polished one. Say the verse five times slowly, and let it be a real petition. Wholeness is not something you force. It is something you ask for and then practice, one small honest choice at a time.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God invites people to ask Him to unite what is divided, and does not demand they already be whole.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
In a Bose-Einstein condensate, a cloud of atoms is cooled until it behaves as one. That is a rare lab state, and it is only a picture of what "united" could mean.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Sirach 2:1–6 tells the one who comes to serve the Lord to prepare for testing and says gold is tried in fire.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. Where is my heart pulled in two directions?

2. What would "united" look like for me in one specific area?

3. What would I ask God for if I did not have to sound spiritual?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Pray Psalm 86:11 five times slowly. Then write your own one-sentence petition in plain words.

- [ ] Read Psalm 86:11 out loud, slowly, five times.
- [ ] Write your own one-sentence petition: "God, unite my heart about ____."
- [ ] Go to a service, a song, or a quiet room, and pray it there.

5 · SUPPLICATION
God, my heart is pulled apart and I cannot fix it by trying harder. Teach me Your way and unite my heart. Meet me in the real place, not the polished one. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can ask God to unite my heart instead of pretending it already is.

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 4 of 30 | Week 5 · Day 6 of 7 | Second Day: The Great Separation | Ethiopian: Hidar 21, 2019 E.C.

DAY 34 OF 91

Both/And Is Not an Excuse

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your palms together for ten seconds, then let go. Pray: Lord, stand beside me while I tell the truth.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Galatians 5:16–17

"But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh." (Gal. 5:16, ESV)

Yesterday we held both halves with compassion. Today the other side of that truth: compassion for the struggle does not cancel responsibility. Paul says the flesh and the Spirit are at war, and he says walk by the Spirit, which is a direction you keep choosing, not a feeling. Spiritual warfare does not remove personal responsibility, and a conflict inside you is not an excuse for harm. A boundary can help: remove one trigger, and tell one safe person what you are doing.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God holds mercy and responsibility together, and He gives His Spirit to help with both.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Light shows up as a wave in some experiments and as a particle in others.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Sirach 2:1–6 tells the one who comes to serve the Lord to prepare for testing and says gold is tried in fire.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. Where have I used "I am conflicted" to avoid a choice?

2. What is one trigger I could remove or avoid this week?

3. Who could I tell?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Name one trigger and one concrete way to put distance between you and it. Tell one safe person.

- [ ] Name one trigger: a place, app, contact, or time of day.
- [ ] Write one specific way to create distance from it.
- [ ] Tell one safe person what you are doing.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Spirit of God, I want to walk, not just wish. Show me where I have been hiding behind the struggle. Give me one concrete choice today, and help me not do it alone. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Mercy and responsibility belong together.

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 5 of 30 | Week 5 · Day 7 of 7 | Third Day: Ground and Vine | Ethiopian: Hidar 22, 2019 E.C.

DAY 35 OF 91

Guard the Wellspring

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name three sounds you can hear, near or far. Pray: God, steady my hands for what is ahead.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Proverbs 4:23

"Keep your heart with all vigilance, for from it flow the springs of life." (Prov. 4:23, ESV)

Tuesday is a planting day, and what you plant is a plan. Willpower is not a plan, because it runs out. A simple tool is an if-then plan: "If I feel X, then I will do Y." It decides ahead of time, when you are clear, so you do not have to decide in the middle of the craving. Your heart is a wellspring, and wellsprings are guarded because what flows out depends on what you let in.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God calls us to guard the heart, and planning ahead is one way to do it.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Light shows up as a wave in some experiments and as a particle in others.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Sirach 2:1–6 tells the one who comes to serve the Lord to prepare for testing and says gold is tried in fire.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. When do I feel most pulled toward the old thing?

2. What could I do instead that is realistic?

3. Who or what can I put within reach so it is easier?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Write two if-then plans. "If I feel ___, then I will ___ (call, walk, pray, eat, leave)." Put the page where you will see it.

- [ ] Name two moments when you feel pulled.
- [ ] For each, write: "If ___, then I will ___."
- [ ] Put the page where you will see it, such as the fridge, the mirror, or your phone case.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Lord, I need more than willpower. Help me plan ahead while I am clear, and guard what flows from my heart. Give me a next step when I am pulled. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can decide ahead of time, while I am clear.

Not Alone

> Ecclesiastes 4:9–12
> “Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil.” (Eccl. 4:9, ESV)

GOD’S ORIGINAL INTENT

The first thing God called “not good” in all of creation was loneliness (Gen. 2:18). Connection is part of the design.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD

Sirach 6:14–17 says a faithful friend is a sturdy shelter and a treasure, and that those who fear the Lord find such friends.

QUANTUM PICTURE (AN ANALOGY, NOT A PROOF)

Two particles can be “entangled.” Their measurement results stay linked even when they are far apart. Entanglement cannot be used to send a message, and it does not mean everything is secretly connected to everything.

Where this picture stops: Be careful with this one. Entanglement is a precise lab result, not a spiritual law, and I will not use it to say that thoughts or prayers travel through physics. I use it only as a picture of real linkage between two things.

THIS WEEK’S GOAL

Reach one safe person, and start building a circle that does not depend on one person.

Wednesday, December 2, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 6 of 30 | Week 6 · Day 1 of 7 | Fourth Day: The Lights Are Set

Ethiopian: Hidar 23, 2019 E.C.

DAY 36 OF 91

Two Are Better Than One

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name five things you can see. Eyes open is fine. Pray: Lord, I am here. Meet me here.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Ecclesiastes 4:9–10

"For if they fall, one will lift up his fellow. But woe to him who is alone when he falls and has not another to lift him up!" (Eccl. 4:10, ESV)

The writer of Ecclesiastes was not naive about people. He just knew that falling alone is worse. I have been on that floor. When I was alone and afraid of people, reaching out felt more dangerous than staying down. But some people and places are safer than the story in your head. Today we map your circle in rings. It does not need to be large, and it can have a lot of empty spots right now. Seeing the gaps is the first step.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God designed people to lift each other up, and He called it better than going it alone.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Two particles can be "entangled," so that measuring one tells you about the other. It is a precise lab result, not a spiritual law, and it is only a picture of real linkage.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Sirach 6:14–17 says a faithful friend is a sturdy shelter.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. Who has lifted me up when I fell?

2. What makes it hard to let someone in?

3. What would a safe, small step toward connection look like?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Draw three rings: close (people you trust), helpful (people who help with practical things), and professional (counselors, doctors, advocates). Write names or leave blanks.

- [ ] Draw three rings on a page.
- [ ] Write names in each ring. Blanks are fine.
- [ ] Circle one blank and write one way you could fill it.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, I do not want to fall alone again. Show me who is safe. Give me courage to let one person closer, and protect me from the ones who are not safe. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I do not have to fall alone.

Thursday, December 3, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 7 of 30 | Week 6 · Day 2 of 7 | Fifth Day: Water and Sky | Ethiopian: Hidar 24, 2019 E.C.

DAY 37 OF 91

Carry It Together

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your feet into the floor and take three slow breaths, out longer than in. Pray: God, You are nearer than my next breath.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Galatians 6:2

"Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ." (Gal. 6:2, ESV)

Burden-bearing is mutual. Sometimes you carry, sometimes you are carried. Some of us learned that needing help makes us a burden, and that is not what Paul teaches. Today is a body day, so try something simple: do a small task alongside another person or a pet. Fold laundry on a call. Walk with a friend or with Big Boy. Another steady presence can help your body settle in ways that talking alone cannot.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God designed us to carry each other, and needing help is part of the design.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
In 1665 Christiaan Huygens noticed that two pendulum clocks on the same wall drifted into step with each other. Steady things nearby can pull us toward steadiness.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Sirach 6:14–17 says a faithful friend is a sturdy shelter and a treasure, and that those who fear the Lord find such friends.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. Where have I believed that needing help makes me a burden?

2. What task could I do alongside someone else?

3. Who is a steady presence for me, human or animal?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Do one small task with someone beside you: laundry on a call, a walk with a friend or your dog, tea with a neighbor.

- [ ] Choose a small, low-pressure task.
- [ ] Invite a person (or take your dog) along. Keep it simple.
- [ ] Notice, for one minute, how your body feels when someone steady is nearby.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Lord, I have tried to carry everything alone. Teach me to receive help and to give it. Send steady people, and help me be steady for someone else. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Needing help is not weakness. It is how we are made.

Friday, December 4, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 8 of 30 | Week 6 · Day 3 of 7 | Sixth Day: Made for Each Other | Ethiopian: Hidar 25, 2019 E.C.

DAY 38 OF 91

A Friend Loves at All Times

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Hold something warm or cool and notice its weight and texture. Pray: Jesus, be with me in this room.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Proverbs 17:17

"A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity." (Prov. 17:17, ESV)

"At all times" is the test. A safe friend is there in the hard seasons, not just the fun ones. Someone who only shows up when you are useful, or loves you only when you are doing well, is not that. You can test this gently: Do they respect your no? Do they keep what you tell them private? Do you leave feeling more yourself? Today practice reaching and discerning. Some friends are a gift, and some are a lesson.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God defines friendship as loyalty through adversity, not convenience.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Two particles can be "entangled." Their measurement results stay linked even when they are far apart.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Sirach 6:14–17 says a faithful friend is a sturdy shelter and a treasure, and that those who fear the Lord find such friends.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. Who has stayed in the hard seasons?

2. Who disappeared, and what do I do with that?

3. What does a safe friend do that I need more of?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Reach out to someone who has stayed, or attend one meeting, group, or church service. Use these three questions to notice a safe person: do they respect no, keep confidences, and leave me feeling more like myself?

- [ ] Think of someone who stayed.
- [ ] Send a short message or make a plan to see them.
- [ ] After, write: Did they respect my no? Keep what I said private? Leave me more like myself?

5 · SUPPLICATION
God, You are the friend who loves at all times. Help me find that kind of friend, and help me be that kind of friend. Give me wisdom to tell who is safe. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can reach for friends who stay.

Saturday, December 5, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 9 of 30 | Week 6 · Day 4 of 7 | Seventh Day: Sabbath

Ethiopian: Hidar 26, 2019 E.C.

DAY 39 OF 91

Sit With Me

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.

Ground: Rest a hand on your chest, or on a pet if you have one, and feel something steady. Pray: Father, I am Yours, resting or not.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

Job 2:11–13

"And they sat with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his suffering was very great." (Job 2:13, ESV)

Job's friends did their best work in the first seven days, when they sat on the ground and said nothing. It went wrong when they started explaining his suffering, and God later rebuked them for it (Job 42:7). Presence without fixing is a gift, and most of us have been given plenty of explanations and not enough company. Today, ask for company without advice, or offer it. Twenty minutes is enough. It is a Sabbath practice.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT

God's own pattern is presence. Immanuel means God with us, not God lecturing us.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY

Two particles can be "entangled." Their measurement results stay linked even when they are far apart.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD

Sirach 6:14–17 says a faithful friend is a sturdy shelter and a treasure, and that those who fear the Lord find such friends.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What was it like when someone explained my pain to me?

2. What was it like when someone simply stayed?

3. Who could I sit with, or who could sit with me?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Ask a safe person for twenty minutes of company with no advice. Or offer that to someone else.

- [ ] Choose a person.
- [ ] Say: "I do not need advice. I just need twenty minutes of company."
- [ ] Sit together. If it is hard, put on a show or take a walk.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, You are with me even when You say nothing. Teach me to sit with people, and help me find someone who can sit with me. Keep me from explaining what I cannot understand. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Presence is enough. I do not need to be fixed to be accompanied.

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 10 of 30 | Week 6 · Day 5 of 7 | First Day: Let There Be Light | Ethiopian: Hidar 27, 2019 E.C.

DAY 40 OF 91

Do Not Neglect Meeting

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Look toward the nearest light or window and let your shoulders drop. Pray: Spirit of God, make this hour Yours.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Hebrews 10:24–25

"And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another." (Heb. 10:24–25, ESV)

If church has hurt you, I am sorry. I met people who could talk recovery, quote Scripture, and still see wounds as a business opportunity. That is not what this passage describes. It describes people encouraging one another toward love. Safe community exists, and it takes some looking. Today is Sunday, so consider one gathering this week: a church, a recovery group, or even a service online. Use the safe-community checklist below. You are allowed to leave a place that fails it.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God designed His people to meet and encourage each other, and not to be used by each other.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Two particles can be "entangled." Their measurement results stay linked even when they are far apart.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Sirach 6:14–17 says a faithful friend is a sturdy shelter and a treasure, and that those who fear the Lord find such friends.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What has community cost me?

2. What would I need to feel safe in a gathering?

3. What is one small way I could try again?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Choose one gathering this week and check it against the list: no pressure for money or secrets, open leadership, questions welcome, boundaries respected, mental health taken seriously.

- [ ] Find one gathering: church, group, or online service.
- [ ] Check it against the five safety signs above.
- [ ] Go once, or watch once. You can leave any time.

5 · SUPPLICATION
God, community has hurt me, and I still need people. Lead me to a safe place. Help me spot what is not safe, and give me the courage to leave when I need to. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Safe community exists, and I am allowed to look for it.

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 11 of 30 | Week 6 · Day 6 of 7 | Second Day: The Great Separation | Ethiopian: Hidar 28, 2019 E.C.

DAY 41 OF 91

Isolation Is Not Safety

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your palms together for ten seconds, then let go. Pray: Lord, stand beside me while I tell the truth.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Proverbs 18:1

"Whoever isolates himself seeks his own desire; he breaks out against all sound judgment." (Prov. 18:1, ESV)

Careful with this one, because it has been used as a club. If someone isolated you, as an abuser, a dealer, or a controlling person often does, this verse is not accusing you. The isolation was done to you. But if you are now hiding because it feels safer, that is worth looking at. Isolation can look like protection and slowly cut off every lifeline. Today we set a minimum: one small contact a day, and a list of safe distances you are keeping on purpose.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God made people for connection, and He also protects those who need distance from harm.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Two particles can be "entangled." Their measurement results stay linked even when they are far apart.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Sirach 6:14–17 says a faithful friend is a sturdy shelter and a treasure, and that those who fear the Lord find such friends.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. Was my isolation done to me, chosen by me, or both?

2. What am I protecting by staying away?

3. What is one lifeline I want to keep?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Set a minimum connection: one text, call, or in-person contact each day. Also write a short list of distances you are keeping for safety, and keep them.

- [ ] Decide your daily minimum: one text, one call, one wave to a neighbor.
- [ ] List one or two people or places you are keeping distance from, on purpose.
- [ ] Do today's minimum.

5 · SUPPLICATION
God, isolation has been both a wound and a hiding place. Help me tell the difference. Keep me connected to the people who are safe and distant from the ones who are not. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can stay connected to what is safe and keep distance from what is not.

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 12 of 30 | Week 6 · Day 7 of 7 | Third Day: Ground and Vine | Ethiopian: Hidar 29, 2019 E.C.

DAY 42 OF 91

A Cord of Three

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name three sounds you can hear, near or far. Pray: God, steady my hands for what is ahead.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Ecclesiastes 4:12

"And though a man might prevail against one who is alone, two will withstand him—a threefold cord is not quickly broken." (Eccl. 4:12, ESV)

A cord of three strands shares the load. If one strand frays, the others hold. Your rebuild needs more than one strand. A good starting trio: someone for your faith, someone for your recovery or health (a counselor, sponsor, group, or doctor), and someone for practical help (a ride, a meal, a form). One person cannot be all of those. The aim is not a big network. It is three strands that can share the load, and some of them may start as a hotline number or a church office.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God designed support to be shared, so no one person carries everything.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
A rope is stronger than the sum of loose threads because the twist makes the strands share the load. This is mechanics, not quantum physics, but it is a good picture of shared strength.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Sirach 6:14–17 says a faithful friend is a sturdy shelter and a treasure, and that those who fear the Lord find such friends.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. Who or what is my faith strand?

2. Who or what is my recovery or health strand?

3. Who or what is my practical strand?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Name one person or place for each strand: faith, recovery or health, practical. A blank is fine. Pick one blank to start filling this week.

- [ ] Write one name or place for each strand.
- [ ] Circle the weakest strand.
- [ ] Write one step toward strengthening it.

5 · SUPPLICATION
Lord, I need more than one strand. Give me a cord of three. Help me find the right people and places, and give me the patience to build it slowly. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I do not need one perfect person. I need a few safe strands.

Walls and Breakthrough

Isaiah 58:6–8; Luke 13:10–17

“Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo the straps of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke?” (Isa. 58:6, ESV)

GOD’S ORIGINAL INTENT

God’s heart is release: liberty for captives, the oppressed set free, and chains understood as something He opposes.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD

Jubilees 50 closes the book on the sabbath and the jubilee years, release built into the calendar. It echoes Leviticus 25:10, which proclaims liberty throughout the land.

QUANTUM PICTURE (AN ANALOGY, NOT A PROOF)

A particle can sometimes pass through a barrier it does not appear to have enough energy to cross. This is called quantum tunneling, and it is part of how the sun fuses hydrogen and shines at all.

Where this picture stops: Tunneling is a matter of probability, not willpower, and it is not a spiritual technique. Freedom in Scripture comes from Christ, and in real life it usually also needs people, treatment, housing, and time.

THIS WEEK’S GOAL

Name the wall, find the smallest crack, and ask for the specific help that crack requires.

One thing I will carry into next week:

Wednesday, December 9, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 13 of 30 | Week 7 · Day 1 of 7 | Fourth Day: The Lights Are Set | Ethiopian: Hidar 30, 2019 E.C.

DAY 43 OF 91

Leap the Wall

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name five things you can see. Eyes open is fine. Pray: Lord, I am here. Meet me here.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Psalm 18:29

"For by you I can run against a troop, and by my God I can leap over a wall." (Ps. 18:29, ESV)

David wrote this after God rescued him from enemies. "By my God" is the point. He does not say he is strong enough on his own. Some walls are real: no ID, no ride, no money, no safe place, no one who believes you. I am not going to tell you they are not. I am going to say that you may be closer to a crack than you think. Today we name the wall and then find the smallest crack in it.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God helps people get over walls they could not get over alone.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Quantum tunneling lets a particle pass through a barrier it does not seem to have the energy to cross. It is a matter of probability, not willpower, and it helps the sun shine.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Jubilees 50 closes on the sabbath and the jubilee, release built into the calendar.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What wall is in front of me right now?

2. What would it take to find even a small crack in it?

3. Who or what could help with that crack?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Name one wall and write down its smallest possible crack. Name one person or resource that could help with that crack.

- [ ] Write the wall in one sentence.
- [ ] Write the smallest crack: the easiest piece of it you could do or ask about.
- [ ] Name who could help with that piece.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, this wall is real. Help me see the smallest crack in it. Send the right people, and give me strength to take the one step I can take today. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

By my God I can leap over a wall.

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 14 of 30 | Week 7 · Day 2 of 7 | Fifth Day: Water and Sky | Ethiopian: Tahsas 1, 2019 E.C.

DAY 44 OF 91

Loose the Bonds

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your feet into the floor and take three slow breaths, out longer than in. Pray: God, You are nearer than my next breath.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Isaiah 58:6–8

“Then shall your light break forth like the dawn.” (Isa. 58:8, ESV)

Isaiah 58 is God’s answer to people who fasted and still oppressed others. True fasting, He says, is loosing the bonds of wickedness, undoing the yoke, setting the oppressed free. That tells me how He feels about chains: He is against them. Verse 8 is not a formula for earning healing. It describes what happens when a community aligns with God’s heart for the bound. Your body may carry bonds too. Today we practice release in a small, physical way.

GOD’S ORIGINAL INTENT
God opposes bondage and wants the oppressed to go free.

THIS WEEK’S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
A particle can sometimes pass through a barrier it does not appear to have enough energy to cross.

THIS WEEK’S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 50 closes the book on the sabbath and the jubilee years, release built into the calendar.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What bonds am I carrying in my body: tension, a clenched jaw, a held breath?

2. What does it feel like to let go, even a little?

3. What bondage in the world around me makes me angry, and what do I do with that?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Do three rounds of tense and release. Tighten your fists for five seconds, then release. Do the shoulders and jaw next. Skip any part that hurts.

- [ ] Make fists for five seconds, then let them open.
- [ ] Raise your shoulders for five seconds, then drop them.
- [ ] Clench your jaw lightly, then release. Take one slow breath out.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, You hate chains and You love freedom. Loosen what is tight in my body and in my life. Where I am bound, send help. Where others are bound, make me useful. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

God is against chains, and that includes mine.

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 15 of 30 | Week 7 · Day 3 of 7 | Sixth Day: Made for Each Other | Ethiopian: Tahsas 2, 2019 E.C.

DAY 45 OF 91

Unbind Him

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Hold something warm or cool and notice its weight and texture. Pray: Jesus, be with me in this room.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
John 11:38–44

"Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.'" (John 11:44, ESV)

Lazarus was dead four days, and the people said it was too late. Jesus called him out anyway. DOA is not the end, it is God's starting point. But look at what happened next: Lazarus came out still wrapped in grave clothes. Jesus told the people standing there to unbind him. Resurrection was God's part and unwrapping was the community's part. Today, ask for one specific piece of unwrapping: a ride, a form, a call, a meal. Be specific, because people can help with specific.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God raises the dead and then involves the community in the unwrapping.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
A particle can sometimes pass through a barrier it does not appear to have enough energy to cross.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 50 closes the book on the sabbath and the jubilee years, release built into the calendar.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. Where do I feel like I came out of the tomb but I am still wrapped?

2. What is one specific piece of unwrapping I need help with?

3. Who could I ask?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Ask one person for one specific thing: a ride, help with a form, a meal, a call. Use this script: "Could you help me with ___? It would take about ___."

- [ ] Name one specific thing.
- [ ] Ask one person using the script.
- [ ] If they say no, it is not about your worth. Ask the next person or place.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Jesus, You called Lazarus out and You told his friends to unwrap him. I am out, and I am still wrapped. Send me people who can help, and give me the courage to ask clearly. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

God does the raising, and people can help with the unwrapping.

Saturday, December 12, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 16 of 30 | Week 7 · Day 4 of 7 | Seventh Day: Sabbath | Ethiopian: Tahsas 3, 2019 E.C.

DAY 46 OF 91

Straightened on the Sabbath

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Rest a hand on your chest, or on a pet if you have one, and feel something steady. Pray: Father, I am Yours, resting or not.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Luke 13:10–17

"And when Jesus saw her, he called her over and said to her, 'Woman, you are freed from your disability.'" (Luke 13:12, ESV)

A woman had been bent over for eighteen years, and Jesus saw her. Not her condition, her. He called her over, laid hands on her, and she stood up straight. The synagogue ruler was upset that it happened on the Sabbath, and Jesus called her a daughter of Abraham who should be loosed from her bond. Luke says Satan had bound her. I am careful with that: not every illness, symptom, or struggle is demonic, and this passage does not say otherwise. What it does show is Jesus choosing release over rules.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God's Sabbath is for loosing people, not for keeping them bound.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
A particle can sometimes pass through a barrier it does not appear to have enough energy to cross.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 50 closes the book on the sabbath and the jubilee years, release built into the calendar.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What have I been bent under for a long time?

2. What would it feel like to be seen, called by name, and not just looked at?

3. What would standing up straight, even a little, look like?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Stand or sit tall for one minute and breathe. Name one thing you have been bent under. Then write: "I am a daughter of God, loosed from ___ and free to ___."

- [ ] Stand or sit as tall as your body allows.
- [ ] Breathe for one minute. Notice what changes.
- [ ] Complete the sentence in writing. It is okay if you only have part of it.

5 · SUPPLICATION
Jesus, You saw her when others saw a problem. See me. Call me over. Loose what has bent me for so long, and give me strength to stand, even a little. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Jesus sees me, calls me, and loosens what has bent me.

Sunday, December 13, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 17 of 30 | Week 7 · Day 5 of 7 | First Day: Let There Be Light | Ethiopian: Tahsas 4, 2019 E.C.

DAY 47 OF 91

Proclaim Liberty

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Look toward the nearest light or window and let your shoulders drop. Pray: Spirit of God, make this hour Yours.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Luke 4:16–21; Leviticus 25:10

"He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives . . . to set at liberty those who are oppressed." (Luke 4:18, ESV)

In his hometown synagogue Jesus read from Isaiah 61 and said, "Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing." The language of release echoes the Jubilee in Leviticus 25, when debts were forgiven and people returned to their land. When I read that, I hear a God who sees captives as His business. Today is a day of worship and hope. Make a liberty list: what you want freedom from, and what you want freedom for. Both matter.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God's mission through Jesus is release, rooted in the Jubilee: liberty for captives and the oppressed set free.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
A particle can sometimes pass through a barrier it does not appear to have enough energy to cross.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Jubilees 50 echoes Leviticus 25 with the jubilee and the sabbath as release built into time.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What am I hoping to be free from?

2. What am I hoping to be free for?

3. What does liberty look like in a day I could actually live?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Make a two-column liberty list: "Free from" and "Free for." Read Luke 4:16–21. Sing, listen to, or read something that lifts your spirit.

- [ ] Read Luke 4:16–21.
- [ ] Write "Free from" and "Free for," three items each.
- [ ] Listen to or sing one song that gives you hope.

5 · SUPPLICATION
Jesus, You came to proclaim liberty. I believe You mean it. Show me what I am free from, and what I am free for. Let me walk in it, one real day at a time. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Jesus came to proclaim liberty, and that includes me.

Monday, December 14, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 18 of 30 | Week 7 · Day 6 of 7 | Second Day: The Great Separation | Ethiopian: Tahsas 5, 2019 E.C.

DAY 48 OF 91

Chains Fall, Choices Remain

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your palms together for ten seconds, then let go. Pray: Lord, stand beside me while I tell the truth.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Galatians 5:1

"For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery." (Gal. 5:1, ESV)

Broken chains are a picture I love, and it is a symbol. Freedom in Christ is real, and Paul still says stand firm. A broken chain does not stop you from going back for it. A worksheet does not literally break anything. What helps is support, treatment, safe housing, and honest choices, with Christ holding it all together. So today, name the yoke you are still wearing, or tempted to put back on, and one practical thing that would help you stand firm.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
Christ sets us free, and invites us to stand firm in the freedom, with help.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Tunneling is probabilistic. It is not a technique. Real breakthroughs also come with support and repetition.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 50 closes the book on the sabbath and the jubilee years, release built into the calendar.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What yoke am I still wearing, or tempted to put back on?

2. What practical support would help me stand firm?

3. What does standing firm look like on a bad day?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Name one yoke. Then write one practical support that would help you stand firm: a meeting, a call, a boundary, a change of route.

- [ ] Write the yoke in one word or sentence.
- [ ] Write one practical support.
- [ ] Put it on your calendar or add it to your phone.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Christ, You set me free. Help me stand firm, and do not let me think I have to do it alone. Show me the practical supports I need and give me the humility to use them. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Freedom is real, and I can stand firm with help.

Tuesday, December 15, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 19 of 30 | Week 7 · Day 7 of 7 | Third Day: Ground and Vine | Ethiopian: Tahsas 6, 2019 E.C.

DAY 49 OF 91

A Door of Hope

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name three sounds you can hear, near or far. Pray: God, steady my hands for what is ahead.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Hosea 2:14–15

"And there I will give her her vineyards and make the Valley of Achor a door of hope." (Hos. 2:15, ESV)

Hosea is God speaking about His people who had wandered, and the tone is tender: "I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak tenderly to her." This is not a verse about blaming people who were hurt. It is about God's heart for His people. Achor means "trouble," and God promises to turn the valley of trouble into a door of hope, and to give her vineyards. Bando to vineyard. Today name your valley and plant one small thing of hope there.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God speaks tenderly to His people, turns places of trouble into doors, and gives vineyards.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
A particle can sometimes pass through a barrier it does not appear to have enough energy to cross.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 50 closes the book on the sabbath and the jubilee years, release built into the calendar.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What is my valley of Achor, the place of trouble?

2. What would a door of hope there look like, even a crack?

3. What would planting one small thing in that place look like?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Name your valley in one sentence. Then plant one small hope: a seed in a cup, a note on the wall, a plan you could do this week.

- [ ] Name the valley.
- [ ] Choose a tiny action: a plant, a note, a call, a plan.
- [ ] Do it, or put it on the calendar.

5 · SUPPLICATION
God, You speak tenderly to people in the wilderness. I want to hear that. Turn my valley of trouble into a door of hope, and let me plant something there. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

God can turn a valley into a door of hope.

What We Cannot Know

1 Corinthians 13:12; Job 26:7–14

“For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I have been fully known.” (1 Cor. 13:12, ESV)

GOD’S ORIGINAL INTENT

God asked people to trust Him for the day’s portion, not to master the whole future. Not-knowing is part of being a creature.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD

Wisdom of Solomon 9:13–14 asks who can learn the counsel of God and says the reasonings of mortals are timid and our plans unstable. Wisdom is in the Ethiopian Orthodox canon.

QUANTUM PICTURE (AN ANALOGY, NOT A PROOF)

Heisenberg’s uncertainty principle says you cannot know a particle’s exact position and its exact momentum at the same time. This is not a flaw in our instruments. It is built into how nature works.

Where this picture stops: Uncertainty in physics does not mean nothing can be known or that God is uncertain. Physicists still make precise predictions. The picture only helps me release my need to control every detail of tomorrow.

THIS WEEK’S GOAL

Hold the unknown with open hands, practice gratitude through a heavy season, and keep doing the next faithful thing.

Wednesday, December 16, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 20 of 30 | Week 8 · Day 1 of 7 | Fourth Day: The Lights Are Set | Ethiopian: Tahsas 7, 2019 E.C.

DAY 50 OF 91

In a Mirror, Dimly

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name five things you can see. Eyes open is fine. Pray: Lord, I am here. Meet me here.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

1 Corinthians 13:12

"For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I have been fully known." (1 Cor. 13:12, ESV)

Paul is not saying you cannot know anything. He is saying you know in part, and one day fully, and meanwhile you are already fully known. That is a kindness. Holiday seasons can mean grief, family stress, old using times, or an empty chair. You do not have to know how it will go. Today we make a holiday plan: what you know, what you do not, and what you choose to trust.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God asks us to trust Him with what we cannot see, because we are already fully known by Him.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Heisenberg's uncertainty principle says you cannot know a particle's exact position and exact momentum at once. It is built into nature, not a flaw in our tools. We can still make precise predictions about what is likely.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Wisdom of Solomon 9:13–14 asks who can learn the counsel of God and says our plans are unstable.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What do I know for sure about this week?

2. What do I not know, and which part of that scares me most?

3. What am I choosing to trust God with?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Make three columns: "What I know," "What I do not know," "What I choose to trust." Add a holiday plan: a way out, a ride, a time limit, and one person to call.

- [ ] Fill in the three columns.
- [ ] Write a holiday exit plan: how you will leave if you need to.
- [ ] Write one number to call if the day gets hard, such as 988 or a sponsor.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, I do not know how this season will go, and I am scared of parts of it. You know me fully. Be with me where I cannot see, and give me a way out when I need one. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I do not have to know everything. I am fully known.

Thursday, December 17, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 21 of 30 | Week 8 · Day 2 of 7 | Fifth Day: Water and Sky | Ethiopian: Tahsas 8, 2019 E.C.

DAY 51 OF 91

Give Thanks Without Pretending

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your feet into the floor and take three slow breaths, out longer than in. Pray: God, You are nearer than my next breath.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
1 Thessalonians 5:16–18

"give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you." (1 Thess. 5:18, ESV)

Paul says give thanks in all circumstances, not for all circumstances. That means you can be thankful for one true thing in a day that also hurts. A day of thanks, like Thanksgiving in the US, can be a rough one. If there is an empty chair, say so. If family is not safe, you do not owe them your presence. You can give thanks and grieve in the same day. Tell God the truth, and let both be real.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God invites honest gratitude alongside honest grief, and He does not ask for pretend joy.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Heisenberg's uncertainty principle says you cannot know a particle's exact position and its exact momentum at the same time.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Wisdom of Solomon 9:13–14 asks who can learn the counsel of God and says the reasonings of mortals are timid and our plans unstable.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What is one thing I am truly thankful for today?

2. What do I grieve today?

3. How could I say both to God?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Write three real thanks and one honest grief. If today is too hard, one line each is enough. Leave early or limit your time anywhere that is not safe.

- [ ] Write three things you are thankful for.
- [ ] Write one thing you grieve.
- [ ] Read both to God. You are allowed to leave any gathering that is not safe.

5 · SUPPLICATION
God, today is complicated. I am thankful and I am sad. I will tell You both. Keep me safe wherever I am, and let me not pretend. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can be thankful and sad at the same time.

Friday, December 18, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 22 of 30 | Week 8 · Day 3 of 7 | Sixth Day: Made for Each Other | Ethiopian: Tahsas 9, 2019 E.C.

DAY 52 OF 91

Daily Bread

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Hold something warm or cool and notice its weight and texture. Pray: Jesus, be with me in this room.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Exodus 16:4; Matthew 6:11

"Give us this day our daily bread." (Matt. 6:11, ESV)

In the wilderness God gave Israel manna one day at a time, enough for that day and no more. Jesus teaches us to pray the same way. It is a hard lesson when you have lived in scarcity, because your body wants to hoard. Today is a practical day: check what you have for the day. Food, money, a place to sleep. Pray for today's bread. If you do not have it, say so and ask for help. There are food banks, and 211 can point to them.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God provides for the day, and invites us to live one day at a time.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
The more exactly you try to pin down one property of a particle, the less exactly you can know the other. Trying to nail down every detail of the future can cost you the present.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Wisdom of Solomon 9:13–14 asks who can learn the counsel of God and says the reasonings of mortals are timid and our plans unstable.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What do I need for today, specifically?

2. What do I have, and what am I missing?

3. How does it feel to focus only on today?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Check today's bread: food, money, a place to sleep. If something is missing, call 211 or a local food bank. Pray the daily bread prayer.

- [ ] List what you need for today.
- [ ] Mark what you have and what is missing.
- [ ] For anything missing, make one call or ask one person.

5 · SUPPLICATION
Father, give me this day my daily bread. I will trust You for today and not try to carry the whole month. If I am in need, send help that is real. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I only have to carry today.

Saturday, December 19, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 23 of 30 | Week 8 · Day 4 of 7 | Seventh Day: Sabbath | Ethiopian: Tahsas 10, 2019 E.C.

DAY 53 OF 91

Do Not Be Anxious About Tomorrow

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Rest a hand on your chest, or on a pet if you have one, and feel something steady. Pray: Father, I am Yours, resting or not.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Matthew 6:34

"Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble." (Matt. 6:34, ESV)

Jesus does not say your worries are not real. He says today has enough trouble, so do not borrow tomorrow's. For people with anxiety or trauma, that is easier said than done, and this is not a verse to beat yourself up with. Try a worry window. Give your worries ten minutes, put them on paper, then hand the page to God and go rest. On a Sabbath, the page can wait.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
Jesus invites us to live in today, and does not shame anxious hearts.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Heisenberg's uncertainty principle says you cannot know a particle's exact position and its exact momentum at the same time.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Wisdom of Solomon 9:13–14 asks who can learn the counsel of God and says the reasonings of mortals are timid and our plans unstable.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What am I anxious about that has not happened yet?

2. What can I actually do about it today, and what can I not?

3. What would it feel like to hand it to God for the day?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Set a ten-minute timer. Write every worry on a page. Draw a line under what you can do today. Pray over the page, fold it, and put it away until tomorrow.

- [ ] Set a timer for ten minutes and write every worry.
- [ ] Underline anything you can do today. Everything else is for tomorrow.
- [ ] Fold the page, say a one-line prayer, and put it away.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Jesus, I carry tomorrow and it is heavy. I hand You this page. Keep it safe tonight, and let me rest. Give me what I need for the day in front of me. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Today has enough. I can set tomorrow down.

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 24 of 30 | Week 8 · Day 5 of 7 | First Day: Let There Be Light | Ethiopian: Tahsas 11, 2019 E.C.

DAY 54 OF 91

Waiting in the Dark

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Look toward the nearest light or window and let your shoulders drop. Pray: Spirit of God, make this hour Yours.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

Isaiah 9:2

"The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who dwelt in a land of deep darkness, on them has light shone." (Isa. 9:2, ESV)

Advent is the four weeks before Christmas, when Christians remember waiting. Isaiah wrote to people living in a dark time, and the light he promised had not come yet. Advent is permission to wait honestly, in the dark, without pretending it is already morning. If you are in a dark season, you are not behind the people who seem to be celebrating. You are in the part of the story where waiting is the faithful thing.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God's people have always waited in the dark for light that was promised.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Heisenberg's uncertainty principle says you cannot know a particle's exact position and its exact momentum at the same time.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Wisdom of Solomon 9:13–14 asks who can learn the counsel of God and says the reasonings of mortals are timid and our plans unstable.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What am I waiting for?

2. What does waiting in the dark feel like for me?

3. What small light would help tonight?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Light a candle or a lamp tonight. Sit for one minute and tell God what you are waiting for.

- [ ] Choose a candle or lamp. If you cannot use a flame, use a small light.
- [ ] Sit with it for one minute.
- [ ] Say one sentence to God about what you are waiting for.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, I am waiting in the dark for light I cannot yet see. Be near me in the waiting. Let this small light be a promise that morning comes. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Waiting in the dark is part of the story, not the end of it.

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 25 of 30 | Week 8 · Day 6 of 7 | Second Day: The Great Separation | Ethiopian: Tahsas 12, 2019 E.C.

DAY 55 OF 91

On the calendar today · Winter solstice (Northern Hemisphere). Today has the least daylight of the year in the Northern Hemisphere, and after today the days lengthen. That is astronomy, not a sign about you. Psalm 30:5 gives even the longest night a morning.

A Simple Yes or No

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your palms together for ten seconds, then let go. Pray: Lord, stand beside me while I tell the truth.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Matthew 5:37

"Let what you say be simply 'Yes' or 'No'; anything more than this comes from evil." (Matt. 5:37, ESV)

Jesus was talking about oaths, and in that setting he is saying let your word be plain and trustworthy. You can use the same plainness for boundaries. You do not owe a long explanation or a performance. This week may bring invitations that are not safe: a gathering with someone who hurt you, a drink, a conversation you are not ready for. A plain no is allowed. Practice one script today so it is ready when you need it.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God values plain, honest speech, and that includes a clear no.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Heisenberg's uncertainty principle says you cannot know a particle's exact position and its exact momentum at the same time.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Wisdom of Solomon 9:13–14 asks who can learn the counsel of God and says the reasonings of mortals are timid and our plans unstable.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What invitation am I dreading?

2. What would a plain, kind no sound like?

3. What do I fear will happen if I say it?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Write one script for declining and one exit plan. Practice it out loud once. Example: "I cannot make it. I hope you have a good day."

- [ ] Write the invitation you might need to decline.
- [ ] Write your script in two sentences or fewer.
- [ ] Say it out loud once, and write your exit plan: a ride, a call, a time limit.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, I want my yes to be yes and my no to be no. Give me plain words and a steady voice. Protect me where I am vulnerable, and send help if the plain no is not enough. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

A plain no is allowed.

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 26 of 30 | Week 8 · Day 7 of 7 | Third Day: Ground and Vine | Ethiopian: Tahsas 13, 2019 E.C.

DAY 56 OF 91

Sow Anyway

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name three sounds you can hear, near or far. Pray: God, steady my hands for what is ahead.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Ecclesiastes 11:4–6

"In the morning sow your seed, and at evening withhold not your hand, for you do not know which will prosper." (Eccl. 11:6, ESV)

The writer says that someone who keeps watching the wind and the clouds never sows or reaps. You will never have perfect information. So sow in the morning, and sow in the evening too, because you do not know which seed will grow. Not knowing is not a reason to do nothing. It is just the condition we work under. Today, sow one small seed: an application, a message, a form, a plant in a cup.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God invites us to act in faith even when the outcome is uncertain.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
Uncertainty does not stop physicists from making very precise predictions about probabilities. Not knowing exactly is different from not being able to act.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Wisdom of Solomon 9:13–14 asks who can learn the counsel of God and says the reasonings of mortals are timid and our plans unstable.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What am I waiting to be sure of before I act?

2. What is one small seed I could sow today?

3. What would I do if I accepted that I will never be sure?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Sow one small seed today: send an application, a message, a form, or plant something in a cup. Do not wait for a guarantee.

- [ ] Pick one small seed.
- [ ] Do it today, even imperfectly.
- [ ] Write one sentence about what it felt like to act without being sure.

5 · SUPPLICATION
Lord, I want certainty before I move. Teach me to sow anyway. Give me the courage to plant today and to leave the growing to You. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can act without a guarantee.

MONTHLY QUESTION

What am I tending, and what am I choosing for the next season?

MY INTENTION FOR THIS MONTH

Known by Name

Isaiah 43:1; Psalm 147:3–4

“But now thus says the LORD, he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: ‘Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine.’” (Isa. 43:1, ESV)

GOD’S ORIGINAL INTENT

God names what He makes. Names others gave you, like addict, victim, and used, are not the name He gave.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD

Baruch 3:34–35 says the stars shine at their watches and are glad, and that when God calls them they answer, “Here we are.” Baruch is in the Ethiopian Orthodox canon.

QUANTUM PICTURE (AN ANALOGY, NOT A PROOF)

Every chemical element absorbs and gives off light at its own exact colors, called spectral lines. This is how astronomers know what distant stars are made of. It comes from the fixed energy steps inside atoms, so each element has an unmistakable fingerprint in light.

Where this picture stops: Your identity is not a chemical fingerprint, and the picture cannot tell you who you are. It only shows that “known by a unique signature” is a real feature of creation.

THIS WEEK’S GOAL

Take back your name, set down names that are not yours, and let one true thing about you be said out loud.

THE WEEK AT A GLANCE

Wednesday, December 23, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 27 of 30 | Week 9 · Day 1 of 7 | Fourth Day: The Lights Are Set | Ethiopian: Tahsas 14, 2019 E.C.

DAY 57 OF 91

Called by Name

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name five things you can see. Eyes open is fine. Pray: Lord, I am here. Meet me here.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

Isaiah 43:1

"But now thus says the LORD, he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: 'Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine.'" (Isa. 43:1, ESV)

Isaiah says this to a people in exile, and the verse starts with "But now." God is not denying what happened to them. He is saying what is also true. Redeemed, called by name, mine. Some of us carry names others gave us: addict, victim, worthless, used. Those names stuck because someone said them loudly. Today we put those names down on paper, and then we write what God calls us, even if we only believe a little of it yet.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God names what He makes, and He calls His people by name as His own.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Every chemical element gives off light at its own exact colors, called spectral lines. Astronomers can read what a distant star is made of from its light. Each element has an unmistakable signature.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Baruch 3:34–35 says the stars shine at their watches, and when God calls them they answer, "Here we are."

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What names have others called me?

2. What would it be like to hear "I have called you by name, you are mine"?

3. What do I believe a little, even if I cannot feel it yet?

4 · SOFT ACTION

On a page, write the names others have called you. Draw a line under them. Then write what God calls you, using Isaiah 43:1 and whatever else you know to be true.

- [ ] Write the names others gave you.
- [ ] Draw a line under them.
- [ ] Write: "God calls me redeemed, called by name, His." Add anything else you know to be true.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, I have answered to names that were not Yours. Say my name. Let me hear it, even faintly, and let me believe a little more each day that I am Yours. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I am called by name, and I am His.

Thursday, December 24, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 28 of 30 | Week 9 · Day 2 of 7 | Fifth Day: Water and Sky

Ethiopian: Tahsas 15, 2019 E.C.

DAY 58 OF 91

On the calendar today · Christmas Eve. If tonight is heavy, make a plan: how you will leave if you need to, a ride, and one number to call. The good news in Luke 2 was told first to shepherds working the night shift.

He Counts the Stars, He Binds the Wounds

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.

Ground: Press your feet into the floor and take three slow breaths, out longer than in. Pray: God, You are nearer than my next breath.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

Psalm 147:3–4

"He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds. He determines the number of the stars; he gives to all of them their names." (Ps. 147:3–4, ESV)

Look at how those two verses sit side by side. The God who counts and names every star is the same God who binds up the wounds of the brokenhearted. His attention is not too big for small things or too small for big things. A body that has been in survival mode sometimes needs something simple: go outside and look up. Use your senses, and let the sky be big while you are small.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT

God's power and tenderness are not in tension. He counts stars and binds wounds.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE

Starlight carries an exact signature of the elements that made it. The light you see tonight has been traveling for years.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD

Baruch 3:34–35 says the stars answer God when He calls them by name.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What wound would I like God to bind?

2. What does it feel like to be small under a very big sky?

3. What name would I want God to say over me?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Go outside tonight, or sit by a window, and look at the sky for two minutes. Name one wound you would like bound. Say: "You count the stars, and You bind wounds."

- [ ] Go outside or to a window after dark if it is safe.
- [ ] Look up for two minutes. Notice what your body does.
- [ ] Say the sentence above out loud or in your head.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, You count the stars and You know my name. Bind the wounds I cannot reach. Let me feel small in a good way tonight, safe under a sky You made. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

The God who names the stars knows my name.

Friday, December 25, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 29 of 30 | Week 9 · Day 3 of 7 | Sixth Day: Made for Each Other | Ethiopian: Tahsas 16, 2019 E.C.

DAY 59 OF 91

On the calendar today · Christmas Day. Merry Christmas. If the day is hard, that is not a failure of Christmas. God came near (John 1:14). Let one small thing be a gift: a note, a call, a few words of thanks.

The God Who Sees

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Hold something warm or cool and notice its weight and texture. Pray: Jesus, be with me in this room.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Genesis 16:7–14

"So she called the name of the LORD who spoke to her, 'You are a God of seeing,' for she said, 'Truly here I have seen him who looks after me.'" (Gen. 16:13, ESV)

Hagar was an enslaved woman who was given to Abram, mistreated, and ran into the wilderness. An angel found her by a spring, and she gave God a name: "You are a God of seeing." She is one of very few people in Scripture who names God. The same chapter has the angel tell her to go back, which readers have wrestled with for centuries. I will say plainly that nothing here is a command for anyone to return to abuse. What stands is that God saw her. If you have been trafficked or enslaved, God sees you.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God sees the unseen and hears the unheard, and He gives a name to what He sees.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Every chemical element absorbs and gives off light at its own exact colors, called spectral lines.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Baruch 3:34–35 says the stars shine at their watches and are glad, and that when God calls them they answer, "Here we are." Baruch is in the Ethiopian Orthodox canon.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. When did I feel unseen?

2. What would it mean if God saw me then?

3. What name would I give God from my own story?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Write a note that starts with "I was seen when . . ." and let it be as short as it needs to be.

- [ ] Write "I was seen when . . ." and finish it any way you can. Leave it blank if that is all you have.
- [ ] If there is a word you would use for God from your own story, write it down.
- [ ] Need help? Trafficking Hotline 1-888-373-7888 (text 233733), or 911.

5 · SUPPLICATION
God of seeing, I was not seen when I needed to be. Thank You that You see. Where I am still in danger, make a way out. Where I am free, help me heal. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

God sees me, and I am not invisible.

Solar Walk · Month 2, Day 30 of 30 | Week 9 · Day 4 of 7 | Seventh Day: Sabbath

Ethiopian: Tahsas 17, 2019 E.C.

DAY 60 OF 91

Rest in Being Known

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.

Ground: Rest a hand on your chest, or on a pet if you have one, and feel something steady. Pray: Father, I am Yours, resting or not.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

Psalm 139:11–12

"even the darkness is not dark to you; the night is bright as the day, for darkness is as light with you." (Ps. 139:12, ESV)

Psalm 139 starts with "You have searched me and known me." For people who have been watched, followed, or studied by someone who meant harm, that can feel scary. But this is not surveillance. It is being known by someone who is for you. David says even the darkness is not dark to God. There is nowhere you have been that He has not been with you. Today is a Sabbath. Rest in this, and let yourself be known without having to explain.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT

God's knowing is for our good, and there is no darkness He cannot see into.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY

Every chemical element absorbs and gives off light at its own exact colors, called spectral lines.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD

Baruch 3:34–35 says the stars shine at their watches and are glad, and that when God calls them they answer, "Here we are." Baruch is in the Ethiopian Orthodox canon.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What does it feel like to be known?

2. What part of me is hardest to be known in?

3. What would it mean that the darkness is not dark to God?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Read Psalm 139:1–12 slowly. Say out loud, "You know me." Rest for twenty minutes, and let yourself be known without explaining anything.

- [ ] Read Psalm 139:1–12 slowly.
- [ ] Say aloud: "You know me."
- [ ] Rest for twenty minutes. No explaining, no fixing.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, You know me and You see in the dark. I do not have to explain myself. Let me rest in being known by someone who is for me. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I am known, and I am not alone in the dark.

Solar Walk · Month 3, Day 1 of 31 | Week 9 · Day 5 of 7 | First Day: Let There Be Light | Ethiopian: Tahsas 18, 2019 E.C.

DAY 61 OF 91

New Month, New Mercies

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Look toward the nearest light or window and let your shoulders drop. Pray: Spirit of God, make this hour Yours.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Lamentations 3:22–23

“The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.” (Lam. 3:22–23, ESV)

Lamentations was written in the ruins of Jerusalem, and this is the line the writer found in the rubble. Mercies new every morning does not mean mornings are easy. It means that God’s faithfulness does not run out before you do. Today starts Month 3. Take a moment to look back at what you have lived through in the first two months, then set one honest intention for the next thirty-one days. It does not have to be big. It has to be true.

GOD’S ORIGINAL INTENT
God’s faithfulness is renewed daily, and it is strong enough to stand in the ruins.

THIS WEEK’S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Every chemical element absorbs and gives off light at its own exact colors, called spectral lines.

THIS WEEK’S CANON THREAD
Baruch 3:34–35 says the stars shine at their watches and are glad, and that when God calls them they answer, “Here we are.” Baruch is in the Ethiopian Orthodox canon.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What has this season shown me about myself?

2. What am I tired of that I want to leave behind?

3. What is one honest intention for Month 3?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Look back at Months 1 and 2 and circle three days that mattered. Then write one intention for Month 3 in a single sentence.

- [ ] Flip back through the book and circle three days that mattered.
- [ ] Write one honest intention for Month 3.
- [ ] Share it with one safe person, or read it out loud to God.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Lord, thank You for the mercies that have carried me this far. Make this month honest and steady. Show me what to leave behind and what to carry, and let each morning find me still here. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

God’s mercies have not run out, and neither have I.

Not Your Name

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your palms together for ten seconds, then let go. Pray: Lord, stand beside me while I tell the truth.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Revelation 2:17

"To the one who conquers I will give some of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, with a new name written on the stone that no one knows except the one who receives it." (Rev. 2:17, ESV)

In Revelation, Jesus promises a new name known to the person who receives it. In the world of the early church, a name was identity and reputation. Some names do not belong to you. If someone called you by a label that was about what was done to you, or what you did at your lowest, you are allowed to refuse it. Not by pretending. By being honest about what happened and still refusing the verdict. Write the sentence "I am not ____" and, if you can, "I am ____." If you cannot yet, leave a blank.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God gives names, and the names He gives are not defined by what was done to us.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Each element has a signature in light that cannot be faked. In the same way, who you are to God is not something another person's words can overwrite.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Baruch 3:34–35 pictures the stars answering to God's call by name.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What label do I want to refuse?

2. What is true about me that the label does not say?

3. What does it mean to receive a name from Jesus?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Write "I am not ___" for one label you are refusing. If you can, write "I am ___" with a true word. Leave it blank if that is all you have today.

- [ ] Write the label you are refusing.
- [ ] Write a true word to put beside it, if you have one.
- [ ] Say both sentences out loud once.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Jesus, You know the names that have been put on me. I do not want them anymore. Give me the name You have for me, and help me believe it one day at a time. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I do not have to answer to names that are not mine.

Corner to Crown

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name three sounds you can hear, near or far. Pray: God, steady my hands for what is ahead.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Isaiah 61:3

"to give them a beautiful headdress instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the garment of praise instead of a faint spirit." (Isa. 61:3, ESV)

This is the same passage Jesus read in Nazareth. It promises a beautiful headdress instead of ashes. Corner to crown is how I say it: an identity and a responsibility that reach past an old survival role. The crown is not a reward for being fixed. It is a gift for people who mourn, and the next line calls them "oaks of righteousness, the planting of the LORD." Planting. Today we do one dignity act, something that treats you like someone worth tending.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God exchanges ashes for beauty and gives His people a standing they did not earn.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Every chemical element absorbs and gives off light at its own exact colors, called spectral lines.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Baruch 3:34–35 says the stars shine at their watches and are glad, and that when God calls them they answer, "Here we are." Baruch is in the Ethiopian Orthodox canon.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What did my old survival role cost me?

2. What would it mean to be someone God plants and tends?

3. What small act today would treat me like someone worth tending?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Do one dignity act: wash your face and hair, wear something that feels like you, fix something small, or sign your name on something good.

- [ ] Choose one dignity act you can actually do today.
- [ ] Do it with care, not rushed.
- [ ] Look in a mirror, if you can, and say: "God is planting something in me."

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, You give crowns to people who have been in ashes. I do not feel like a crown person, and You say I can be. Help me act like someone worth tending today. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I am being planted, not discarded.

Ground State

Deuteronomy 5:12–15; Mark 2:27

"You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm. Therefore the LORD your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day." (Deut. 5:15, ESV)

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT

Rest was never reward. It was liberation. A slave does not get a day off, so God made rest the first thing He gave back.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD

Jubilees 2:17–33 treats the Sabbath as a sign set into the first week of creation. Sirach 38:1–14 tells the reader to honor the physician, because the Lord created him, and to pray and still let the doctor do his work.

QUANTUM PICTURE (AN ANALOGY, NOT A PROOF)

Even at its lowest possible energy, a quantum system is not at zero. The resting state, called the ground state, is a real and stable state with real properties. Rest is not nothing.

Where this picture stops: Do not take this to "free energy from the vacuum" or any claim that empty space is a power source or God. It is just a picture: the resting state is a state, not an absence.

THIS WEEK'S GOAL

Receive real rest, eat, sleep, and let medical and professional care be part of your rebuilding.

Wednesday, December 30, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 3, Day 4 of 31 | Week 10 · Day 1 of 7 | Fourth Day: The Lights Are Set | Ethiopian: Tahsas 21, 2019 E.C.

DAY 64 OF 91

You Were a Slave

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name five things you can see. Eyes open is fine. Pray: Lord, I am here. Meet me here.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Deuteronomy 5:12–15

"You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm. Therefore the LORD your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day." (Deut. 5:15, ESV)

Here the Sabbath commandment is tied to freedom. Remember you were a slave, and God brought you out. A slave has no day off. Rest is the first thing slavery takes, and it is the first thing God gives back. If you have been trafficked, coerced, or in a controlling relationship, your body may not know how to rest without being watched. That is not your fault. Rest is not laziness. It is evidence that you are no longer owned.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
Sabbath is liberation. God made rest the sign that His people are not slaves.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Even at its lowest energy, a quantum system still has some energy. Its resting state is a real state with real properties. Rest is not nothing.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Jubilees 2:17–33 treats the Sabbath as a sign built into the first week of creation.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. When did rest feel unsafe, or like it would be punished?

2. Where do I still live as if I have to produce to be safe?

3. What would it mean to rest as a free person?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Name one place where you still live as if you must produce to be safe. Then take ten minutes of rest as a free person: no phone, no task.

- [ ] Write one area where you feel you must produce to be safe.
- [ ] Write one sentence: "I am not owned."
- [ ] Rest for ten minutes with no phone and no task.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, rest was taken from me. I thank You for giving it back. Teach my body that it is safe to stop. Let me rest as someone You brought out. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Rest is evidence that I am not owned.

Thursday, December 31, 2026

Solar Walk · Month 3, Day 5 of 31 | Week 10 · Day 2 of 7 | Fifth Day: Water and Sky | Ethiopian: Tahsas 22, 2019 E.C.

DAY 65 OF 91

On the calendar today · New Year's Eve. A high-risk night for many. Plan it: where you will be, who you will call, and how you will leave. A safe, quiet night is a good night.

Elijah Ate First

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your feet into the floor and take three slow breaths, out longer than in. Pray: God, You are nearer than my next breath.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
1 Kings 19:1–8

"And behold, an angel touched him and said to him, 'Arise and eat.'" (1 Kings 19:5, ESV)

Elijah had just won a huge spiritual victory, and then he ran into the wilderness, exhausted and afraid, and asked God to let him die. What did God do? He did not argue. An angel touched him and said, "Arise and eat." He slept, he ate, he slept again. Only later did God speak to him in a low whisper. Sometimes the holy thing is a sandwich and a nap. If you are worn out, God is not asking you to be spiritual. He is asking you to eat.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God cares for the body first. He meets exhausted people with food and sleep.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Even at its lowest possible energy, a quantum system is not at zero.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 2:17–33 treats the Sabbath as a sign set into the first week of creation.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. When did I last eat a real meal and sleep a full night?

2. What am I trying to push through that I should address first?

3. What would it mean that God fed Elijah before He talked to him?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Eat one real meal and drink water. Go to bed earlier than usual if you can. Save any heavy thinking for after.

- [ ] Make or find a simple meal. Eat it sitting down.
- [ ] Drink a full glass of water.
- [ ] Plan a bedtime and try to keep it.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, You fed Elijah before You spoke to him. Feed me. Let me rest without guilt, and meet me when I wake. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Eating and sleeping are holy.

Friday, January 1, 2027

Solar Walk · Month 3, Day 6 of 31 | Week 10 · Day 3 of 7 | Sixth Day: Made for Each Other | Ethiopian: Tahsas 23, 2019 E.C.

DAY 66 OF 91

On the calendar today · New Year's Day. Happy new year. Pick a few small practices instead of resolutions, and tell one person.

Honor the Physician

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Hold something warm or cool and notice its weight and texture. Pray: Jesus, be with me in this room.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Mark 2:17; Sirach 38:1–14

"Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick." (Mark 2:17, ESV)

Jesus talks about himself as a physician for the sick, and he does not shame anyone for needing one. Prayer does not replace treatment. It sits alongside it. The wisdom writer Sirach says to honor the physician because the Lord created him, to pray, and also to let the physician do his work (Sirach 38). If you need medical care, mental health care, addiction treatment, a safe place to detox, or a counselor, getting it is not a lack of faith. It is wisdom. Today, take one step toward that care.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God works through doctors, counselors, and treatment, and He does not ask us to choose between prayer and care.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Even at its lowest possible energy, a quantum system is not at zero.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Sirach 38:1–14 says to honor the physician, because the Lord created him, and to pray and still let him do his work.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What care do I need that I have been putting off?

2. What has made it hard to get: cost, shame, fear, access?

3. What would one step toward it look like?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Take one step toward care: make an appointment, look up a clinic, or call a helpline. In the US, FindTreatment.gov and SAMHSA's helpline at 1-800-662-4357 can help. If you are in crisis, call or text 988.

- [ ] Choose one kind of care you need.
- [ ] Take one step: search, call, or book.
- [ ] Write the date or the next step here: _____.

5 · SUPPLICATION
God, You made physicians and counselors. Help me not be ashamed to need them. Open one door today, and give me the courage to walk through it. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Getting care is wisdom, not weakness.

Saturday, January 2, 2027

Solar Walk · Month 3, Day 7 of 31 | Week 10 · Day 4 of 7 | Seventh Day: Sabbath

Ethiopian: Tahsas 24, 2019 E.C.

DAY 67 OF 91

A Sabbath Rest Remains

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Rest a hand on your chest, or on a pet if you have one, and feel something steady. Pray: Father, I am Yours, resting or not.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Hebrews 4:9–11

“So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God.” (Heb. 4:9, ESV)

Hebrews says there is a rest that still remains for God’s people, and that we should be diligent to enter it. That is an interesting pairing: diligence and rest. Entering rest takes some intention, especially for people whose bodies do not know how. Today, try a longer rest than usual: a few hours, or the whole day if you can. Turn off what you can. Let the day be slow, and let it be boring if it needs to be.

GOD’S ORIGINAL INTENT
Rest is a promise still held out to God’s people, and it takes practice to receive.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
A system in its ground state is stable, not dead. Deep rest is something your body can do actively.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Jubilees 2:17–33 treats the Sabbath as a sign built into the first week of creation.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What does deep rest feel like in my body, if I have ever had it?

2. What gets in the way of it?

3. What would I need to do to protect a few hours of rest today?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Protect a long stretch of rest: two to four hours, or more. Turn off notifications, and choose slow things: a walk, a book, a nap, sitting with your dog.

- [ ] Pick a window of two to four hours.
- [ ] Turn off notifications and tell anyone who needs to know.
- [ ] Do only slow things during that window. Notice how it feels.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Father, You promised a rest that remains. Help me enter it. Quiet the part of me that says I have to keep going. Let this day be slow, and let it be good. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

A Sabbath rest remains for me.

Sunday, January 3, 2027

Solar Walk · Month 3, Day 8 of 31 | Week 10 · Day 5 of 7 | First Day: Let There Be Light | Ethiopian: Tahsas 25, 2019 E.C.

DAY 68 OF 91

Safe Enough to Sleep

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Look toward the nearest light or window and let your shoulders drop. Pray: Spirit of God, make this hour Yours.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Psalm 4:8

"In peace I will both lie down and sleep; for you alone, O LORD, make me dwell in safety." (Ps. 4:8, ESV)

David wrote this in a bad time. He had enemies and people who lied about him, and he still says he can lie down in peace because God makes him dwell in safety. I am not going to say safety is only a feeling. Real safety matters. If your housing is unsafe, or someone is a danger to you, call the right people. For the sleep you can influence, small things help: a darker room, a set bedtime, a prayer. Today is Sunday, a day for worship. Make sleep part of it.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God cares about safety and sleep, and He works through both prayer and practical steps.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Even at its lowest possible energy, a quantum system is not at zero.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 2:17–33 treats the Sabbath as a sign set into the first week of creation.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What makes sleep hard for me?

2. What small change might help: light, sound, a bedtime, a prayer?

3. If my environment is unsafe, who can I ask for help?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Make one small change to your sleep space or routine tonight. If your home is not safe, call 211 or the National DV Hotline at 1-800-799-7233 and ask about options.

- [ ] Pick one change: darker room, set bedtime, quieter space, or a bedtime prayer.
- [ ] Do it tonight.
- [ ] If your place is not safe, write down the number for 211 or the DV hotline and keep it where you can find it.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Lord, I want to lie down in peace. Make me safe in the real ways I need. Help me do what I can, and send help where I cannot. Let me sleep tonight. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can ask for safety and take practical steps toward it.

Monday, January 4, 2027

Solar Walk · Month 3, Day 9 of 31 | Week 10 · Day 6 of 7 | Second Day: The Great Separation | Ethiopian: Tahsas 26, 2019 E.C.

DAY 69 OF 91

Rest Is Not Rebellion

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your palms together for ten seconds, then let go. Pray: Lord, stand beside me while I tell the truth.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Mark 1:35–38

"And rising very early in the morning, while it was still dark, he departed and went out to a desolate place, and there he prayed." (Mark 1:35, ESV)

In Mark 1, Jesus has been healing people late into the night. The next morning he slips away to pray, and when the disciples find him they say, "Everyone is looking for you." He answers, "Let us go on to the next towns." He did not let the crowd set his schedule. If Jesus said no to needs, we can too. Monday is a boundary day, so today practice declining one thing. Not out of spite, but because you are a limited person, and that is how God made you.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
Jesus modeled withdrawing, praying, and saying no to good things so he could do the right ones.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Even at its lowest possible energy, a quantum system is not at zero.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 2:17–33 treats the Sabbath as a sign set into the first week of creation.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What am I saying yes to out of guilt or fear?

2. What would happen if I said no, and who would be unhappy?

3. What would I do with that time or energy instead?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Decline one request or obligation today, kindly and simply. If you cannot say no yet, write the sentence you would use.

- [ ] Choose one thing to decline or delay.
- [ ] Write or say: "I cannot take that on right now."
- [ ] Use the saved time or energy for something restoring.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Jesus, You said no to crowds so You could be with the Father. Teach me to do the same without guilt. Show me what to decline and what to keep, and let me rest without apology. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Saying no can be holy.

Tuesday, January 5, 2027

Solar Walk · Month 3, Day 10 of 31 | Week 10 · Day 7 of 7 | Third Day: Ground and Vine

Ethiopian: Tahsas 27, 2019 E.C.

DAY 70 OF 91

Break Up the Fallow Ground

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name three sounds you can hear, near or far. Pray: God, steady my hands for what is ahead.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

Jeremiah 4:3

"For thus says the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem: 'Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns.'" (Jer. 4:3, ESV)

Fallow ground is soil that has been left unplowed, so it is hard and packed. Seed does not take on hard ground, and thorns will choke whatever grows. A farmer deals with both before planting. For a rebuilder, the thorns might be a habit, a bottle, a contact, a clutter. Tuesday is for the vineyard, so do one soil job today: clear one surface, remove one thorn, break up one small patch of hard ground. If a thorn is an addiction, do not do it alone. Bring a supporter.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God calls people to prepare the ground, and gives them the choice to remove what chokes growth.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
Even at its lowest possible energy, a quantum system is not at zero.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 2:17–33 treats the Sabbath as a sign set into the first week of creation.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What is hard and packed in my life right now?

2. What are the thorns that choke what I want to grow?

3. What is one I can remove with help today?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Do one soil job: clear one surface, remove one thorn, or break up one small patch of hard ground. If the thorn is a substance or a person, involve a supporter or helpline first.

- [ ] Name one thorn or one patch of hard ground.
- [ ] Take one concrete step: clear it, remove it, or ask for help.
- [ ] If it is bigger than you, call a supporter or helpline today.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Lord, my ground is hard and there are thorns in it. Show me what to clear. Give me the strength to do what I can, and the humility to ask for help with what I cannot. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can prepare the ground before I plant.

Aligned Light

John 8:12; Ephesians 5:8–10

“Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, ‘I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.’” (John 8:12, ESV)

GOD’S ORIGINAL INTENT

God’s creation began with light, and the New Testament calls those who follow Christ children of light, living in the open with nothing to perform.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD

Wisdom of Solomon 7:26 calls wisdom a reflection of eternal light and a spotless mirror of the working of God. 7:29 says she is more beautiful than the sun.

QUANTUM PICTURE (AN ANALOGY, NOT A PROOF)

A laser works because its light waves are all in step with each other, or “coherent.” Ordinary lamp light scatters in every direction. Light that is lined up can be focused, carry a signal across the ocean, or cut metal.

Where this picture stops: Do not read this as “aligned thoughts make aligned reality.” That is not what physics says. The picture is only about integrity: the same direction in what you say, what you do, and where you walk.

THIS WEEK’S GOAL

Close the gap between what you say you value and how you spend your day, one small honest alignment at a time.

One thing I will carry into next week:

Wednesday, January 6, 2027

Solar Walk · Month 3, Day 11 of 31 | Week 11 · Day 1 of 7 | Fourth Day: The Lights Are Set

Ethiopian: Tahsas 28, 2019 E.C.

DAY 71 OF 91

I Am the Light of the World

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name five things you can see. Eyes open is fine. Pray: Lord, I am here. Meet me here.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

John 8:12

"Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, 'I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.'" (John 8:12, ESV)

Jesus says this during the Feast of Booths (John 7–8), which later Jewish sources describe as a festival with great lamps lit in the temple courts. He does not say His followers will never face dark places. He says they will not walk in darkness, because they have the light of life. This week is about alignment, about what you say you value and how you actually live. Not shame, only information. Where is there a gap, and what would close it a little?

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
Jesus is the light that orients everything, and following Him means walking in what He shows.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
A laser works because its light waves are all in step. Lined-up light can be focused and travel far. This is a picture of integrity, not a claim that thoughts shape reality.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Wisdom of Solomon 7:26 calls wisdom a reflection of eternal light.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What do I say I value most?

2. Where does how I spend my time or energy not match that?

3. What is one small way to close that gap?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Write your top three values. Next to each, write one thing you did this week that matched it, and one gap. Pick one gap to close a little.

- [ ] Write three values.
- [ ] Beside each, write a match and a gap.
- [ ] Choose one gap and write one small step.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Jesus, You are the light of the world. Show me where my life and my values do not match. Do not shame me. Show me one small step toward walking in Your light. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can walk in the light one step at a time.

Thursday, January 7, 2027

Solar Walk · Month 3, Day 12 of 31 | Week 11 · Day 2 of 7 | Fifth Day: Water and Sky | Ethiopian: Tahsas 29, 2019 E.C.

DAY 72 OF 91

Walk as Children of Light

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your feet into the floor and take three slow breaths, out longer than in. Pray: God, You are nearer than my next breath.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Ephesians 5:8–10

"for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light." (Eph. 5:8, ESV)

Paul says "you were darkness" and "now you are light in the Lord," and that "walk" means a way of living, step by step. He is writing to people with real pasts. He does not erase the past. He says they are different now, and invites them to live like it. I know why you learned to survive the way you did. Walking as a child of light means looking at what that costs now, with God's help and no shame. Today, walk, literally, in daylight if you can.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God changes the identity first, and then invites a new way of walking.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE
Morning light helps set the body's internal clock. The same sun that made the world is helping your body find its rhythm.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Wisdom of Solomon 7:26 calls wisdom a reflection of eternal light and a spotless mirror of the working of God.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What did "darkness" look like in my past, without shame?

2. What does "light" look like in my life now?

3. What would one more step of walking in the light look like?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Take a ten-minute walk in daylight if you can. If not, sit by a window. Read Ephesians 5:8–10 first, and notice what your body does in the light.

- [ ] Read Ephesians 5:8–10.
- [ ] Walk or sit in daylight for ten minutes.
- [ ] Write one sentence on what you noticed.

5 · SUPPLICATION
God, I was in the dark, and now You call me light. Help me walk like it, one honest step at a time. Be patient with me, and let me feel the sun on my face. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I am light in the Lord, and I can walk like it.

Solar Walk · Month 3, Day 13 of 31 | Week 11 · Day 3 of 7 | Sixth Day: Made for Each Other | Ethiopian: Tahsas 30, 2019 E.C.

DAY 73 OF 91

Let Your Light Shine

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Hold something warm or cool and notice its weight and texture. Pray: Jesus, be with me in this room.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Matthew 5:14–16

"In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven." (Matt. 5:16, ESV)

Jesus calls His followers the light of the world, and says a city on a hill cannot be hidden. The purpose is that others see good works and glorify God, so it is not about performing or being impressive. A lamp does not strain to shine. It does what lamps do. Fridays are for connection and practical work, so try a quiet good deed today: something small and unseen, for someone else. Do not post it. Let it be for God and the other person.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
Light in Scripture points to God, and it shows up in ordinary good deeds, not in performance.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
An ordinary lamp scatters light in every direction, and a laser focuses it. A focused small act can travel farther than a scattered big one.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Wisdom of Solomon 7:26 calls wisdom a reflection of eternal light and a spotless mirror of the working of God.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. When has someone's quiet kindness helped me?

2. What small good deed could I do for someone today?

3. How does it feel to do good without being seen?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Do one quiet, unseen good deed for someone: leave a note, pay a small bill, pick something up for them. Do not post about it.

- [ ] Think of one person who could use a kindness.
- [ ] Choose a small deed that costs little.
- [ ] Do it quietly. Do not post about it or tell anyone.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Lord, I want my light to point to You, not to me. Show me one small kindness today. Let me do it without needing credit, and let it be for Your glory. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

My small light is not wasted.

Solar Walk · Month 3, Day 14 of 31 | Week 11 · Day 4 of 7 | Seventh Day: Sabbath

Ethiopian: Tir 1, 2019 E.C.

DAY 74 OF 91

No Variation, No Shadow

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.

Ground: Rest a hand on your chest, or on a pet if you have one, and feel something steady. Pray: Father, I am Yours, resting or not.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

James 1:17

"Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change." (James 1:17, ESV)

James calls God the "Father of lights," and says there is no shadow due to change with Him. The sun moves, shadows shift, and moods change. God does not. In a body that lives on alert, that steadiness can be hard to feel. Today, on a Sabbath, let some real light on your skin, if it is safe. Sit in the sun or by a window for ten minutes. You are not earning anything. You are just receiving a good gift from above.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT

God is constant light, and good gifts come from Him.

QUANTUM PICTURE · PHYSICS NOTE

The sun shines because hydrogen nuclei fuse into helium in its core, and that fusion depends on quantum tunneling. We are warmed by a quantum effect every day.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD

Wisdom of Solomon 7:26 calls wisdom a reflection of eternal light and a spotless mirror of the working of God.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What good gift have I received lately that I did not notice?

2. What does it mean to me that God does not change?

3. What is hard about receiving a gift without earning it?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Sit in sunlight or by a bright window for ten minutes. Do nothing else. Notice the warmth and name one good gift.

- [ ] Find a sunny spot where you feel safe.
- [ ] Sit for ten minutes with no task.
- [ ] Name one good gift out loud.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Father of lights, You do not change. Let me receive what You give today without trying to earn it. Warm what is cold in me, and let me rest in Your steadiness. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

God's light does not change, and I can rest in it.

Solar Walk · Month 3, Day 15 of 31 | Week 11 · Day 5 of 7 | First Day: Let There Be Light | Ethiopian: Tir 2, 2019 E.C.

DAY 75 OF 91

In Your Light We See Light

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Look toward the nearest light or window and let your shoulders drop. Pray: Spirit of God, make this hour Yours.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Psalm 36:7–9

"For with you is the fountain of life; in your light do we see light." (Ps. 36:9, ESV)

In my own story, I know what it means to go looking for another plug. In my testimony I call God the OG Plug, a street phrase I turn toward the Source, and I want to be clear it is my metaphor, not a Bible title. What it points to is real: the old plug gave a little and took more, and the Source is a fountain that does not run dry. Psalm 36 says it plainly. With God is the fountain of life. Today we compare what the old source promised with what the true Source gives.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God is the true source of life and light, and He gives without taking more than He gives.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
A laser works because its light waves are all in step with each other, or "coherent." Ordinary lamp light scatters in every direction.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Wisdom of Solomon 7:26 calls wisdom a reflection of eternal light and a spotless mirror of the working of God.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What did my old source give me, and what did it take?

2. What do I actually need that I was looking for?

3. What would it look like to go to the Source for it?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Make two columns: "What the old plug gave, and what it took" and "What the Source gives." Then write one thing you need and one way to ask God for it.

- [ ] Write what the old plug gave you, and what it took.
- [ ] Write what you read in Psalm 36:7–9 that the Source gives.
- [ ] Pick one need and write a one-line request to God.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, I went looking for life in places that took more than they gave. You are the fountain. Teach me to come to You with what I need. Fill what is empty, and let me drink. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

The Source gives more than it takes.

DAY 76 OF 91

The Longest Night

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your palms together for ten seconds, then let go. Pray: Lord, stand beside me while I tell the truth.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Psalm 30:5

"For his anger is but for a moment, and his favor is for a lifetime. Weeping may tarry for the night, but joy comes with the morning." (Ps. 30:5, ESV)

The winter solstice, around December 21 in the Northern Hemisphere, is the shortest day and longest night of the year, and after it the days get longer. In the Southern Hemisphere it is the opposite, so if that is you, flip this. David wrote Psalm 30 after being rescued, and he says weeping may tarry for the night. "Tarry" means it can stay a while. He does not say it is short. Monday is for boundaries and honesty, so be honest about the dark you are in. You do not have to rush it. Daylight is coming back, slowly.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God honors honest weeping, and He is faithful to bring morning.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
A laser works because its light waves are all in step with each other, or "coherent." Ordinary lamp light scatters in every direction.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Wisdom of Solomon 7:26 calls wisdom a reflection of eternal light and a spotless mirror of the working of God.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What is my longest night right now?

2. What would it mean to let the weeping stay as long as it needs?

3. What small sign of returning light can I look for?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Light a lamp at dusk. Say one true thing about the dark you are in. Then name one small sign that light is returning.

- [ ] At dusk, turn on a lamp or light a candle.
- [ ] Say one true thing about the dark.
- [ ] Name one small sign that light is returning.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, this is a long night. I will not pretend it is short. Stay with me in it, and let me see one small sign that morning is coming. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

Morning comes, and I do not have to rush the night.

Solar Walk · Month 3, Day 17 of 31 | Week 11 · Day 7 of 7 | Third Day: Ground and Vine

Ethiopian: Tir 4, 2019 E.C.

DAY 77 OF 91

Bring It to the Light

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name three sounds you can hear, near or far. Pray: God, steady my hands for what is ahead.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
John 3:19–21

"But whoever does what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his works have been carried out in God." (John 3:21, ESV)

Some of us hide things because they are shameful, and some because they were never ours, and we kept them anyway. Bringing something to the light is not the same as being exposed. It means telling someone who is safe. The Bible says, "Confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed" (James 5:16). Pick the person with care: a counselor, sponsor, pastor, or friend who has earned your trust. Never confess to someone who abuses or controls you.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God invites truth into the light so that healing can start, and He provides safe people for it.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
A laser works because its light waves are all in step with each other, or "coherent." Ordinary lamp light scatters in every direction.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Wisdom of Solomon 7:26 calls wisdom a reflection of eternal light and a spotless mirror of the working of God.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What am I carrying in secret?

2. Who has earned the right to hear it?

3. What would I need in order to feel safe saying it?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Choose one thing to bring to the light and one safe person. Tell them, or schedule the time. If you are not ready, write down what you would say.

- [ ] Choose one thing to bring to the light.
- [ ] Choose one safe person: counselor, sponsor, pastor, trusted friend.
- [ ] Tell them, or schedule it. If you are not ready, write what you would say.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, I have hidden things for a long time. Help me tell the truth to someone safe. Give me courage, and protect me from anyone who would use it against me. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can bring hidden things into the light with a safe person.

Vine and Branch

John 15:1–8; Isaiah 27:2–3

“I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser.” (John 15:1, ESV)

GOD’S ORIGINAL INTENT

God’s original assignment was a garden to tend and keep. The vineyard is where being tended and tending others meet.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD

Jubilees 7:1 says Noah planted a vineyard. Genesis 9:20–21 says that same vineyard led to his fall, which is an honest reminder that good things can be misused. Sirach 24:17 has Wisdom say, “Like the vine I bud forth delights.”

QUANTUM PICTURE (AN ANALOGY, NOT A PROOF)

A leaf catches photons and turns them into stored chemical energy. That is photosynthesis. Solar panels use a related effect: a photon knocks an electron loose and makes current. Researchers are still studying whether quantum effects help plants capture light so efficiently.

Where this picture stops: A leaf proves nothing about God by itself. John 15 is the teaching. The leaf is just a picture that fruit comes from staying connected to a source, not from straining.

THIS WEEK’S GOAL

Stay connected to the Source, name what needs pruning, and tend your own vineyard first.

DAY 78 OF 91

Abide

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name five things you can see. Eyes open is fine. Pray: Lord, I am here. Meet me here.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
John 15:4–5

"Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me." (John 15:4, ESV)

Jesus says He is the vine, and we are the branches. A branch does not strain to produce grapes. It stays connected, and fruit is what happens. For someone who has lived on hustle, this is hard to hear, because it sounds too easy. Abiding is not passive, though. It is staying in touch with the Source: prayer, Scripture, community. In my own story the old plug promised what only the Source can give. This week we stay with the vine and tend the vineyard, without promising instant fruit.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God's design for fruit is connection to Him. It does not come from striving.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
A leaf catches photons and turns them into stored energy. It does not produce light. It stays turned toward it. Researchers are still studying whether quantum effects help plants capture light so efficiently.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Jubilees 7:1 says Noah planted a vineyard. Sirach 24:17 has wisdom say, "Like the vine I bud forth delights."

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. Where do I try to produce fruit by straining?

2. What does staying connected to Jesus look like in a normal day?

3. What would I do differently if I believed fruit came from abiding?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Choose one way to stay connected today: five minutes of Scripture, a short prayer at a set time, or a call to someone who helps you stay close to God. Do it once.

- [ ] Read John 15:1–8.
- [ ] Choose one way to abide: Scripture, prayer, or a call to a spiritual support.
- [ ] Do it once today, and write one sentence on how it felt.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Jesus, I want to stay connected. I am tired of straining. Teach me to abide. Let fruit come in its time, and let me not measure it before then. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I do not have to strain. I can abide.

DAY 79 OF 91

Good News for the Night Shift

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your feet into the floor and take three slow breaths, out longer than in. Pray: God, You are nearer than my next breath.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Luke 2:8–14

"And the angel said to them, 'Fear not, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people.'" (Luke 2:10, ESV)

At Christmastime, remember that the first people told about Jesus' birth were shepherds out in the fields at night, working. They were not the powerful or the polished. And the angel's first words were "Fear not." If this holiday is heavy, if there is an empty chair, family that is not safe, or a strong pull toward old habits, you are not alone and you are not behind. Thursdays in this book are body days, so slow down. Breathe, plan your exit if you need one, and let the good news be for you too.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God announced His coming first to ordinary workers in the night, and He does not leave the weary out.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
A leaf catches photons and turns them into stored chemical energy.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 7:1 says Noah planted a vineyard.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What is hard about this day for me?

2. What does "good news of great joy for all people" mean if I am included?

3. What do I need tonight to feel okay?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Take five slow breaths with a longer breath out. Make an exit plan for tonight: a ride, a time limit, a person to call. Keep a safe person's number handy.

- [ ] Take five slow breaths. Stop if it is too much.
- [ ] Write your plan: how you will leave if you need to, and who you will call.
- [ ] Put the number of one safe person in your phone or wallet. 988 is available anytime in the US.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, tonight is heavy and tender. I am one of the people You came for. Be near me. Keep me safe, and let me hear "fear not" as if it were said to me. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

The good news is for me too.

God With Us

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Hold something warm or cool and notice its weight and texture. Pray: Jesus, be with me in this room.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

John 1:14

"And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth." (John 1:14, ESV)

John says the Word became flesh and "dwelt among us." The word for dwelt is the word for pitching a tent. God did not stay far away and send instructions. He moved in. He came into a world with real hunger, danger, and displacement, and was born to a family that soon became refugees (Matt. 2). God with us does not wait for perfect rooms. If this season is hard, that is not a failure of Christmas. Let one small thing be a gift: a note, a call, a gift you receive.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God's answer to our need is presence. He came near.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
A leaf catches photons and turns them into stored chemical energy.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 7:1 says Noah planted a vineyard.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What does it mean that God pitched a tent in the middle of a hard world?

2. Where do I need God with me today?

3. What small gift could I give or receive?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Give or receive one small gift today: a note, a call, a cup of coffee, a few words of thanks. Let it be enough.

- [ ] Choose one small gift to give, or one you can receive.
- [ ] Do it. Keep it simple.
- [ ] Say a short thank-you to God.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Jesus, You came into the middle of it. Come into mine today. Where I am lonely, be near. Where I am grieving, hold me. Let me receive what is good, and give what I can. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

God came near. I am not alone today.

DAY 81 OF 91

He Restores My Soul

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Rest a hand on your chest, or on a pet if you have one, and feel something steady. Pray: Father, I am Yours, resting or not.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Psalm 23:1–3

"He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters. He restores my soul." (Ps. 23:2–3, ESV)

Rest the day after a big day. Notice who is doing the work in this psalm: "He makes me lie down. He leads me. He restores." The shepherd does it. Shepherds say sheep will not lie down if they are afraid, hungry, or bothered by pests, so a good shepherd has to make the field safe first. If you cannot lie down yet, it may be that something is not safe yet, and that is worth noticing without shame. Today, let the Shepherd do the work. Rest, and eat leftovers.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God restores souls, and He prepares the ground for rest before asking us to rest.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
A leaf catches photons and turns them into stored chemical energy.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 7:1 says Noah planted a vineyard.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What would make me feel safe enough to lie down?

2. What do I need restored: sleep, hope, trust, energy?

3. What does it mean to let someone else do the work?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Rest today: lie down, take a bath, or sit by still water or something calm. Eat something easy. Do not catch up on anything.

- [ ] Choose a calm place to rest.
- [ ] Rest for as long as you can, even in short pieces.
- [ ] Eat something simple and easy.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Shepherd, You make the field safe and You restore my soul. I will let You do the work today. Hold what I cannot hold, and let me rest. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

The Shepherd restores. I can rest.

Keeper of the Vineyard

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Look toward the nearest light or window and let your shoulders drop. Pray: Spirit of God, make this hour Yours.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Isaiah 27:2–3

"In that day, 'A pleasant vineyard, sing of it! I, the LORD, am its keeper; every moment I water it. Lest anyone harm it, I keep it night and day.'" (Isa. 27:2–3, ESV)

God calls His people a pleasant vineyard and says He keeps and waters it night and day. Some of us tended other people's vineyards and never our own. The Song of Songs has a line about that: "my own vineyard I have not kept!" (Song 1:6). Today is a day of worship, so receive this: you have a Keeper. Then write what in you needs tending. Not what is wrong with you. What needs watering, fencing, or care.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God is the keeper of the vineyard. He waters it and protects it, and He invites us to tend what He has given.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
A leaf catches photons and turns them into stored chemical energy.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 7:1 says Noah planted a vineyard.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. Whose vineyard have I been tending instead of mine?

2. What in me needs watering?

3. What does it mean to have a Keeper?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Write a Vineyard Page: draw a simple vineyard. Label three rows: what needs water, what needs a fence, and what needs patience. Pray Isaiah 27:2–3 over it.

- [ ] Draw a simple vineyard with three rows.
- [ ] Label rows: Water, Fence, Patience.
- [ ] Write one thing in each row and read Isaiah 27:2–3 over them.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Lord, You are the keeper of the vineyard. I tended so many others and neglected my own. Water what is dry, fence what is vulnerable, and give me patience for what is growing. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I have a Keeper, and my vineyard is being tended.

Catch the Little Foxes

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.

Ground: Press your palms together for ten seconds, then let go. Pray: Lord, stand beside me while I tell the truth.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

Song of Solomon 2:15

"Catch the foxes for us, the little foxes that spoil the vineyards, for our vineyards are in blossom." (Song 2:15, ESV)

This line comes from a love poem, and it is about small things that spoil what is in bloom. For us, the little foxes are rarely huge. A skipped meal, one late night, one old contact, one "just once." Big things announce themselves. Little foxes sneak. Monday is a boundary day, so we protect the blossoms. Make a list of your little foxes, then pick one and build a fence around it.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT

God cares about what is blooming, and small guardrails protect it.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY

A leaf catches photons and turns them into stored chemical energy.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD

Jubilees 7:1 says Noah planted a vineyard.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What small things have started to creep back in?

2. Which little fox is the most dangerous right now?

3. What fence could I put around it?

4 · SOFT ACTION

List five little foxes. Choose one and write a specific fence for it: a rule, a person you will tell, a change to your routine.

- [ ] Write five little foxes. They can be small and ordinary.
- [ ] Circle the one that worries you most.
- [ ] Write a fence for it and tell one safe person.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Lord, my vineyard is in blossom and the little foxes are close. Show me what to guard. Give me a fence I can keep, and let me not be ashamed to ask for help. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can guard what is blooming.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
John 15:2

"Every branch of mine that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit." (John 15:2, ESV)

Pruning scares people, and with reason. Some of us were hurt, and someone told us it was for our good. That is not the same as what Jesus describes. A vinedresser prunes in order to grow fruit, because he wants the vine to flourish, not to hurt it. (Some translators render "takes away" as "lifts up," as a vinedresser lifts a fallen branch onto the trellis, and scholars debate it.) Noah planted a vineyard too, and Genesis 9:20–21 tells honestly how a vineyard's fruit led to his fall. A good thing can be misused. Today, choose one thing to cut, or lift.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God prunes for fruit, not for punishment, and good things need care to stay good.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
A solar cell works when a photon knocks an electron loose and makes current. The material has to be shaped carefully for it to work. Shaping can be a form of care.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Jubilees 7:1 says Noah planted a vineyard. Genesis 9:20–21 tells honestly what happened next.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What has been done to me in the name of "for your own good"?

2. What in my life is not producing fruit, or is hurting what is?

3. What would careful pruning look like, instead of punishment?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Choose one thing to cut back or lift up: a habit, a commitment, a contact, or a branch that needs support. Write why, in a sentence, without shame.

- [ ] Name one thing to prune.
- [ ] Write: "I am cutting or lifting ____ so that ____ can grow."
- [ ] Take one small step on it today.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Vinedresser, I have known pain that was called pruning. Show me the difference. Prune what needs to be cut, with care, and lift what needs lifting. Let fruit come in its time. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

God prunes for fruit, not for punishment.

From Possible to Chosen

Deuteronomy 30:19; Joshua 24:15

“I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse. Therefore choose life, that you and your offspring may live.” (Deut. 30:19, ESV)

GOD’S ORIGINAL INTENT

God sets before people real choices and invites them to choose life. He does not make the choice for you and He does not leave you alone in it.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD

Jubilees 1:29 looks ahead to a day of new creation, when heaven and earth and all their creatures are renewed. It sits alongside Revelation 21:5.

QUANTUM PICTURE (AN ANALOGY, NOT A PROOF)

In the standard textbook picture of quantum mechanics, a particle before measurement is described as a mix of possible outcomes with different probabilities. When it is measured, one outcome is recorded. “Measurement” here means physical interaction, not a person’s consciousness.

Where this picture stops: Interpretations of what measurement really is are debated by physicists. The picture never means “you create reality by thinking,” and no choice guarantees an outcome. Real choices still run into real constraints.

THIS WEEK’S GOAL

Look back with honesty, choose what comes next on purpose, and close this season with a blessing.

Wednesday, January 20, 2027

Solar Walk · Month 3, Day 25 of 31 | Week 13 · Day 1 of 7 | Fourth Day: The Lights Are Set

Ethiopian: Tir 12, 2019 E.C.

DAY 85 OF 91

Choose Life

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name five things you can see. Eyes open is fine. Pray: Lord, I am here. Meet me here.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Deuteronomy 30:15–20

"I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse. Therefore choose life, that you and your offspring may live." (Deut. 30:19, ESV)

Moses is speaking to people about to enter the land, and he sets real choices in front of them. Verse 20 says choosing life means loving the LORD, obeying his voice, and holding fast to him. Choice is not the same as willpower. It is a direction, and God stays beside you in it. This is the last week of the season. Many possibilities are open, and each real choice becomes something definite. Today pick three things you are choosing for the next season.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God sets real choices before people and invites them to choose life, and He does not choose for us or leave us alone.

QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
In the standard textbook picture, a particle before measurement is described as a mix of possibilities, and measuring it gives one result. Interpretations differ, and no choice guarantees an outcome.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD
Jubilees 1:29 looks ahead to a day of new creation.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What are the real choices in front of me?

2. What does choosing life look like in a specific area?

3. What support would make that choice more likely to hold?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Write three things you are choosing for the next season. Under each, write one support that will help you hold it.

- [ ] Write three choices for the next season.
- [ ] Under each, write one support.
- [ ] Share them with one safe person, if you can.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, You set life and death before me and You invite me to choose life. Help me choose with open eyes. Be with me in every choice, and send people to help me hold on. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can choose life, and I do not choose alone.

Thursday, January 21, 2027

Solar Walk · Month 3, Day 26 of 31 | Week 13 · Day 2 of 7 | Fifth Day: Water and Sky | Ethiopian: Tir 13, 2019 E.C.

DAY 86 OF 91

Forgetting What Lies Behind

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your feet into the floor and take three slow breaths, out longer than in. Pray: God, You are nearer than my next breath.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Philippians 3:13–14

"Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus." (Phil. 3:13–14, ESV)

Paul is not saying to deny your past or act like it did not happen. "Forgetting" here is about not being held by it. He also starts with "I do not consider that I have made it my own." He had not arrived either. A kind look back counts: five survival wins, and what you are leaving behind. Some nights, like New Year's Eve, are high-risk for many. Plan for them: who you will be with, what you will do, who you will call. A safe, quiet night is a good night.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God invites us to release what holds us, and to press on without having to be finished.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
In the standard textbook picture of quantum mechanics, a particle before measurement is described as a mix of possible outcomes with different probabilities.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 1:29 looks ahead to a day of new creation, when heaven and earth and all their creatures are renewed.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What are five things I survived this year?

2. What do I want to leave behind?

3. What do I need tonight to stay safe and steady?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Write five survival wins from this season. Write one thing you are leaving behind, and keep or tear it up. Make a safe plan for tonight.

- [ ] Write five survival wins. Include small ones.
- [ ] Write one thing you are leaving behind.
- [ ] Write your plan for tonight: where you will be, who you will call, how you will leave if you need to.

5 · SUPPLICATION
God, I did not arrive, and You know it. Thank You for what I survived. Help me release what I am carrying and press on. Keep me safe tonight. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can look back kindly and press on.

Solar Walk · Month 3, Day 27 of 31 | Week 13 · Day 3 of 7 | Sixth Day: Made for Each Other

Ethiopian: Tir 14, 2019 E.C.

DAY 87 OF 91

All Things New

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Hold something warm or cool and notice its weight and texture. Pray: Jesus, be with me in this room.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

Revelation 21:5

"And he who was seated on the throne said, 'Behold, I am making all things new.'" (Rev. 21:5, ESV)

"I am making all things new" is present tense, and it is spoken at the end of the book, about the end of all things. It does not say this year will be perfect or that every wound will heal on a schedule. It says God is making things new. Instead of resolutions, which are often shaming, pick three new practices. Small and repeated. Tell one person. Let them be seeds, not promises.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT

God's story ends with renewal, and He is already at work making things new.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY

In the standard textbook picture of quantum mechanics, a particle before measurement is described as a mix of possible outcomes with different probabilities.

ETHIOPIAN CANON THREAD

Jubilees 1:29 looks ahead to a day of new creation, when heaven and earth are renewed.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What would I like to be new this year?

2. What is one small practice I could begin?

3. What is one old thing I am ready to set down?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Write three new practices, not resolutions: small, specific, repeatable. Tell one person.

- [ ] Write three small practices, such as a morning walk, a weekly meeting, a nightly prayer.
- [ ] For each, write when and where you will do it.
- [ ] Tell one safe person.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, You are making all things new. I want to be part of it. Give me small practices I can keep. Let this year be one of steady growth, and let me not measure it by anyone else's. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

God is making things new, and I can begin small.

Solar Walk · Month 3, Day 28 of 31 | Week 13 · Day 4 of 7 | Seventh Day: Sabbath

Ethiopian: Tir 15, 2019 E.C.

DAY 88 OF 91

The Keeper of Your Going Out

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.

Ground: Rest a hand on your chest, or on a pet if you have one, and feel something steady. Pray: Father, I am Yours, resting or not.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING

Psalm 121:7–8

"The LORD will keep you from all evil; he will keep your life. The LORD will keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth and forevermore." (Ps. 121:7–8, ESV)

Psalm 121 is a song for travelers going up to Jerusalem, and it is about being kept on the road. It does not promise nothing bad will happen. It says the Lord keeps your life. On a Sabbath, rest in the idea that you have a Keeper for your going out and your coming in. That is practical too: think about your regular routes, times, and routines, and ask where you need more safety. Where do you go, and who knows where you are?

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT

God keeps His people on the road, in their going out and coming in.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY

In the standard textbook picture of quantum mechanics, a particle before measurement is described as a mix of possible outcomes with different probabilities.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD

Jubilees 1:29 looks ahead to a day of new creation, when heaven and earth and all their creatures are renewed.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What do I need to be kept from or through?

2. Where do I feel least safe when I go out?

3. Who knows where I am?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Rest today. Then write your going out and coming in: where you go regularly, who knows, and one change that would make it safer.

- [ ] Read Psalm 121.
- [ ] Write your regular routes and who knows about them.
- [ ] Write one safety change, and rest the rest of the day.

5 · SUPPLICATION

Lord, You keep my going out and my coming in. Keep my life. Show me where I need to be wiser, and let me rest in Your keeping. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

The Lord keeps my going out and my coming in.

Sunday, January 24, 2027

DAY 89 OF 91

Choose This Day

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Look toward the nearest light or window and let your shoulders drop. Pray: Spirit of God, make this hour Yours.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Joshua 24:14–15

"And if it is evil in your eyes to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve . . . But as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD." (Josh. 24:15, ESV)

Joshua stands at the end of his life and tells the people to choose. Then he says what he will do. It is first person: as for me. You cannot choose for anyone else. Not for your family, your partner, or your friends. You can only say, "As for me." Today is Sunday, a day for worship, so write your "as for me" statement. Three lines, honest, and small enough to keep. If your "house" is just you and your dog, that is a house.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God invites people to make a first-person choice to serve Him, and to say it out loud.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
In the standard textbook picture of quantum mechanics, a particle before measurement is described as a mix of possible outcomes with different probabilities.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 1:29 looks ahead to a day of new creation, when heaven and earth and all their creatures are renewed.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What do I want to say "as for me" about?

2. What does "serve the LORD" look like in a normal day for me?

3. Who can I tell about my choice?

4 · SOFT ACTION

Write three "As for me" lines. Read them out loud. Put them somewhere you will see.

- [ ] Write: "As for me and my house, we will ____" three times, with different endings.
- [ ] Read them out loud to God.
- [ ] Put the page where you will see it.

5 · SUPPLICATION

God, I choose You today, as best I know how. I cannot choose for anyone else, but I can say, as for me. Help me keep it, and forgive me when I do not. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

As for me, I will serve the LORD.

DAY 90 OF 91

Ponder the Path

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Press your palms together for ten seconds, then let go. Pray: Lord, stand beside me while I tell the truth.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Proverbs 4:25–27

"Ponder the path of your feet; then all your ways will be sure." (Prov. 4:26, ESV)

Proverbs says to look straight ahead, and to ponder the path of your feet. That is a practical image: pay attention to where you are actually stepping. Monday is a boundary day, and we are going to build boundaries for the next season. A yes-list and a no-list. The no-list is not punishment. It protects the path. The yes-list is not a to-do list. It is what you are walking toward. Keep both short enough to remember.

GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT
God invites us to consider our steps, and to make wise choices about where we go.

THIS WEEK'S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
In the standard textbook picture of quantum mechanics, a particle before measurement is described as a mix of possible outcomes with different probabilities.

THIS WEEK'S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 1:29 looks ahead to a day of new creation, when heaven and earth and all their creatures are renewed.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What do I want to say no to in the next season?

2. What do I want to say yes to?

3. Who could help me keep both?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Write a No-List of three things and a Yes-List of three things for the next season. Keep both short. Share them with a supporter.

- [ ] Write three no's.
- [ ] Write three things you are saying yes to.
- [ ] Share them with one safe person.

5 · SUPPLICATION
Lord, I want to ponder the path of my feet. Show me what to leave and what to walk toward. Give me wisdom for the next season, and people to walk it with. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I can protect my path and walk toward what is good.

DAY 91 OF 91

The Blessing

1 · SANCTUARY optional. Skip it or swap in any anchor that works for you.
Ground: Name three sounds you can hear, near or far. Pray: God, steady my hands for what is ahead.

2 · SCRIPTURE & TEACHING
Numbers 6:24–26

“The LORD bless you and keep you; the LORD make his face to shine upon you and be gracious to you; the LORD lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace.” (Num. 6:24–26, ESV)

This is the last day of the season, the thirty-first day of Month 3. God gave Moses these words for Aaron to speak over the people. It begins with blessing and keeping and ends with peace, and in between God’s face shines on them. We started this book with light, and we end with a face shining. This is a blessing, not a prediction of how your life will go. Take it as it is: a blessing spoken over you. Tomorrow is not the end. The next season can begin Wednesday, January 27, 2027.

GOD’S ORIGINAL INTENT
God’s blessing is light, grace, and peace, spoken over His people.

THIS WEEK’S QUANTUM PICTURE · ANALOGY
In the standard textbook picture of quantum mechanics, a particle before measurement is described as a mix of possible outcomes with different probabilities.

THIS WEEK’S CANON THREAD
Jubilees 1:29 looks ahead to a day of new creation, when heaven and earth and all their creatures are renewed.

3 · SACRED REFLECTION

1. What am I leaving this season with that I did not have before?

2. What do I most want to keep?

3. What would I say over my own next season?

4 · SOFT ACTION
Read the blessing out loud over yourself. Then look back through the book, mark three days that mattered, and decide what comes next.

- [ ] Read Numbers 6:24–26 out loud, slowly.
- [ ] Flip through the book and mark three days that mattered.
- [ ] Decide on your next step, and write it on the final reflection page.

5 · SUPPLICATION
Lord, bless me and keep me. Make Your face shine on me and be gracious to me. Lift up Your countenance upon me and give me peace. Thank You for ninety-one days. Take me into the next season. Amen.

IN MY OWN WORDS TO GOD

I am blessed and kept, and the next season can begin.

Final Reflection

There are no wrong answers. Write what is true. If a prompt is too heavy today, skip it.

What did these ninety-one days teach me about God, and about me?

Where did I tell the truth for the first time? What was it like?

What am I still grieving or angry about? What do I need next for that?

Which day or page do I want to return to, and why?

Progress Review

This is not a grade. It is information. Mark the weeks you showed up to, even partly, and write one thing each taught you.

Next-Step Challenge

One season ends and another can begin. In the 364-day pattern, the next 91-day season starts on a Wednesday, which is January 27, 2027. You can repeat this book, start another, or simply keep the rhythm. Choose what is realistic. Do not choose what looks impressive.

MY SAFETY AND SUPPORT PLAN

Three people or numbers I can call, one place I can go, and one thing I will do if a craving or a crisis hits.

LETTER TO THE PERSON I WAS ON OCTOBER 24

Challenge: Tell one safe person today what you finished. Then pick the day you will begin your next step and write it here: _____.

Closing Prayer

Lord, I came into this season tired, and You met me here. Thank You for the lights You hung before I ever needed them, and for the light that has not been overcome by any dark I have walked through.

Thank You for the days I showed up, and the days I could only open the book. Thank You for what I told the truth about, and for the people You sent. Where I fell, thank You for helping me rise. Where I am still in the middle of it, stay close.

Keep my body, my mind, and my heart. Give me rest that is real and safe people to walk with. Give me wisdom to ask for the help I need, from doctors, counselors, and friends, and the humility to take it.

Teach me to tend my vineyard. Water what is dry. Fence what is vulnerable. Prune what must be cut, with care and not with punishment. Let me abide in You, and let fruit come in its time. I will not measure it before then.

For everyone who is still on the floor tonight, and for those I love who did not make it out, I ask Your mercy. Show me one way to reach back. Make my small step useful to someone else.

The Lord bless me and keep me. The Lord make His face to shine upon me and be gracious to me. The Lord lift up His countenance upon me and give me peace. In the name of Jesus, amen.

The last paragraph is the blessing from Numbers 6:24–26 (ESV), prayed in the first person.

You survived. Now we rebuild.
