STILL HERE. STILL HIS. LET'S REBUILD.

Welcome to the worktable

A note from Hellshaker

Hey, it's Hellshaker.

I made this kit for the version of me who didn't know where to start. I put it together with Big Boy right beside me, because he stayed beside me while I was learning how to stay beside myself.

I know what the floor feels like. Addiction. Abuse. Grief. I lost my sister, Brandi Renee, and I wish she'd had somewhere to reach. So I'm building it now, one piece at a time.

Here's what I learned: nobody rebuilds everything in a day. I tried. What works is one honest step, then the next, then the next. Then you look up and there's a whole wall of pieces you put there yourself.

This kit gives your hands something honest to do (cut, glue, write, fold, pray) while your heart catches up. It also gives you real tools: a plan for when a craving hits, a way to draw a line with people, a checklist for the paperwork of life, and seven days to walk through on purpose.

I'm not a doctor, a therapist, or a pastor. This kit is a companion, not a replacement, for real help. If you need more than paper tonight, turn to page 29 and use those numbers. Asking for help is part of the rebuild. It is not proof that you're failing.

Baby, I know what far gone looks like. Now let's see what God can do from there.

Still here. Still His. Let's rebuild.

— Hellshaker

THIS KIT IS FOR YOU IF...

- You're early in recovery, or thinking about starting.
- You're years in and fighting a hard week.
- You're grieving, healing from abuse, or starting over.
- You need something to do with your hands and something true to hold.

THREE MOVES. THAT'S IT.

1. Make it. Cut & glue your board, cards, and bookmarks.
2. Walk it. One page a day for 7 days (page 20).
3. Use it. Keep the jar, the plan, and your list where you can reach them.

What's inside & how to print

Read this page first. It saves you ink and frustration.

PRINT IT RIGHT

- Print at 100% / Actual Size. Do not “fit to page.”
- Pages 5–15: color on cardstock (65–110 lb).
- Daily & tool pages are low-ink. Print in black & white if you want.
- Print single-sided. Reprint any page as often as you need. It's yours for personal use.

SUPPLIES (ABOUT WHAT'S IN YOUR JUNK DRAWER)

- Scissors (or a paper trimmer)
- Glue stick or tape
- A jar. A mason jar is perfect.
- Pen, and a hole punch for bookmarks
- Twine, ribbon, or string (optional)
- A frame or a piece of poster board (optional)

Scale check. This bar should measure exactly 1 inch on your print. If it doesn't, turn off “fit” or “shrink to printable area” and print again. Your pieces & board only line up at 100%.

Not medical or mental-health treatment. Faith-centered creative and educational tool. No outcome is promised. Digital PDF download; nothing physical ships. Scripture quotations are from the King James Version (public domain).

Your 7-day rebuild

Sixteen pieces. Seven days. One honest step at a time.

DAY	THEME	PIECES TO PLACE	BOOKMARK	PAGE	DATE DONE
1	Name It	Identify, Surrender	Anchored	p. 20
2	Tell It	Tell the Truth, Release	Supported	p. 21
3	Rebuild the Inside	Replace, Renew, Heal	Renewed	p. 22
4	Draw the Line	Forgive, Set Boundaries	Rooted	p. 23
5	Do the Thing	Take Action, Trust	Small	p. 24
6	Stay Rooted	Grow, Keep Going	Rebuilt	p. 25
7	Walk Free	Find Purpose, Encourage Others, Freedom	Free	p. 26

EACH DAY, ABOUT 20–30 MINUTES

1. Read the note. Read the Scripture twice.
2. Write your three answers. Short is fine.
3. Glue the day's piece(s) on your board.
4. Read the day's word card and bookmark.
5. Pull one slip from the jar and do it.
6. Pray it. Check your boxes.

RULES OF THE WEEK

- Miss a day? Do the next one. Don't restart. Don't quit.
- Rough day? Do the first box and place one piece. That counts.
- Don't do it perfect. Do it honest.
- Don't do it alone. Tell one safe person you're doing this.

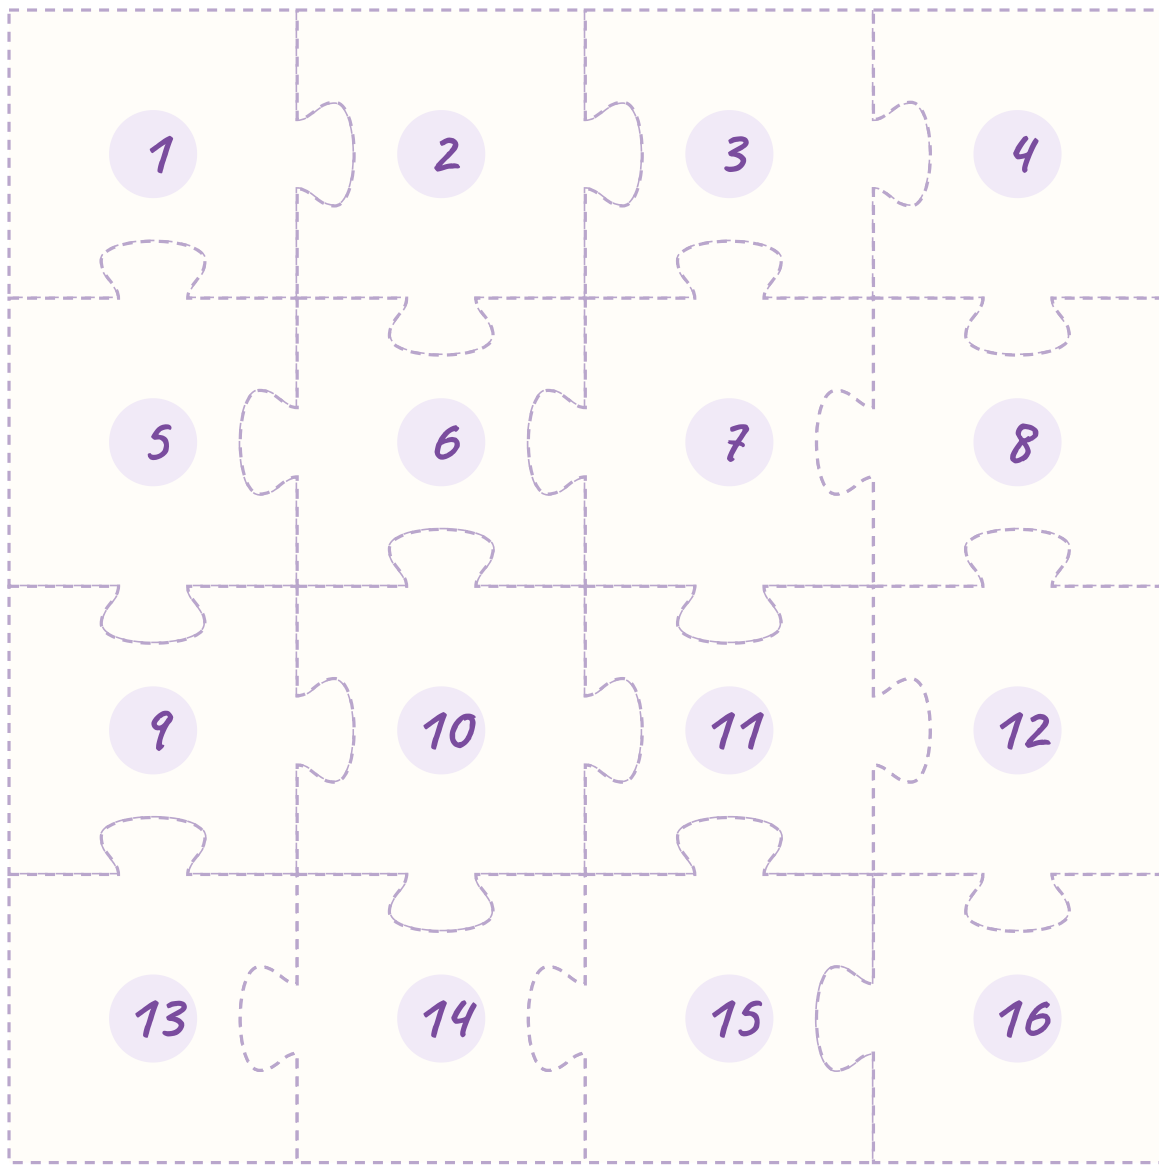

Before you start: if you're in danger, thinking about hurting yourself, or in withdrawal from alcohol or benzodiazepines (which can be medically dangerous to stop suddenly), get medical help first. Call 988, 911, or SAMHSA at 1-800-662-4357. The rebuild will still be here. Full list on page 29.

WHY I'M REBUILDING (WRITE IT NOW; READ IT WHEN IT GETS HARD):

Start date:

My safe person:

Rebuild One Piece at a Time

MAKE YOUR BOARD

1. Print this page on cardstock. Mount on poster board or a frame back if you want it sturdy.
2. Cut the pieces from pages 6–7. Easy cut: trim along the dotted squares. Puzzle cut: cut the whole shape.
3. Each day, glue the day's piece(s) on the matching number.

WHY A BOARD?

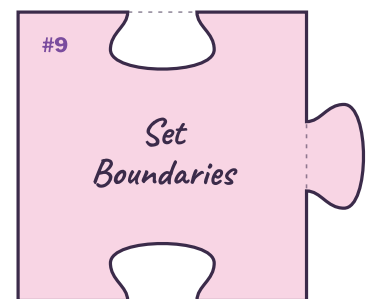

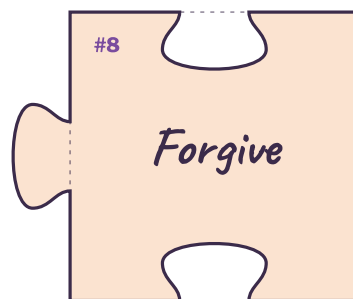

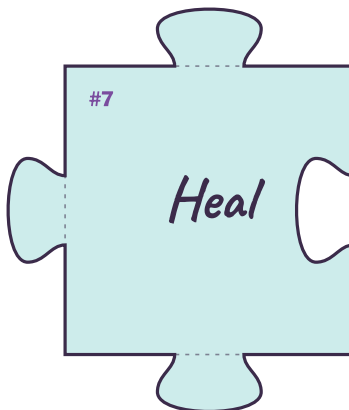

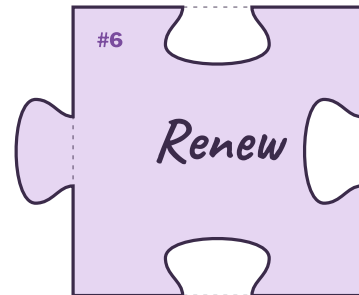

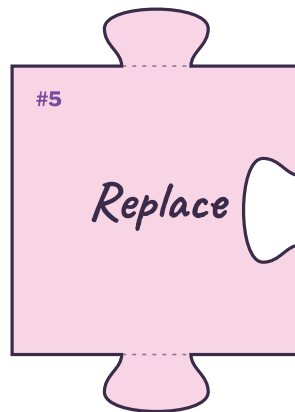

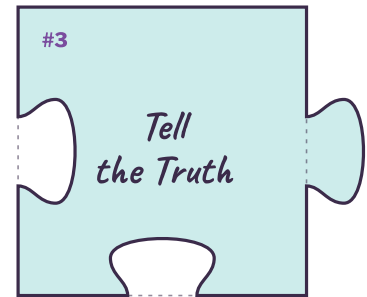

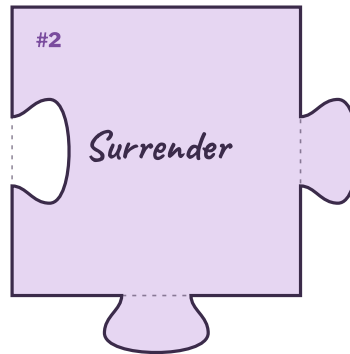

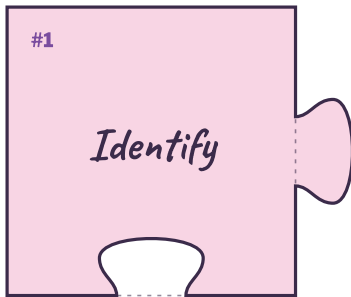

On hard days you won't feel progress. The board will show it. Every piece you glue is proof you did the work, even the day you didn't feel like it.

Started: _____

Finished: _____

Word pieces 1 of 2

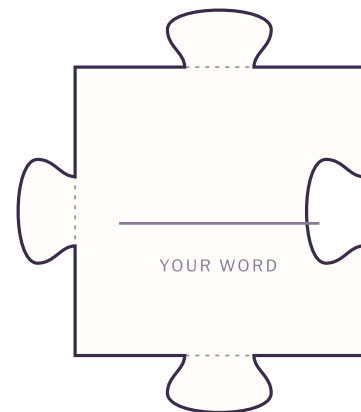

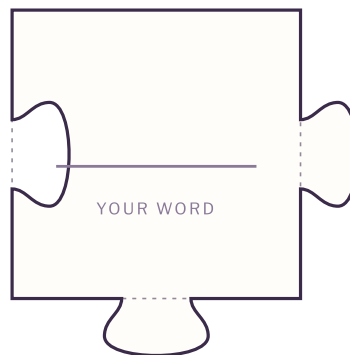

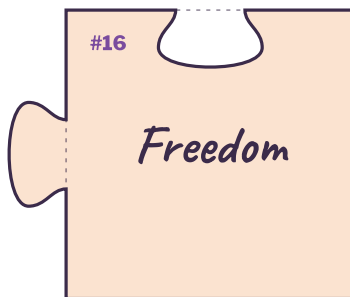

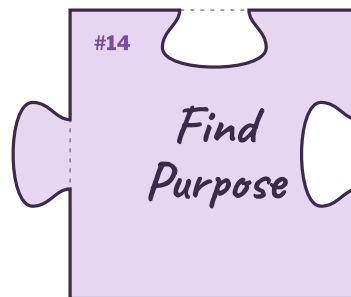

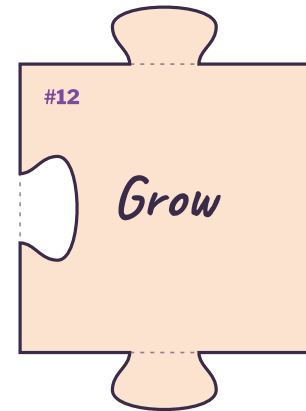

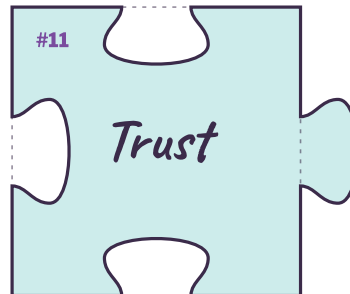

Cut on the solid line for a puzzle piece, or on the dotted square for easy pieces. Glue on the board at the matching number.

✂ cut along the lines ✂

Word pieces 2 of 2

Pieces 10–16 + two blank pieces. Write your own word on the blank ones (the words only you know) and glue them in the margin or on the back of your frame.

✂ cut along the lines ✂

Word cards 1-4

Cut on the dotted lines. Keep in order or shuffle. Pull one when you need a word.

Identify

You can't rebuild what you keep calling something else. Name it. God already knows what it is.

"Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts."

— Psalm 139:23 (KJV)

TODAY'S STEP

Write the one thing you've been calling by a softer name. Then write what it's really called.

Surrender

Surrender isn't losing. It's finally letting go of a wheel you were never built to drive.

"Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding."

— Proverbs 3:5 (KJV)

TODAY'S STEP

Say it out loud: "God, I can't. You can." Then name one thing you're handing over today.

#3

Tell the Truth

Secrets keep you sick. One true thing, told to one safe person, breaks their grip.

"Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed."

— James 5:16 (KJV)

TODAY'S STEP

Pick a safe person (not someone who used you). Tell them one true thing this week. Write their name here.

#4

Release

You can't hold the chain and the hand of God at the same time. Something has to go.

"Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

— Matthew 11:28 (KJV)

TODAY'S STEP

Write what you're setting down on a slip. Fold it. Drop it in the jar. Leave it there.

Word cards 5-8

Cut on the dotted lines. Keep in order or shuffle. Pull one when you need a word.

Replace

Empty doesn't stay empty. Whatever you don't plant in that hour, the old stuff will.

"And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind."

— Romans 12:2 (KJV)

TODAY'S STEP

Name your most dangerous hour of the day.
Write what you're putting there instead.

Renew

Mercy has a morning shift. You don't have to earn today. You just have to show up to it.

"Though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day."

— 2 Corinthians 4:16 (KJV)

TODAY'S STEP

Tomorrow, the first five minutes belong to God before the phone. Set the alarm now.

#7

Heal

Healing isn't a feeling. It's a practice. Some days it's just keeping the appointment.

"He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds."

— Psalm 147:3 (KJV)

TODAY'S STEP

Book or keep one appointment this week: doctor, counselor, meeting, group. Write the date.

#8

Forgive

Forgiving frees you. It does not hand anybody the key back. Forgiveness is not access.

"Be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

— Ephesians 4:32 (KJV)

TODAY'S STEP

Write the debt you're releasing and, if it's you, say so. Add: "I release it. I keep my boundary."

Word cards 9–12

Cut on the dotted lines. Keep in order or shuffle. Pull one when you need a word.

#9

Set Boundaries

A boundary isn't a wall to punish somebody. It's a gate you finally learned to lock.

"Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life."

— Proverbs 4:23 (KJV)

TODAY'S STEP

Choose one boundary. Write the exact sentence you'll say. Use the Boundary Builder.

#10

Take Action

Prayer and paperwork go together. Pray it, then pick up the phone.

"Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves."

— James 1:22 (KJV)

TODAY'S STEP

Do the smallest piece of the thing you've been avoiding. Ten minutes. Then stop and mark it done.

#11

Trust

Trust gets rebuilt in small deposits, not big speeches. Yours and theirs.

"What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee."

— Psalm 56:3 (KJV)

TODAY'S STEP

Keep one promise to yourself today exactly how you said it, exactly when you said it.

#12

Grow

Pruning hurts. A vineyard looks worse right after it's cut back. That's how it learns to bear.

"But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ."

— 2 Peter 3:18 (KJV)

TODAY'S STEP

Write what you're outgrowing, and what you want to grow in its place.

Word cards 13-16

Cut on the dotted lines. Keep in order or shuffle. Pull one when you need a word.

#13

Keep Going

Relapse is not resignation. Get up, tell somebody, learn the pattern, take the next right step.

"Let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not."

— Galatians 6:9 (KJV)

TODAY'S STEP

Write the last time you got back up after a fall. Then write the first thing you did.

#14

Find Purpose

Your worst chapter may be somebody's way out. Not to be used up. To be used well.

"For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works."

— Ephesians 2:10 (KJV)

TODAY'S STEP

Write one thing you survived that you could someday help another person walk through.

#15

Encourage Others

You can't pour from an empty cup, but you can pass a cup that God already filled.

"Comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do."

— 1 Thessalonians 5:11 (KJV)

TODAY'S STEP

Send one encouraging text today. "Thinking of you. Proud of you." Write who you sent it to.

#16

Freedom

Free doesn't mean finished. It means the chains aren't the boss anymore.

"If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed."

— John 8:36 (KJV)

TODAY'S STEP

Finish both: "I'm free from..." and "I'm free to..."

Scripture bookmarks 1-4

Cut on the lines. Punch the circle. Add ribbon or twine. Give one away.

The Next Right Step jar

For the moments you don't know what to do next.

SET IT UP

1. Cut the slips on pages 16–19. Fold each in half.
2. Drop them in a jar. Cut a label below, tape or glue it on.
3. Set an empty Done Jar beside it.

THE RULES OF THE JAR

1. Pull one. Don't shop for a better one. (If a slip isn't safe for you, put it back and pull again.)
2. Do just that one, even if it's five minutes.
3. Move it to the Done Jar. Watch it fill.

SLIP COLORS

BODY

PEOPLE

PRACTICAL

Body = take care of the temple. Mind = quiet the noise. Spirit = get with God. People = don't isolate. Practical = handle life.

Next Right Step slips 1 of 4

Cut on the dotted lines, fold, and drop in your jar.

BODY Drink a full glass of water. Right now. Then decide what's next.	MIND Write what you're feeling in one word. Then look for a truer word.	SPIRIT Read Psalm 23 out loud. Slowly.
PEOPLE Text a safe person: "Rough day. Can you talk?"	PRACTICAL Make your bed. First small win of the day.	BODY Eat something with protein. Hungry, angry, lonely, tired: you can't fight on empty.
MIND HALT check: Hungry? Angry? Lonely? Tired? Fix the first one you find.	SPIRIT Pray three sentences: I need You. Here's what's true. Help me with the next thing.	PEOPLE Put a meeting, service, group, or class on your calendar this week. Do it now.
PRACTICAL Open the mail you've been avoiding. Sort: now / this week / call.	BODY Take a shower and put on clean clothes, even if you're not going anywhere.	MIND Write "Dear future me" and two sentences. Tape it where you'll see it.
SPIRIT Write a prayer of honest complaint (read Psalm 13). God can take it.	PEOPLE Tell someone your plan for today out loud.	PRACTICAL Write every bill and its due date on one page.

Next Right Step slips 2 of 4

Cut on the dotted lines, fold, and drop in your jar.

BODY Walk ten minutes outside. Phone in your pocket. Eyes up.	MIND Mute or turn off one thing feeding the noise: a feed, a show, a person's page.	SPIRIT Read John 15:1–8 and underline every “abide.”
PEOPLE Thank someone who showed up for you. Be specific.	PRACTICAL Clear one drawer, shelf, or corner. Get rid of anything tied to the old life.	BODY Pick a bedtime for tonight and write it here: _____. Be in bed by then.
MIND Write three things that are true right now that nobody can take back.	SPIRIT Thank God for three ordinary things. Real ones, not church answers.	PEOPLE Call your sponsor, counselor, pastor, or support person. Five minutes counts.
PRACTICAL Charge your phone and save your support numbers in it.	BODY Stretch for five minutes. Let your body know it's not in danger right now.	MIND Set a 15-minute timer. Cravings crest and fall. Don't decide anything until it rings.
SPIRIT Sit in silence for five minutes. Ask, “What's my next right step?” Then listen.	PEOPLE Ask for one specific thing you need. Not a speech. Just the thing.	PRACTICAL Plan tomorrow's three meals.

Next Right Step slips 3 of 4

Cut on the dotted lines, fold, and drop in your jar.

BODY Take your prescribed meds as directed. Questions? Call your pharmacist or doctor.	MIND List what is actually in your control today. Do the first one.	SPIRIT Confess it plainly. No speech. Just the truth (1 John 1:9).
PEOPLE Send an encouraging text to someone else in recovery.	PRACTICAL Find your ID, Social Security card, and birth certificate. Know where they are.	BODY Ten slow breaths: in for four, out for six. Do it again.
MIND Write one lie you've been believing. Write what God says beside it.	SPIRIT Play one worship song and sing along. Off-key is fine.	PEOPLE Spend twenty minutes with someone who's good for you.
PRACTICAL Make the phone call you've been dodging. Write your questions first.	BODY Book one appointment you've been putting off: doctor, dentist, anything.	MIND Put your phone in another room for one hour.
SPIRIT Read Lamentations 3:22–23. Write what's new this morning.	PEOPLE Say no to one thing today without a long explanation. "No, I can't" is a full sentence.	PRACTICAL Pack a small bag with essentials so you can leave fast if you ever need to.

Next Right Step slips 4 of 4

Slips 46–60. Bonus: make it yours. Write your own on the last blank ones.

BODY Fill a water bottle and carry it all day. Finish it.	MIND Write your reasons for staying free. Keep them where you'll see them.	SPIRIT Pray for someone still stuck where you used to be.
PEOPLE Mute, unfollow, or block one person or page that pulls you backward. Not hate. Distance.	PRACTICAL Update your resume or fill out one application.	BODY Put your hands to work: dishes, laundry, scrub something until it shines.
MIND Do the thing you're dreading for five minutes only. Then you're allowed to stop.	SPIRIT Write down one time God showed up when you couldn't see it.	PEOPLE Sit by someone new at your meeting or service. Introduce yourself.
PRACTICAL Do a load of laundry, start to finish.	BODY Rest for twenty minutes without guilt. Rest is not relapse.	MIND Sit with a hard feeling for two minutes without fixing it. Feelings aren't emergencies.
SPIRIT Ask God for wisdom about a person who hurt you. Pray from a distance. Prayer never requires contact.	PEOPLE Tell someone: "I'm not okay tonight." Don't wait until you're worse.	PRACTICAL Write tomorrow's top three tasks tonight. Then stop.

Hellshaker says: Real talk: I spent years calling it stress, calling it a phase, calling it “just this once.” You can't rebuild what you won't name. Today isn't for fixing anything. It's for telling the truth about what's on the table, to God first, because He's already seen it and He's still here. D.O.A. is God's favorite starting point. So start.

“Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.”

— Psalm 139:23–24 (KJV). Read it twice, slowly.

DO THE WORK

1 What have I been calling by a softer name?

2 What has it cost me? (money, people, time, health, peace)

3 What's still standing that God can build on?

PRAY IT

Lord, I'm done lying about where I am. Show me the truth and hold me while You do it. I can't, You can. Amen.

PULL ONE SLIP

Draw one from the jar. Do it. Write what it was:

CRAVING / STRESS TODAY (0 = NONE, 10 = MAX)

#3 Tell the Truth

#4 Release

Bookmark: Supported

Hellshaker says: Secrets keep us sick. Tell one safe person one true thing this week. Not everything. One thing. Then start setting down what was never yours to carry. Some of what you're holding happened TO you, and that part isn't your fault. If it's abuse, telling the truth means telling someone who can help you stay safe. You don't have to carry this alone.

"Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed."

— James 5:16 (KJV). Read it twice, slowly.

DO THE WORK

1 Who is my safe person? (Not someone who used you.) When will I tell them?

2 What am I ready to set down: a grudge, guilt, a person, a grief?

3 Three sentences to the person or thing I'm releasing (never sent):

PRAY IT

*God, I'm bringing You the thing I've been hiding.
I'm not going to hide it from You or from one safe person. Take what I can't carry. Amen.*

PULL ONE SLIP

Draw one from the jar. Do it. Write what it was:

Hellshaker says: The bando taught me to fill every hour with survival. Empty hours are doors: the old stuff knocks at the same time every day. Don't just close the door. Plant something there. "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind."

— Romans 12:2 (KJV). Read it twice, slowly.

DO THE WORK

1 My danger hours (time, place, person, feeling):

2 What I'm planting in those hours instead:

3 The appointment, meeting, or call I'm booking for healing:

#8 Forgive

#9 Set Boundaries

Bookmark: Rooted

Hellshaker says: Baby, hear this: forgiving somebody is not handing them the key back.

Forgiveness is between you and God. Access is between you and wisdom. You can release the debt and keep the gate locked. And if someone is dangerous, you don't owe them a conversation. You owe yourself a safe plan (page 29 has numbers).

“Be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.”

— Ephesians 4:32 (KJV). Read it twice, slowly.

DO THE WORK

1 Who or what am I ready to release the debt on? (Include myself.)

2 Where do I need distance, limits, or a locked gate?

3 The exact sentence I will say:

PRAY IT

*Lord, I release what I'm ready to release, and I ask
You to help me with what I'm not. Give me wisdom for the gate. Protect me. Amen.*

PULL ONE SLIP

Draw one from the jar. Do it. Write what it was:

CRAVING / STRESS TODAY (0 = NONE, 10 = MAX)

3 What I'm trusting God with that I can't control:

PRAY IT

God, give me courage for the small hard thing and peace about the big one I can't fix. I'm trusting You with what's Yours. Amen.

PULL ONE SLIP

Draw one from the jar. Do it. Write what it was:

CRAVING / STRESS TODAY (0 = NONE, 10 = MAX)

AM 0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 PM 0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

- | | | | |
|---------------------------------------|---|--|---|
| ☐ Prayed | ☐ Moved my body | ☐ Ate real food | ☐ Talked to a person |
| ☐ Kept my word | ☐ Slept / rested | ☐ Placed my piece | ☐ Took one honest step |

If today was hard: If ten minutes is too much, do two. A started thing beats a perfect plan.

DAY 6

Stay Rooted

Date: _____

Place on your board:

#12 Grow

#13 Keep Going

Bookmark: Rebuilt

Hellshaker says: Pruning hurts. Nobody tells you a vineyard looks worse right after it's cut back. Growth can feel like loss: old friends, old comforts, old identity. And if you stumbled this week? Relapse is not resignation. Tell somebody today, look for the pattern, change one thing, and take the next right step. Page 28 is for you.

"And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not."

— Galatians 6:9 (KJV). Read it twice, slowly.

DO THE WORK

1 What am I outgrowing?

2 Where did I stumble or come close, and what did it teach me?

3 One thing I'll do at the same time every day:

PRAY IT

Lord, keep me rooted when it's dry. Prune what needs pruning. Let me be honest about the falls and quick to get back up. Amen.

PULL ONE SLIP

Draw one from the jar. Do it. Write what it was:

CRAVING / STRESS TODAY (0 = NONE, 10 = MAX)

AM 0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 PM 0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

- | | | | |
|---------------------------------------|---|--|---|
| ☐ Prayed | ☐ Moved my body | ☐ Ate real food | ☐ Talked to a person |
| ☐ Kept my word | ☐ Slept / rested | ☐ Placed my piece | ☐ Took one honest step |

If today was hard: If you're in a spiral tonight, skip this page and go to page 27. Then call someone.

DAY 7

Walk Free

Date: _____

Place on your board:

#14 Find Purpose

#15 Encourage Others

#16 Freedom

Bookmark: Free

Hellshaker says: Free doesn't mean finished. It means the chains aren't the boss anymore. I'm still trading the corner for the crown, one honest step at a time, and so are you. Your worst chapter might be somebody's way out. Not to be used up, but to be used well. Look at your board. Look what you built with your own two hands.

"If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed."

— John 8:36 (KJV). Read it twice, slowly.

DO THE WORK

1 What's different since Day 1?

2 What has God rebuilt that I didn't expect?

3 Who can I encourage this week, and how?

PRAY IT

Jesus, thank You for every piece. I'm free from what You broke off and free to what You're calling me into. Keep me walking. Amen.

PULL ONE SLIP

Draw one from the jar. Do it. Write what it was:

CRAVING / STRESS TODAY (0 = NONE, 10 = MAX)

AM 0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 PM 0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

- | | | | |
|---------------------------------------|---|--|---|
| ☐ Prayed | ☐ Moved my body | ☐ Ate real food | ☐ Talked to a person |
| ☐ Kept my word | ☐ Slept / rested | ☐ Placed my piece | ☐ Took one honest step |

If today was hard: Finished the week? Sign your certificate (page 36). Then print the daily pages again and go another round.

When It Hits

Your plan for the next fifteen minutes. Fill this out while you're calm.

STOP

Say it out loud: "This is a wave, not the ocean." Set a 15-minute timer. You are not deciding anything until it rings.

NAME

What is this? Run HALT: Hungry? Angry? Lonely? Tired? What set it off: a person, a place, a smell, a memory, a text?

MOVE

Change your room. Cold water on your face. Walk outside. Your body needs a new scene before your mind can follow.

CALL

Call or text a person from page 29. Can't reach them? Call the next one. Leave a message. Keep going down the list.

PRAY

Short and honest: "Lord, this wave is bigger than me. You aren't. Hold me till it passes."

WAIT

Let the timer run. Cravings rise, peak, and fall. Most crest well before 30 minutes. Then pull a slip and do it.

FILL IN BEFORE YOU NEED IT

MY DANGER TIMES:

MY TOP TRIGGERS (PEOPLE, PLACES, FEELINGS):

THREE THINGS I'LL DO INSTEAD:

MY REASONS (READ THESE)

If it's beyond you: get help now. Call or text 988 (suicide & crisis), call 911 for an emergency or overdose, or call SAMHSA at 1-800-662-4357 (free, 24/7, treatment referral). Calling for help isn't failing. It's the plan working.

Medical note: stopping alcohol or benzodiazepines suddenly can cause seizures and can be life-threatening. Talk to a doctor or detox program first. If opioids or fentanyl are anywhere in your story: tolerance drops fast, so don't use alone, and ask a pharmacist about naloxone (Narcan).

If You Slipped

Relapse is not resignation. Shame says hide. God says come.

I understand why it happened. And you are still responsible for what you do next. Both are true. Start here.

GET SAFE FIRST

Are you in danger, or is anyone else? Overdose signs (can't wake, slow or no breathing, blue lips) mean call 911 now.

TELL SOMEONE TODAY

Not next week. Call a person from page 29. Say: "I slipped, and I need you." Secrets are where a slip becomes a spiral.

REFUSE THE SHAME SPIRAL

"I did something wrong" is true and fixable. "I am wrong" is a lie. Confess it to God. He is not surprised, and He is not leaving.

FIND THE PATTERN

What came before? Which hour, feeling, person, place? Write it below. A slip is information.

CHANGE ONE THING

One boundary, one habit, one hour, one contact. Not ten. One.

TAKE THE NEXT RIGHT STEP

Pull a slip. Drink water. Eat. Sleep. Go to the meeting. Get back to the board. Piece by piece.

WHAT HAPPENED (JUST THE FACTS)

WHAT CAME RIGHT BEFORE IT:

WHAT I'M CHANGING

WHO I TOLD AND WHEN:

Harm-reduction truth: after time away, your tolerance is lower and the risk of overdose is higher. Never use alone. Keep naloxone (Narcan) close; many pharmacies provide it without a prescription. And a slip is a good time to talk to your counselor, doctor, or treatment program about your plan.

"For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again."

— Proverbs 24:16 (KJV)

Safe people & support

Fill this out today. Screenshot it. Put the numbers in your phone.

NAME	NUMBER	GOOD FOR (TALK, RIDE, PRAY, PRACTICAL)	BEST TIMES TO CALL

A safe person is honest, doesn't use you, doesn't shame you, and can keep a confidence. It's okay if your list starts with one name and a hotline.

MY MEETINGS, GROUPS & APPOINTMENTS

MY LOCAL ONES

COUNSELOR / CLINIC:

SPONSOR / GROUP LEADER:

CHURCH / FAITH COMMUNITY:

NEAREST ER / CRISIS CENTER:

HOTLINES (U.S.)

988

Suicide & Crisis Lifeline. Call or text 988, 24/7.

1-800-662-4357

SAMHSA National Helpline. Free, confidential, 24/7 treatment referral.

1-888-373-7888

National Human Trafficking Hotline. Or text 233733.

211

Local help with food, housing, and more.

911

Emergency, overdose, or immediate danger.

1-800-799-7233

National Domestic Violence Hotline. Or text START to 88788.

1-800-222-1222

Poison Control.

Outside the U.S.? Search "crisis line" plus your country. Numbers can change; check that they still work before you need them.

Boundary Builder

Forgiveness is not access. Grace is not enabling. A boundary is not hatred.

Understanding why someone is the way they are isn't the same as letting them back in.
You can love them, pray for them, and keep the gate locked.

OPEN

Trusted. Safe.
Consistent. Full access to my life.

LIMITED

Time-limited, in public,
or with a third person.
Trust is being rebuilt.

DISTANCE

Text or brief contact only. No private time.
No money. No favors.

CLOSED

No contact. No
explanation owed.
Safety comes first.

PERSON / SITUATION	WHAT KEEPS HAPPENING	ACCESS LEVEL	MY BOUNDARY, IN ONE SENTENCE & WHAT I'LL DO IF IT'S CROSSED

SENTENCES YOU CAN STEAL

- "I love you, and I won't be around when you're using."
- "I forgive you. I'm not available for that anymore."
- "No, I can't. I'm not explaining."
- "I'll talk when we can both be calm."
- "I'm not lending money. That's my answer."

READ THIS TWICE

- You don't need permission to protect yourself.
- Boundaries are for your behavior, not controlling theirs.
- If someone is dangerous, don't confront them. Make a safety plan with the hotline on page 29.
- Going back before you're ready doesn't make you weak. Start again.

Practical rebuild checklist

Prayer and paperwork go together. Check them off as you go.

PAPERS

- ☐ State ID or driver's license
- ☐ Social Security card
- ☐ Birth certificate (copy is fine)
- ☐ Insurance / Medicaid card
- ☐ List of my medications and doses
- ☐ A folder to keep it all together

HEALTH

- ☐ Primary care visit booked
- ☐ Dentist or vision (when ready)
- ☐ Counselor or recovery program
- ☐ Support group or meeting on my calendar
- ☐ Naloxone / medicine plan discussed with a pharmacist

HOME

- ☐ A safe place to sleep tonight
- ☐ Clear out things tied to the old life
- ☐ Food for the next 3 days
- ☐ Phone charged, numbers saved
- ☐ Call 211 if I need housing or food help

WORK & MONEY

- ☐ Resume started
- ☐ One application this week
- ☐ Bills listed with due dates (p. 32)
- ☐ One phone call to a creditor or agency
- ☐ Open a basic bank account if I don't have one

LEGAL

- ☐ Know every court and probation date
- ☐ Keep copies of paperwork
- ☐ Legal aid number saved (search "legal aid" + my county)
- ☐ Ask before I sign anything I don't understand

FAITH & PEOPLE

- ☐ Find one church, group, or study to try
- ☐ Pray at the same time daily
- ☐ One friend who is safe and sober
- ☐ Serve one small way this month

Don't do it all this week. Pick three boxes. Do those. Then pick three more. Anybody who's ever rebuilt a life did it in small piles of paper and phone calls.

MY THREE FOR THIS WEEK:

Money reset

One page. No shame. Just numbers and the next call.

MONEY COMING IN THIS MONTH

Work / benefits: $ _____

Other: $ _____

WHAT I'LL SAY (WRITE IT FIRST):

Many creditors, landlords, and agencies will set up a payment plan if you call before you're behind, or right after.

WHAT THAT MONEY WILL GO TO:

GOAL FOR THE NEXT 30 DAYS ($ OR A BILL PAID):

Stewardship: what you do with a little shows what you're ready for. "He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much." (Luke 16:10, KJV)

DAY 7 NOTE TO MYSELF

DAY 30 NOTE TO MYSELF

"I didn't become her overnight. I became her every time I chose not to go back."

Prayers for the rebuild

Say them out loud. Change the words. Make them yours.

Morning prayer

RENEW ME

Lord, it's me again. Thank You for another morning I didn't earn and You gave me anyway. Your mercies are new, and I need every one. Order my day. Guard my mouth, my eyes, and my hands. Show me the one honest step in front of me and give me the guts to take it. I'm not asking for a perfect day, just a faithful one. In Jesus' name, amen.

LAMENTATIONS 3:22-23

When the craving comes

HOLD ME

Jesus, this wave is bigger than me, and You are not. I'm not going to pretend I'm fine. I need You right now. Get me to my phone, get me to a person, get me through fifteen minutes. Break what's trying to break me. Set my feet on a rock. And Lord, if somebody's hearing this from the floor tonight, meet them there. Amen.

PSALM 40:2

Night prayer

LET IT GO

Father, here's my day: the good, the ugly, and the part I'd rather skip. Where I did right, thank You. Where I fell short, I'm not hiding it. Forgive me, and help me forgive myself where You already have. I hand You what I can't fix tonight. Guard my sleep. Tomorrow, let me wake up still Yours. Amen.

1 JOHN 1:9

For the ones I love

COVER THEM

God, I lift up the people I love: the ones still bound, the ones who are far, the ones I have to love from a distance. Protect them. Send them people who will tell them the truth. Give me wisdom for what to do and what to leave with You. I trust You with what I can't control. Amen.

Rebuild One Piece at a Time

C E R T I F I C A T E O F C O M P L E T I O N

Presented to

(YOUR NAME)

for showing up, telling the truth, and building something honest, one piece at a time.

“For who hath despised the day of small things?” – Zechariah 4:10

DATE

SIGNED (YOU)

WITNESS (SOMEONE WHO SAW YOU DO IT)

Still here. Still His. Let's rebuild.

What now?

Finishing the week is the start. Here's how you keep building.

1. GO ANOTHER ROUND

Reprint the daily pages and go again. The second time through, you'll be honest about things you weren't ready to touch the first time.

2. KEEP THE TOOLS CLOSE

Keep the jar on your counter, the plan (p. 27) on your fridge, the safe list (p. 29) in your phone, and a bookmark in your Bible.

3. BRING SOMEBODY WITH YOU

Print a second kit. Hand someone a bookmark. Recovery isn't a solo mission, and your worst chapter may be somebody's way out.

4. KEEP GETTING HELP

A kit is a companion. Keep going to meetings, counseling, church, doctors. Faith and practical help are not enemies.

*Broken by overdose. Rebuilt by God.
Unapologetically shaking hell for every soul still bound.*
