7HE HØLY R3UP

YOU SURVIVED. NOW WE REBUILD.

THE R3NEW

30 days · 30 languages · one word: again

NOVEMBER 2026 CONTENT CALENDAR + OUTLINE

A daily interactive series for the family: Morning drop + R3NEW post, each day building on the last, every day able to stand alone.

Big Boy approved. God Almighty gets the glory.

WELCOME TO THE R3NEW

"Renew ain't 'new.' Renew is 'again,' on purpose, scars and all."

November is the R3NEW. Every day for 30 days, one language gives us its word for renew, a different meaning, a different definition, and a fun fact you didn't see coming. Then we drop one real, low-energy step you can do in 10 minutes or less.

I'm not here to be above anybody. I'm beside you. Same rebuild, different rooms. The family does this together, in the comments, one brick at a time.

What makes this different

- Each day builds on the one before. Every post starts with a mini recap ("Yesterday: ___. Today builds: ___.") so new people can hop in and old people feel the climb.
- Every day also stands alone. Each post carries a one-line "Start here" catch-up. Nobody's ever behind. You are being positioned, not behind.
- Two posts a day, two jobs. The Daily R3UP · Morning drop teaches the word. The separate R3NEW post is the interactive one: comment, vote, say it back, tag your crew.
- The Jar. Every day the family drops a Jar word. Every Sunday is a Jar Reveal: I read yours out loud, raw, with thanks.
- The Wall. Each day adds one brick to the R3NEW Wall graphic. By Nov 30 the wall is built, with 30 words in 30 tongues.
- Thanksgiving voice. Gratitude for mercy already completed, not "almost there." Gratitude and grief can sit at the same table.

Honest disclaimer. This series is faith-based education, personal testimony and encouragement. It is not medical, mental-health or legal advice and it doesn't diagnose or treat anything. Struggling isn't weak faith. If you're in crisis or thinking about hurting yourself, call or text 988 (US) or your local emergency number. Scripture references are listed by book, chapter and verse; before posting, quote from your Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahedo edition and name the edition and translator on the graphic. Psalm numbers follow the Ge'ez/Septuagint tradition and can run one number behind Hebrew-numbered Bibles. Language pronunciations are friendly approximations. Ask a native speaker, a deacon or a priest to confirm. Copyright © 2026 7HE H0LY R3UP. All rights reserved.

HOW EACH DAY WORKS

Morning graphic: swap in the day's word + date

- The word: script, sound, meaning, explanation, fun fact.
- Word of God: exact book, chapter and verse. Church teaching, Scripture, history, testimony and metaphor kept separate.
- Verify it: search the word, compare two sources, ask a native speaker or clergy.

2 · R3NEW post (interact)

- One simple action: comment a word, vote, fill in a blank, say it back, tag a crew member.
- A 10-minute step, plus a low-energy option and a no-cost, private option.
- Reply to as many comments as possible in the first hour. Pin the best Jar word.

DAY 01 SUN · NOV 1 — JAR REVEAL

English

renew

ree-NOO

/rɪˈnjuː/

Means: to make new again; to begin again; to restore

"Renew ain't 'new.' Renew is 'again,' on purpose, scars and all."

WHAT IT MEANS

'Re' means again. 'New' means new. Renew does not erase the old. You renew a vow, a license, a lease, a strength. Same thing, made fresh, on purpose.

FUN FACT

'News' is just 'new things.' And 'new' shares one ancestor with Latin novus, Greek néos and Sanskrit náva, a root linguists call Proto-Indo-European *néwos.

WORD OF GOD

Lamentations 3:22-23

MINI RECAP · BUILDS ON YESTERDAY

Kickoff. Day 1 has nothing to recap. That's the point. We lay the first board.

R3NEW INTERACTIVE POST

DROP YOUR JAR WORD. One word for something God already renewed in you. Comment it. It goes in the Jar all month.

10-MINUTE STEP (LOW-ENERGY OPTION INCLUDED)

Write your Jar word on paper and put it where you will see it. Low energy: type it in your Notes app.

Don't take my word for it: search the word + "etymology," compare two sources, ask a native speaker.

DAY 02 MON · NOV 2

Latin

renovare

reh-noh-WAH-reh

from novus = new

Means: to make new again (renovatio = a making-new-again)

"Latin gave us the root. I'm giving you the receipts: novus. New. Now go find it."

WHAT IT MEANS

Novus is the root under renovate, innovate, novel, novice and nova. The Vulgate calls the person in Christ a 'nova creatura,' a new creation (2 Cor 5:17).

FUN FACT

In 1573 Tycho Brahe published a book about a 'new star' (stella nova) that blazed in the sky in 1572. Astronomers still call a sudden flare a nova.

WORD OF GOD

2 Corinthians 5:17

MINI RECAP · BUILDS ON YESTERDAY

Yesterday: renew = 'again' + 'new.' Today we dig up the 'new' root.

R3NEW INTERACTIVE POST

10-MINUTE STEP (LOW-ENERGY OPTION INCLUDED)

WHAT IT MEANS

Greek has two 'new' words. Néos means new in time, just born. Kainós means new in kind, fresh in quality. Paul says 'be transformed by the renewing (anakainōsis) of your mind.'

FUN FACT

In the whole New Testament, anakaínōsis shows up only twice: Romans 12:2 and Titus 3:5.

WORD OF GOD

Romans 12:2

MINI RECAP · BUILDS ON YESTERDAY

Yesterday: Latin novus. Today: Greek splits 'new' into two kinds.

R3NEW INTERACTIVE POST

THIS OR THAT (Stories poll). Néos: a brand-new start? Or kainós: same life, new quality? Vote and tell us why.

10-MINUTE STEP (LOW-ENERGY OPTION INCLUDED)

Write one thought that keeps replaying and one true thing to put next to it. This is not praying it away. It's making room.

Don't take my word for it: search the word + "etymology," compare two sources, ask a native speaker.

DAY 04 WED · NOV 4

WED/FRI FAST DAY*

Hebrew

לְחַדֵּשׁ

le-khah-DESH

lechadésh = to renew

Means: to renew; חָדָשׁ (chadásh) = new

"The moon goes dark and comes back. They named the MONTH after it. Renewal ain't weird. It's the calendar."

WORD OF GOD

Ezekiel 36:26

MINI RECAP · BUILDS ON YESTERDAY

Means: reborn. tuntun = new. àtúnṣe = to repair, to adjust

"Names carry stories. Yours too. Let's talk about what yours is growing into."

WHAT IT MEANS

'Àtún-' is a prefix that means again. Yoruba is tonal, so the little marks change the meaning. Our faith says rebirth is in Christ (Titus 3:5), not reincarnation.

FUN FACT

Names like Babatúndé ('father returns') and Yétúndé ('mother returns') are traditionally given to babies born after a grandparent has passed. That's a cultural naming tradition. We honor the language.

WHAT IT MEANS

Giorgio Vasari used 'rinascita' (rebirth) in his 1550 Lives of the Artists to describe art coming back to life. The word stuck.

"My heart's got a gold seam. Yours can too. Nobody throws away gold."

WHAT IT MEANS

Kintsugi mends broken pottery with lacquer and powdered gold so the crack becomes the feature. The practice is traditionally traced to the 1400s.

FUN FACT

The Ise Grand Shrine is ritually rebuilt every 20 years, a custom said to go back about 1,300 years. Rebuilding on schedule, on purpose.

Day 20 plant, Day 25 compare. A real thing growing across days, a living recap.

❓ Raw Q+A
Day 29 opens it. Day 30 answers. Faith or rebuild questions. Honest "I don't know" counts as an answer.

🧱 Wall vote

Targeted critique + both sides (use when it fits)

Name a specific quote or pattern, never a whole group or denomination. Show: what was claimed → what the source says in context → the other view → the practical difference → your action step. Example for Day 4 (chalaf): some English verses read "renew" where Hebrew says "exchange." Check a Hebrew interlinear and ask your priest which sense the Church teaches.

Boundaries for the whole series

- No tarot or divination, no syncretic spirituality, no generational-curse mechanics for medical or trauma conditions.
- Distinguish spiritual language from behavioral recovery. Faith walks beside therapy and medical care. It doesn't replace them.
- Other languages and cultures are honored for their words. We borrow no one's religion and make no claims about their beliefs.
- Never promise outcomes. Never use fake urgency or FOMO. "You are not behind" means it.
- Big Boy is presented respectfully: he's my service dog and my companion. No invented tasks, no spiritual authority.

How to measure it (keep it simple)

Weekly: comments per post · saves · shares · new followers · replies sent. Keep the top 3 interaction types and drop the lowest. Ask the family what they want more of.
