Welcome & Terms

WELCOME, FRIEND

You survived. Now we rebuild. These inserts are made to sit inside your study Bible and meet you where you are: tired, angry, grateful, or all three on the same Tuesday.

Some pages are tender. Some are loud. All of them are yours. Use what helps. Skip what does not. Come back when you can.

WHAT IS INSIDE (100 PAGES)

- 27 Women of the Word: one full page each, with verse map, reflection, and a soft step
- 13 Addiction & Recovery pages, with craving log, exit plan, 30 days of mercy, and a mercy plan for slips
- 11 Trauma & Healing pages: grounding, lament, window of tolerance, boundaries, rebuild
- 14 Topics Most Won't Talk About pages: abuse, church hurt, anger at God, doubt, despair, loss, divorce, shame, mental health, forgiveness, plus a Safety Plan and Both-Sides Check
- 4 verse maps, 3 S.O.A.P. layouts plus S.O.A.P. cards, 3 reflection pages, and a topic study template
- Journal pages, memory cards, declarations, a help-line page, 4 bookmark sheets, 3 sticker sheets, and 4 tabbed dividers

A WORD ON SCRIPTURE

This bundle gives references only. No verse text is reproduced, so you can write from the edition you trust. Book names, verse numbers, and which books are included vary between the Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahedo canon, Greek (LXX)-based editions, and Western Bibles. Psalm numbers in LXX-based editions typically run one behind Western numbering for much of the Psalter, and we show both. Your edition's table of contents is the final word.

Cite your edition, translator, book, chapter, and verse when you write. Western translations are useful to document omissions or differences, not to replace your tradition's text.

CHECK BOTH SIDES, INCLUDING MINE

Do not take my word for it. Open the source and check the pattern yourself. Search the exact phrase, read the verses around it, confirm the edition, translator, and date, and ask clergy or a trusted scholar about doctrine. Truth can withstand honest questions.

CARE NOTES

Trauma and recovery pages carry content notes. You never have to finish a page. Grounding steps are invitations: eyes open is fine, and pausing is always allowed. Struggling does not mean weak faith, and praying harder is not a replacement for care.

DISCLAIMER

How to Print, Cut, and Use

PRINT

- Paper: US Letter, 8.5 × 11 in. Insert pages are portrait with one insert centered on each page. Card, bookmark, and sticker sheets are landscape. Choose Actual Size or 100%, never Fit to Page.
- For inserts, 20–24 lb paper keeps your Bible from bulging. Cardstock (65–110 lb) is for bookmarks and dividers. Matte sticker paper is for sticker sheets.
- Do a test on page 4 first: the ruler squares should measure exactly 1 inch.
- Print single-sided for tip-in inserts so nothing shows through. Double-sided is fine for binders.

CUT

- Every page has a dashed cut line and corner ticks. Cut just inside the dashed line.
- A paper trimmer gives the cleanest edge. Scissors work. Keep text at least 0.3 in from any edge you trim.
- Each sheet's bottom edge note gives its finished size.

FIT TO YOUR BIBLE

- Inserts finish at 5 × 7.5 in, which suits most 6 × 9 in study Bibles. Hold one up to your page. If it is too big, trim up to 0.25 in from the outside edge. Text stays safe.
- Dotted turquoise stitching is decoration. It is not a cut line.

ATTACH

- Tip-in: run a thin line of repositionable tape or a dry glue stick along the binding edge of the insert, and press it to the gutter side of your page. Avoid wet glue. Bible paper wrinkles.
- Or tuck an insert in with a washi-tape tab, or punch it for a binder.
- Test on a spare page first.

BOOKMARKS AND STICKERS

- Bookmarks finish at 2 × 6 in. Punch the marked dot for a tassel.
- Stickers print on sticker paper. Cut on the dashed outlines. Cutting-machine files are not included.

TROUBLESHOOTING

- Edges cut off: your printer has a hard margin. This file uses a 0.25 in margin. Check Actual Size.
- Colors look different: screens and printers differ. Use best quality.
- Too much ink: print in grayscale or draft mode.

GO AT YOUR OWN PACE

No streaks. No shame. Open a page, do one small thing, close it. That counts. We survived. Now let's rebuild.

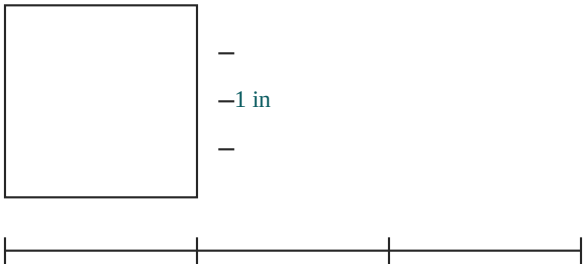

Size & Cut Guide

TEMPLATE	FINISHED SIZE	METRIC
Inserts (one per page)	5 × 7.5 in	127 × 190.5 mm
Divider with tab	5 × 7.5 in + 0.35 in tab	127 × 190.5 + 9 mm
S.O.A.P. cards (four per sheet)	5 × 3.5 in	127 × 89 mm
Memory verse cards (eight per sheet)	2.5 × 3.5 in	63.5 × 89 mm
Bookmarks (five per sheet)	2 × 6 in	51 × 152 mm
Round stickers (28 per sheet)	1.25 in diameter	32 mm

PRINT TEST (SHOULD MEASURE 1 IN)

If the square measures less than 1 inch, your printer scaled the page. Reprint at Actual Size or 100%. All text sits at least 0.3 in inside every cut line, so trimming up to 0.25 in from an outer edge is safe.

WHERE TO FIND IT

Pages 7–33

NOTES

7HE H0LY R3UP

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 1 OF 27

Eve

Genesis 2:18–3:24

Content note: shame, blame, and being cast out. This story has been used against women. Read it slowly.

WHERE WE MEET HER

The first woman in the garden story. The text names hiding, blame, and then God making clothing for both of them (Gen 3:21).

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

Where am I carrying blame that was never only mine?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Read Genesis 3:21 once. Write one word for what being covered feels like.
Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

NOTES

✂ Cut on the dashed line · Finished size 5 × 7.5 in (127 × 190.5 mm) · Print at 100% / Actual Size · One insert per page

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 2 OF 27

Sarah

Genesis 16:1–6; 18:9–15; 21:1–7

Content note: infertility, and harm done to another woman (Hagar).

WHERE WE MEET HER

Years of waiting and grief, a plan that hurt someone else, and a laugh she tried to hide (Gen 18:12–15).

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

Where has my pain landed on someone else, and what would repair look like?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Write a two-line honest prayer about one thing you handled badly. No fixing today. Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

NOTES

✂ Cut on the dashed line · Finished size 5 × 7.5 in (127 × 190.5 mm) · Print at 100% / Actual Size · One insert per page

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 3 OF 27

Hagar

Genesis 16:1–16; 21:8–21

Content note: enslavement, sexual use, abandonment, and a child in danger.

WHERE WE MEET HER

An Egyptian servant used and sent away. In the wilderness she gives God a name (Gen 16:13).

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

Who saw me when no one else did? What name would I give that moment?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Say “You see me” once, aloud or on paper. Thank God for one time you were seen. Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

NOTES

✂ Cut on the dashed line · Finished size 5 × 7.5 in (127 × 190.5 mm) · Print at 100% / Actual Size · One insert per page

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 4 OF 27

Leah

Genesis 29:16–35

Content note: being unloved, and being given in marriage through a family deception.

WHERE WE MEET HER

She names her sons out of ache. By the fourth, the name turns to praise (Gen 29:35).

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

What names have I given my pain? Has any of them changed?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

List two names you gave your pain. Beside one, write the name you want to practice. Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

NOTES

7HE H0LY R3UP

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 5 OF 27

Dinah

Genesis 34:1–31

Content note: sexual violence and revenge. Stop when you need to. Dinah's own words are not recorded.

WHERE WE MEET HER

Dinah is harmed, and the chapter follows her brothers' reaction. She never speaks.

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

Whose voice is missing from the stories I was told? What do I want said?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Write one sentence you wish someone had said to Dinah. Keep it or put it away. Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

NOTES

✂ Cut on the dashed line · Finished size 5 × 7.5 in (127 × 190.5 mm) · Print at 100% / Actual Size · One insert per page

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 6 OF 27

Tamar (Judah's daughter-in-law)

Genesis 38:1–30

Content note: widowhood, being denied protection, and a risky plan to survive.

WHERE WE MEET HER

Left unprotected after her husbands die, she acts to claim what she was owed. Judah later says she was more in the right than he was (Gen 38:26).

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

Where was I left unprotected? What did I do to survive, and who needs to hear it did not define me?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Finish this sentence: “I survived by _____.” Add one word of respect for yourself. Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

7HE H0LY R3UP

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 7 OF 27

Rahab

Joshua 2:1–24; 6:22–25

Content note: sex work and war. The text does not discuss coercion; read with care.

WHERE WE MEET HER

A woman on the margins who shelters the spies; her household is spared (Josh 6:25). Honored in Matt 1:5, Heb 11:31, and James 2:25.

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

What risk did I take for survival or for someone else? Who made room for me?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Thank one real person who made room for you. A text message counts.
Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

NOTES

✂ Cut on the dashed line · Finished size 5 × 7.5 in (127 × 190.5 mm) · Print at 100% / Actual Size · One insert per page

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 8 OF 27

Jephthah's Daughter

Judges 11:29–40

Content note: a vow, the loss of a daughter, and grief. The passage is painful. Skip it if you need to.

WHERE WE MEET HER

Unnamed, she speaks with courage, and Israel's women remember her each year (Judg 11:40). Her story is a lament, not a model.

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

Who was never named in my story? Whose memory do I want to honor?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Write a name of someone you want remembered. Light a candle if you have one. Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

NOTES

✂ Cut on the dashed line · Finished size 5 × 7.5 in (127 × 190.5 mm) · Print at 100% / Actual Size · One insert per page

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 9 OF 27

Hannah

1 Samuel 1:1–2:10

Content note: infertility, mockery, and a mother's separation from her child. Some editions call Samuel–Kings "1–4 Kingdoms."

WHERE WE MEET HER

Provoked over childlessness, she pours out her soul and is misread as drunk (1 Sam 1:12–16). Her prayer in 2:1–10 begins in joy.

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

Have I been misread in my pain? What did I pour out when no one understood?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Pray for two minutes in your own words. Honest is enough. Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

NOTES

7HE H0LY R3UP

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 10 OF 27

Ruth & Naomi

Ruth 1–4

Content note: widowhood, poverty, and grief.

WHERE WE MEET HER

Naomi asks to be called Mara, bitter (Ruth 1:20). Ruth stays with her (1:16–17). Gleaning, loyalty, and being brought into a family.

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

Who stayed? And who am I staying with?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Message one person who stayed with you: “Thank you for staying.” Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

NOTES

✂ Cut on the dashed line · Finished size 5 × 7.5 in (127 × 190.5 mm) · Print at 100% / Actual Size · One insert per page

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 11 OF 27

Abigail

1 Samuel 25:1–42

Content note: living with a harsh, foolish husband.

WHERE WE MEET HER

She acts fast to prevent bloodshed and speaks straight to David (1 Sam 25:23–31). The text names her good sense (25:3).

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

Where have I had to keep the peace in a house that was not safe? What did it cost me?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Write what you needed back then. Offer it to yourself in one sentence. Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

✂ Cut on the dashed line · Finished size 5 × 7.5 in (127 × 190.5 mm) · Print at 100% / Actual Size · One insert per page

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 12 OF 27

Tamar (David's daughter)

2 Samuel 13:1–22

Content note: rape, incest, and silencing. You may skip this page.

WHERE WE MEET HER

Tamar speaks up and says no (13:12–13), is assaulted, and is told to keep quiet. She lives “desolate” (13:20). The text names it a wrong.

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

Where was I told to be quiet? Who is allowed to hear me now?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Pick one: write it, say it to God, or tell one safe person. Resting is also valid.
Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

NOTES

7HE H0LY R3UP

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 13 OF 27

Bathsheba

2 Samuel 11:1–12:25; 1 Kings 1:11–31

Content note: abuse of power, the death of a husband and of a child.

WHERE WE MEET HER

A king sent for her. The prophet Nathan names the wrong as David's (2 Sam 12:7–9). Her grief is recorded (12:24), and later she speaks at court (1 Kings 1).

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

Where was power used over me? What do I need to hear about who is responsible?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Say: “The one with power is responsible for how they used it.” Write what that does in your body. Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

NOTES

✂ Cut on the dashed line · Finished size 5 × 7.5 in (127 × 190.5 mm) · Print at 100% / Actual Size · One insert per page

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 14 OF 27

Rizpah

2 Samuel 21:1–14

Content note: executed sons, unburied bodies, and grief.

WHERE WE MEET HER

She guards her sons' bodies from birds and animals from harvest until the rains (21:10). Her watch moves the king to act (21:11–14).

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

What have I kept watch over? Where has grief made me stubborn in love?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Rest your hands in your lap for one minute. Thank God for your own endurance. Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

NOTES

7HE H0LY R3UP

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 15 OF 27

Esther

Esther 1–10 (Greek additions are in the Ethiopian canon)

Content note: being taken into a king's household, fear, and the threat of mass killing. Check how your edition handles the additions.

WHERE WE MEET HER

A young Jewish woman is taken into the palace and risks her life to speak (see ch. 4).

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

When did I have to speak while afraid? What helped me?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Write: “I spoke when I was afraid.” Pause. Underline one word. Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

NOTES

✂ Cut on the dashed line · Finished size 5 × 7.5 in (127 × 190.5 mm) · Print at 100% / Actual Size · One insert per page

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 16 OF 27

Judith

Book of Judith 8–13 (in the Ethiopian Orthodox canon)

Content note: war violence. This book is absent from most Protestant Bibles.

WHERE WE MEET HER

A widow who challenges her leaders' fear, prays, and acts to save her people.

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

Where did leaders give up and I stepped in? Where do I need to hand the weight back?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Write one burden that is not yours to carry. Give it back in prayer. Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

NOTES

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 17 OF 27

Susanna

Susanna (addition to Daniel; Daniel 13 in the Greek/Latin tradition)

Content note: sexual coercion and false accusation. Numbering varies by edition.

WHERE WE MEET HER

Two elders threaten to accuse her falsely unless she gives in. She refuses, is condemned, and is cleared when Daniel cross-examines them.

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

When did I refuse and pay for it? Who spoke up for me?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Thank one person who believed you. Or write what you want a believer to say to you. Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

NOTES

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 18 OF 27

The Samaritan Woman

John 4:1–42

Content note: shame and being talked about.

WHERE WE MEET HER

Alone at the well at midday (4:6), she is met with direct honesty and becomes the one who tells her town (4:28–30, 39).

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

Where did shame make me small? What did I say when someone finally listened?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Drink a glass of water slowly. Write: “I am known and still welcome.” Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

NOTES

✂ Cut on the dashed line · Finished size 5 × 7.5 in (127 × 190.5 mm) · Print at 100% / Actual Size · One insert per page

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 19 OF 27

The Woman with the Bleeding

Mark 5:25–34 (also Matt 9:20–22; Luke 8:43–48)

Content note: chronic illness, medical cost, and isolation.

WHERE WE MEET HER

Twelve years of bleeding and every coin spent on doctors. She touches His cloak, and He calls her “daughter” (Mark 5:34).

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

What have I spent and tried to get well? Who needs to hear “daughter”?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Name one thing you have tried. Honor the effort with one sentence. Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

NOTES

7HE H0LY R3UP

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 20 OF 27

The Woman Caught in Adultery

John 7:53–8:11

Textual note: manuscripts differ on this passage. Check how your edition presents it.
Content note: public shaming and threat of violence.

WHERE WE MEET HER

Brought alone to be shamed. Jesus asks the accusers to examine themselves (8:7), and they leave. Notice who was not brought.

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

Who has brought me out to be shamed? What would “neither do I condemn you” change?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Open your edition. Read its note on 7:53–8:11. Write what it says and who wrote it.
Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 21 OF 27

Mary of Bethany

Luke 10:38–42; John 11:1–44; 12:1–8

Content note: grief and a sibling's death.

WHERE WE MEET HER

She sits at His feet, weeps over her brother, and later anoints Him.

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

What does sitting at His feet look like for me today, in a tired body?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Sit for three minutes. Eyes open or closed. Say: “I'm here.” Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 22 OF 27

Mary Magdalene

Luke 8:1–3; John 20:1–18

Note: the text never calls her a prostitute. That idea came later.

WHERE WE MEET HER

Freed from seven demons (Luke 8:2), she supports the ministry, stays near the cross, and in John 20 is the first to meet the risen Christ.

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

What did she see because she stayed? What am I staying for?

WOMEN OF THE WORD · 23 OF 27

Mary, Mother of the Lord

Luke 1:26–56; John 19:25–27

Honored with deep reverence in the Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahedo Church. Content note: fear and watching a child suffer.

WHERE WE MEET HER

She says “let it be” (Luke 1:38), sings (1:46–55), and stands at the cross (John 19:25).

WHO IS IN THE SCENE?

WHERE AND WHEN?

WHAT HAPPENED, IN MY WORDS

WORDS THAT STAND OUT

WHAT SHE LOST	WHAT SHE DID	WHO SAW HER

Where have I said yes while afraid? Where did I stand beside someone in pain?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Read Luke 1:46–55 slowly once. Underline one line that is yours. Low-energy option: Hold this page and breathe once. That counts.

NOTES

The Fight Inside

Romans 7:15–25

The writer describes wanting one thing and doing another. Naming that gap is not weak faith. It is honest, and honesty is where recovery starts.

Romans 7:15–20
Look for: The gap between wanting and doing.

Romans 7:21–25
Look for: Who does he turn to?

Romans 8:1
Look for: The word "condemnation." Who is it for?

Check: read two chapters around it, compare two editions (cite which), ask clergy about doctrine.

Where is the gap between what I want and what I do right now?

What would I say to a friend standing in the same gap?

What It Promised, What It Cost

Proverbs 23:29–35 · Ephesians 5:18

These verses speak plainly about wine and its wounds. Read them as honest observation, not as a verdict on you. Look for the questions the writer asks.

Proverbs 23:29–30

Look for: The questions in verse 29. Which one is mine?

Proverbs 23:31–35

Look for: What it looks like, and what it says at the end.

Ephesians 5:18

Look for: What is offered in its place?

Check: read two chapters around it, compare two editions (cite which), ask clergy about doctrine.

What did it promise me? What did it actually cost?

What was I really needing when I reached for it?

Three passages about a way out. Read them for the exits: what is named as the way through, and who opens it.

1 Corinthians 10:13

Look for: What is promised alongside the testing?

Galatians 5:1

Look for: Who frees, and what is asked of me?

Psalm 107:10–16 (LXX 106)

Look for: The refrain: cried out, saved, broke the chains.

Check: read two chapters around it, compare two editions (cite which), ask clergy about doctrine.

Where is one exit I have used before that worked?

What makes the exit hard to take at the hour I need it?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Luke 8:26–39

A man lives among tombs, chained and alone. Later he is found seated, clothed, and in his right mind. Spiritual language and treatment can sit side by side: this page does not replace either.

Luke 8:27–29
Look for: Isolation, chains, tombs. What kept him there?

Luke 8:35
Look for: Seated. Clothed. In his right mind. What changed in the picture?

Luke 8:38–39
Look for: What is he asked to do with his story?

Check: read two chapters around it, compare two editions (cite which), ask clergy about doctrine.

What chains did I carry that others could see? Which could they not?

Who might need to hear that someone got out?

How Long? A Lament Map

Psalm 13 (LXX 12)

Lament is prayer that tells the truth. This short psalm moves from “how long” to trust. You do not have to arrive at the end to be praying.

Psalm 13:1–2 (LXX 12)

Look for: Count the “how longs.” What is felt?

Psalm 13:3–4 (LXX 12)

Look for: What does the writer ask for?

Psalm 13:5–6 (LXX 12)

Look for: What is remembered? What is sung?

Prayers That End in the Dark

Psalm 88 (LXX 87)

Content note: this psalm has no sunrise ending. It is here for the nights when none of the hopeful verses fit. It is still prayer. It is still in the Bible.

Psalm 88:1–2 (LXX 87)
Look for: Who is the prayer addressed to?

Psalm 88:3–9 (LXX 87)
Look for: What is the writer's list of losses?

Psalm 88:13–18 (LXX 87)
Look for: How does it end? What do you notice?

Check: read two chapters around it, compare two editions (cite which), ask clergy about doctrine.

What do I want to say that I think is “too much” for God?

Miscarriage, Stillbirth & Infant Loss

Jeremiah 31:15–17 · Isaiah 49:15–16 · Psalm 56:8 (LXX 55)

Content note: pregnancy and infant loss. This page does not assign a cause. Grief here is real. Speak with your priest or pastor about whatever rites or comfort your tradition offers.

Jeremiah 31:15–17
Look for: Who is weeping? What is said about her tears?

Isaiah 49:15–16
Look for: A mother and her nursing child. What is promised?

Psalm 56:8 (LXX 55)
Look for: Tears kept. What is it saying?

Check: read two chapters around it, compare two editions (cite which), ask clergy about doctrine.

What do I want to say about the one I lost?

What have people said that hurt? What would I rather hear?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Write a name or a nickname, a date, or one sentence for the one you lost.
Low-energy option: Light a candle or hold something soft for a minute.

✂ Cut on the dashed line · Finished size 5 × 7.5 in (127 × 190.5 mm) · Print at 100% / Actual Size · One insert per page

TOPICS MOST WON'T TALK ABOUT · 8

Infertility & Longing

1 Samuel 1:1–20 · Genesis 16 · Psalm 113:9 (LXX 112)

Longing for a child that does not come is a quiet grief. Hannah and Sarah were not told to hurry up. This page makes room for hope and for grief at once.

1 Samuel 1:5–11
Look for: What is Hannah feeling? What does she do with it?

Genesis 16:1–2
Look for: What did waiting push Sarai to do?

Psalm 113:9 (LXX 112)
Look for: What is said of the barren woman?

Check: read two chapters around it, compare two editions (cite which), ask clergy about doctrine.

What do I grieve that no one sees?

What do people say that I wish they wouldn't?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Write what you need to hear this week from a friend, and ask for it. Low-energy option: Write one line and save it.

✂ Cut on the dashed line · Finished size 5 × 7.5 in (127 × 190.5 mm) · Print at 100% / Actual Size · One insert per page

TOPICS MOST WON'T TALK ABOUT · 9

Divorce, Betrayal & Leaving

Psalm 55:12–14 (LXX 54) · 1 Corinthians 7:15

Church teaching on divorce and remarriage differs by tradition. This page does not rule on it. Talk to your priest or pastor, and a lawyer if safety or children are involved. Here we hold the grief.

Psalm 55:12–14 (LXX 54)
Look for: Betrayal by one who was close. What is named?

1 Corinthians 7:15
Look for: What does "peace" have to do with it?

Malachi 2:13–16
Look for: A contested passage. Compare editions. What differs?

Check: read two chapters around it, compare two editions (cite which), ask clergy about doctrine.

What am I grieving that nobody threw a funeral for?

What do I need to decide this month, and who can help me think?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Write one question for your priest, pastor, or counselor about this season.
Low-energy option: Write the first word of the question.

NOTES

TOPICS MOST WON'T TALK ABOUT · 10

Shame & the Body

Genesis 2:25; 3:7–11 · Psalm 34:5 (LXX 33) · Isaiah 54:4

Shame says "I am the problem." Guilt says "I did something wrong." Some of us were taught to be ashamed of our bodies, our desire, or what was done to us. Look for where God addresses shame directly.

Genesis 2:25
Look for: Before shame: what was true?

Genesis 3:7–11
Look for: How does hiding begin? Who asks "where are you?"

Psalm 34:5 (LXX 33)
Look for: Faces and shame. What is the promise?

Check: read two chapters around it, compare two editions (cite which), ask clergy about doctrine.

What did I learn about my body or desire that did not feel like love?

Where did I take on shame that belonged to someone else?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Place a hand on your arm or shoulder and say: "This body has carried me."
Low-energy option: Name one thing your body did well today.

Mental Health & Faith

Psalm 42 (LXX 41) · 1 Kings 19:4–8

Struggling with anxiety, depression, or other conditions is not a faith failure, and it is not fixed by praying harder. Prayer and care can live together: doctor, therapist, medication, community, church.

Psalm 42:1–5 (LXX 41)
Look for: Thirst, tears, and talking to my own soul.

1 Kings 19:4–8
Look for: Rest and food come first.

Mark 2:17
Look for: Who needs a physician?

Check: read two chapters around it, compare two editions (cite which), ask clergy about doctrine.

What have I been told about mental health and faith? What do I believe now?

What kind of care would help me this month?

HELP IS REAL

Forgiveness Without Reconciliation

Genesis 50:15–21 · Romans 12:17–19 · Luke 17:3–4

Forgiving and trusting again are different. Joseph forgave and still did not pretend nothing happened. This page does not demand a timeline or require you to be near someone unsafe.

Genesis 50:15–21

Look for: What does Joseph say? What does he not say?

Romans 12:17–19

Look for: "If it is possible." What does the writer do with vengeance?

Luke 17:3–4

Look for: What comes before the forgiving?

Check: read two chapters around it, compare two editions (cite which), ask clergy about doctrine.

What would forgiving look like if it did not require me to be near them?

What do I need from the one who hurt me that I may never get?

SOFT STEP · 10 MINUTES OR LESS

Write what you would say if you could say it safely. Keep it for you. Low-energy option: Write one sentence.

DECLARATIONS

Truth I Can Stand On

Short, true, and mine. Say one aloud.

- ☐ I am allowed to rest.
  Mark 6:31
- ☐ I am seen.
  Genesis 16:13
- ☐ Mercy is new.
  Lamentations 3:22–23
- ☐ I can ask for help.
  Galatians 6:2
- ☐ I am not alone in the fire.
  Isaiah 43:2
- ☐ My story is not over.
  Psalm 118:17 (LXX 117)
- ☐ I can take up space.
  Psalm 18:19 (LXX 17)
- ☐ God Almighty gets the glory.
  Psalm 115:1 (LXX 113)

Declarations are agreement with what God has said, not magic words, and not a replacement for care.

CLOSING

Go Back With Truth and a Hand Out

I’m Nikki, founder of 7HE H0LY R3UP—a survivor rebuilding through faith, with Big Boy, my American Bully service dog, beside me. I share lived experience, carefully sourced teaching, and practical steps for the next stretch of rebuilding.

If this meets you where you are, reach out through this page. Share only what feels safe. What step are you working on?

Check both sides, including mine. Read the sources. Truth can withstand honest questions.

We survived. Now let’s go back—with truth and a hand out. Souls are attached to my obedience. God Almighty gets the glory.
