If you're holding this, something is wrong and you don't know where to go. That is exactly who I made this for.

I wish my sister, Brandi Renee, had somewhere to reach. I couldn't give her that. So I built it now, for you. I built it for the person sitting in a car trying not to cry, the person who relapsed yesterday, the person who told nobody, the person who's years in and fighting a craving tonight, the person who was hurt by church, the person who thinks God is done with them.

I know what the floor feels like. Overdose broke me, and I have learned that D.O.A. is God's favorite starting point. When there's nothing left of you to work with, He still has plenty to work with.

This is a seven-day reset. One teaching page and one working page a day. No perfection required. Some days you'll do all of it. Some days you'll do one line. Both count.

I'm not a doctor, a therapist, or a lawyer. I'm a woman who keeps choosing the next right thing with Jesus as my foundation. This guide is not treatment. It's a hand held out. Use it with real help, not instead of it.

EPHESIANS 2:4-5 (ESV)

"But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—"

Baby, I know what far gone looks like. Now let me show you what God can do from there. — Nikki "Hellshaker"

How This Works

EACH DAY	WHAT YOU DO	TIME
Teaching page	Read the verse and the truth. Notice the “Not this / But this” lies and their replacements.	5 min
Working page	Fill in the tool. Do the three small things. Pray the prayer, or pray it your own way.	10–20 min
Tracker	Check your boxes in the free tracker: {{TRACKER_URL}}	1 min

THE SEVEN DAYS

1. Tell the Truth: name where you are
2. Get Safe: your people, your numbers, your plan
3. Feed the Body: water, food, sleep, medical help
4. Know Your Triggers: the 15-minute craving plan
5. Break the Isolation: reach out and get in a room
6. Own It Without Drowning: accountability without shame
7. Plant Something: your next thirty days

GROUND RULES FOR THIS HOUSE

- Understanding is not excusing. I understand why. You're still responsible for what you do next.
- Grace is not enabling. Forgiveness is not access. Boundaries are not hatred.
- Recovery is not perfection. Relapse is not resignation.
- Faith and real help are not enemies. Pray and call. Scripture and a meeting.
- You go at your own pace. Missed a day? Pick up where you stopped.

LAMENTATIONS 3:22-23 (ESV)

The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.

Before You Start: A Safety Check

Answer honestly. If you check anything in the red zone, do that first. Everything else in this guide can wait.

CALL NOW: 911 OR 988

- ☐ I am thinking about hurting myself or ending my life
- ☐ I may have taken too much of something, or someone else has
- ☐ Someone is hurting me or threatening me right now
- ☐ I'm having seizures, severe shaking, hallucinations, or confusion (these can be signs of dangerous withdrawal)

GET HELP TODAY

- ☐ I've been drinking heavily or using benzodiazepines, opioids, or other drugs every day and want to stop. Do not stop alone without medical guidance. Call SAMHSA 1-800-662-4357 or a doctor or ER
- ☐ I'm being controlled, forced, or exploited. Call the National Human Trafficking Hotline 1-888-373-7888 (text 233733)
- ☐ I'm afraid of a partner or family member. National Domestic Violence Hotline 1-800-799-7233 (text START to 88788)
- ☐ I have no one I can call. Call SAMHSA and ask about local groups and treatment

PSALM 46:1 (ESV)

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

OVERDOSE REMINDERS

- Never use alone if you can help it. Tell someone or use a hotline service where available.
- Ask your pharmacy or local health department about naloxone (Narcan) and keep it where people can find it.
- If you think someone has overdosed: call 911, give naloxone if you have it, stay with them, and put them on their side.
- Poison Control (any hour): 1-800-222-1222

Day 1: Tell the Truth

STAGE 1 OF 6 • FROM THE CONCRETE TO THE HARVEST

PSALM 34:18 (ESV)"The LORD is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit."1 JOHN 1:9 (ESV)"If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

Nobody gets free by getting better at hiding. Most of us got real good at "I'm fine." Fine kept the questions away. Fine kept the peace. And fine kept us right where we were.

So day one is not about fixing anything. It's about naming it. Out loud. On paper. To God, who already knows, and to one safe person, who doesn't yet. That's it. That's the whole assignment.

Telling the truth is not the same as beating yourself up. Shame says you are the problem. Truth says this is the problem, and I'm not going to carry it alone anymore. Shame keeps you hiding. Truth lets God in.

And here's the balance we hold in this house: I understand why you became this way. And you are still responsible for what you do next. Both are true. Understanding is not excusing. Explaining is not permission.

NOT THIS (THE LIE)	BUT THIS (THE TRUTH)
"If they knew everything, they'd leave."	Some people might. The right ones won't. Start with one safe person, not everybody.
"I have to fix it before I tell anybody."	You tell the truth so you don't have to fix it alone.
"God's mad at me."	He is near to the brokenhearted. Psalm 34:18 does not say 'near to the ones who cleaned up first.'

Day 1: Tell the Truth

TOOL: THE TRUTH INVENTORY

No one is grading this. Write it like nobody will ever read it. Facts, not self-hatred.

1. What am I using, doing, or hiding right now?

2. What have I been calling “fine” that isn't fine?

3. Who is this costing besides me?

4. What am I most afraid will happen if I stop?

5. The one sentence I'm most afraid to say out loud is...

DO THIS TODAY

- ☐ Complete the Truth Inventory (all five)
- ☐ Say one true sentence out loud to God
- ☐ Tell one safe person: “I'm struggling.”

PRAYER

Lord, I'm done pretending. This is where I really am, and You already knew. I'm not asking You to be impressed. I'm asking You to meet me here. Give me the courage to say it to a real person today. In Jesus' name, amen.

Hard day? If the truth feels like too much today, write just one line. One line counts. If you're thinking about hurting yourself, stop reading and call or text 988 now.

Day 2: Get Safe

STAGE 2 OF 6 • FROM THE CONCRETE TO THE HARVEST

PSALM 46:1 (ESV)

“God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.”

PSALM 40:2 (ESV)

“He drew me up from the pit of destruction, out of the miry bog, and set my feet upon a rock, making my steps secure.”

Before strategy, before feelings, before anything else: are you safe tonight? From a substance. From a person. From yourself. Safety comes first, and it's not weakness to say so.

Get practical. Put three people and three numbers where you can reach them without thinking. When you're in the middle of a bad hour, you will not be creative. You'll grab whatever is closest. So make the right thing the closest thing.

If someone is hurting you, controlling you, or forcing you, that is not your fault and it is not a failure of faith. Leaving is not simple. Nobody gets to shame you for how long it takes. When you're ready, and only when it's safe, there are people trained to help you plan it.

And hear me on this: forgiveness is not access. You can forgive somebody and never let them back in your life. You never owe anyone a seat at your table because they said sorry.

NOT THIS (THE LIE)	BUT THIS (THE TRUTH)
“A good Christian doesn't need a safety plan.”	Faith and preparation work together. Noah still built the ark.
“I should be able to handle this alone.”	Refuge means somewhere to run. Use it.
“If I leave, I'm giving up on them.”	Protecting yourself is not hatred. It's stewardship of what God gave you.

Day 2: Get Safe

TOOL: MY SAFETY PLAN

Fill this in today while you're calm, so tonight you don't have to think.

1. 3 people I can call any hour (names + numbers)

2. 3 numbers saved in my phone right now: 988 • 1-800-662-4357 • 911

3. One thing I will remove, hand off, or put out of reach tonight

4. Where I can go if home isn't safe (a person, a place)

5. What I will say when I call: "I need help right now, and I don't want to be alone."

DO THIS TODAY

- ☐ Save the three crisis numbers in my phone
- ☐ Fill in my 3 people (or call SAMHSA if I have none yet)
- ☐ Remove or hand off one thing within reach

PRAYER

Father, be my refuge tonight. Guard my body and my mind. Put safe people in my path and give me the courage to use the phone when the hour gets loud. Cover me and everyone I love. In Jesus' name, amen.

Hard day? If someone monitors your phone or email, use a safe device and delete your browsing history after. Your safety comes before anything in this guide.

Day 3: Feed the Body

STAGE 3 OF 6 • FROM THE CONCRETE TO THE HARVEST

1 KINGS 19:6 (ESV)

“And he looked, and behold, there was at his head a cake baked on hot stones and a jar of water. And he ate and drank and lay down again.”

MATTHEW 11:28 (ESV)

“Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.”

Elijah was worn out, afraid, and begging God to let him die. And the first thing God did wasn't a sermon. It was bread, water, and a nap. Sometimes the holy thing is a sandwich and eight hours of sleep.

Your body has been carrying a lot. If you've been using, not eating, not sleeping, or living on adrenaline, your body is running on empty, and an empty body makes everything feel worse: the cravings, the fear, the anger, the lies.

Important safety truth: if you've been drinking heavily or using benzodiazepines, opioids, or other substances daily, do not just stop cold on your own. Withdrawal from some of these can be dangerous, even deadly. Call a doctor, an ER, or the SAMHSA helpline (1-800-662-4357) first. That's not weak. That's wise.

This is where faith and practical help hold hands. Pray and take your medication as prescribed. Pray and go to the appointment. God gave doctors, nurses, and counselors. Use them.

NOT THIS (THE LIE)	BUT THIS (THE TRUTH)
“Real faith means I don't need a doctor.”	Luke was a physician and he's in your Bible.
“I'll quit alone. I don't need anybody.”	Not all withdrawals are safe alone. Get medical guidance first.
“Rest is laziness.”	Jesus slept in a boat in a storm. Rest is obedience.

Day 3: Feed the Body

TOOL: THE H.A.L.T. CHECK

When you're Hungry, Angry, Lonely, or Tired, everything is harder. Check these before you make any big decision.

1. Hungry: when did I last eat something real? What can I eat today?

2. Angry: what am I carrying that I haven't said out loud?

3. Lonely: who have I actually talked to today?

4. Tired: how many hours did I sleep? What time will I go to bed tonight?

5. Medical: who is one doctor, clinic, or treatment line I will call this week?

DO THIS TODAY

- ☐ Drink a full glass of water and eat something real
- ☐ Set a bedtime and put the phone across the room
- ☐ Call or book one medical or treatment contact

PRAYER

Lord, You fed Elijah before You gave him another assignment. Feed me. Help me take care of this body You gave me. Give me sleep, give me wisdom about what I need, and give me the humility to ask for help. In Jesus' name, amen.

Hard day? If you can't do all three tasks today, do the water. That's a real win.

Day 4: Know Your Triggers

STAGE 4 OF 6 • FROM THE CONCRETE TO THE HARVEST

1 CORINTHIANS 10:13 (ESV)

“No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.”

LAMENTATIONS 3:22-23 (ESV)

“The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.”

The corner didn't only live on a street. It lives in a time of day, a payday, a text message, a person, a song, a smell, a feeling. If you don't know your triggers, they pick the time and the place. If you do, you get to pick.

Most cravings feel like they'll last forever and don't. They rise, peak, and pass, often within fifteen to thirty minutes. You don't have to win forever. You just have to outlast the next fifteen minutes. That's a strategy you can actually use tonight.

The Bible says God provides “the way of escape.” Notice it doesn't say ‘the way of no temptation.’ It says a way out. Your job is to look for the door and walk through it before your mind talks you out of it: leave the room, call the person, drink the water, go outside, put your hands on something.

A slip is not the end. It is information. It tells you what to plan for next time. Shame will tell you it means you're hopeless. It doesn't. His mercies are new every morning, and that includes tomorrow morning.

NOT THIS (THE LIE)	BUT THIS (THE TRUTH)
“A craving means I'm failing.”	A craving means your body is remembering. It isn't a verdict.
“I just need more willpower.”	You need a plan, people, and a way out. Willpower alone runs out.
“If I slip once, it's over.”	Relapse is not resignation. Tell somebody and start at the next right step.

Day 4: Know Your Triggers

TOOL: THE 15-MINUTE CRAVING PLAN

Write this when you're calm. Use it when you're not.

1. My top 3 triggers (people, places, feelings, times of day)

2. Where I am most likely to get pulled back this week

3. When a craving hits, first I will (move, water, step outside)

4. The person I call first (and their number)

5. My 15-minute rule: I wait, set the timer, then I decide again.

DO THIS TODAY

- ☐ Write my top 3 triggers
- ☐ Pick my “call first” person and text them so they know
- ☐ Practice the 15-minute wait once with a timer

PRAYER

God, You said there's a way out. Open my eyes to it when the craving comes, and let my feet move toward it before my head talks me out of it. Give me fifteen minutes, then give me fifteen more. In Jesus' name, amen.

Hard day? If a craving is loud right now: set a timer for 15 minutes, drink water, and call someone. Don't decide anything until the timer goes off.

Day 5: Break the Isolation

STAGE 5 OF 6 • FROM THE CONCRETE TO THE HARVEST

ECCLESIASTES 4:9-10 (ESV)

"Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil. For if they fall, one will lift up his fellow. But woe to him who is alone when he falls and has not another to lift him up!"

JAMES 5:16 (ESV)

"Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed."

Shame says hide. God says come out. Isolation is where relapse does its best work, and it's where the enemy whispers that nobody wants to hear it, nobody would understand, you're too much, you're too far gone.

That's a lie. But it's a convincing one, because it's usually been rehearsed for years. The way you break a lie like that is not to argue with it in your head. You break it by letting a real person prove it wrong.

You need people who know the truth about you. Not everybody. Not the internet. A few. A recovery group, a sponsor, a counselor, a pastor who actually knows what to do with this, a friend who stays. Look for people who tell the truth and stay.

If church hurt you, I'm sorry. Spiritual abuse is real, and it's not God. There are churches and groups that do this well. Celebrate Recovery is one faith-based option, and AA and NA meetings are in almost every town. Try more than one. Fit matters.

NOT THIS (THE LIE)	BUT THIS (THE TRUTH)
"I don't want to burden anybody."	Letting people help is not a burden. It's how the body of Christ works.
"Nobody would understand."	Somebody in a meeting room tonight has been exactly where you are.
"I've been hurt by church, so I'm done."	Done with the people who hurt you, yes. Not done with God, and not done with community.

Day 5: Break the Isolation

TOOL: THE REACH-OUT PLAN

Reaching out is a skill. Use the script below until it feels normal.

1. Script: "Hey, I need help. I'm not okay and I don't want to do this alone. Can I call you today?"

2. The person I will text before noon tomorrow

3. A meeting or group I'll attend this week (name, day, time)

4. A second option if the first one doesn't fit

5. What I'm afraid will happen, and what I'll do if it does

DO THIS TODAY

- ☐ Send the reach-out text to one person
- ☐ Find one meeting or group and put it on my calendar
- ☐ Sit with one safe person for ten minutes, phone away

PRAYER

Lord, break the lie that I'm too much or too far gone. Send me people who will sit in it with me and point me back to You. Give me the courage to walk in the room. In Jesus' name, amen.

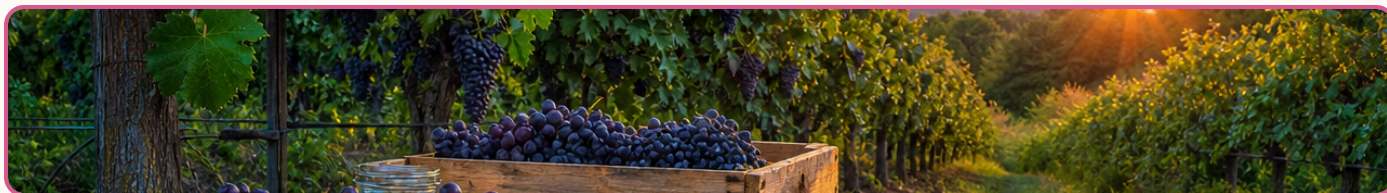

Hard day? If you can't find a meeting, call SAMHSA at 1-800-662-4357 and ask for local groups and treatment. It's free, confidential, and they answer any hour.

Day 6: Own It Without Drowning

STAGE 6 OF 6 • FROM THE CONCRETE TO THE HARVEST

PROVERBS 28:13 (ESV)

"Whoever conceals his transgressions will not prosper, but he who confesses and forsakes them will obtain mercy."

ROMANS 8:1 (ESV)

"There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus."

Grace is not permission. You can be fully forgiven and still owe repair. That's not God being harsh. That's how real relationships and real recovery work.

Owning it is a plan, not a punishment. You name what's yours. You tell the truth. You make it right where it's safe and possible. You change the pattern. And you don't confuse guilt (I did something wrong) with shame (I am something wrong). God deals with guilt through forgiveness. He deals with shame through belonging.

Now the other half, which people rarely say: some of what you're carrying isn't yours. If someone abused you, trafficked you, betrayed you, or manipulated you, that belongs to them, not to you. Don't take responsibility for what was done to you. Put it down.

And repair never means walking back into danger. If contacting someone isn't safe, then the repair is changing your own life, and letting God carry what you can't. You don't have to reconcile with anyone who is still unsafe.

NOT THIS (THE LIE)	BUT THIS (THE TRUTH)
"I'm forgiven, so I don't owe anything."	Forgiven and accountable. Both.
"It's all my fault."	Not everything. Sort what's yours from what was done to you.
"Forgive means go back."	Forgiveness is release. Access is earned by safe behavior over time.

Day 6: Own It Without Drowning

TOOL: OWN / REPAIR / RELEASE

Three columns. Be honest, be specific, and be kind to yourself.

1. OWN: what I did that is mine to own (facts, not self-hatred)

2. REPAIR: one safe first step I can take (or “none is safe right now”)

3. RELEASE: what was done TO me that is not mine to carry

4. What I need to forgive myself for, and what I need God's help to forgive

5. One boundary I need in place before I repair anything

DO THIS TODAY

- ☐ Write my OWN list (facts only)
- ☐ Write one safe REPAIR step or mark none safe right now
- ☐ Read my RELEASE list aloud and hand it to God

PRAYER

Lord, show me what is mine and what isn't. Give me courage to repair what I can and grace to release what I can't. Take the shame, and leave me the lesson. In Jesus' name, amen.

Hard day? If this day stirs up old trauma, stop and get support. A trained counselor can walk you through this safely. You don't have to do it alone.

Day 7: Plant Something

STAGE 6 OF 6 • FROM THE CONCRETE TO THE HARVEST

JOHN 15:5 (ESV)

"I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing."

JOHN 8:36 (ESV)

"So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed."

Somebody taught you to survive. The bando, the corner, the hustle: all of it was survival. But God didn't pull you out of the pit just so you could survive. He pulled you out so you could grow.

Growing is slower than surviving, and it includes pruning. In a vineyard, you cut the branch so the vine can bear more fruit. Some of what's getting cut in your life isn't punishment. It's preparation.

For years the search was for another plug, another source, another supply. Jesus says He is the vine, and that apart from Him you can do nothing. The Source was never on the corner. You don't have to keep looking.

You will not become the woman or man God is calling you to be overnight. You become her every time you choose not to go back. Your job for the next thirty days is simple: pick a daily anchor, pick a weekly anchor, tell someone, and keep going. The next right step. Then the next.

NOT THIS (THE LIE)	BUT THIS (THE TRUTH)
"I've messed up too much for God to use me."	God doesn't call the qualified. He qualifies the called. And He starts with what's left.
"I need to become perfect first."	You don't. You need to stay connected to the vine.
"One relapse ruins everything."	It doesn't. Tell the truth, call your people, start at the next right step.

Day 7: Plant Something

TOOL: MY NEXT 30 DAYS

You finished the first seven. Now build the next thirty. (There's a calendar for it later in this guide.)

1. My daily anchor (10 minutes with God at the same time every day)

2. My weekly anchor (a meeting, counselor, church, or group, day + time)

3. One thing I'm building (a skill, a job step, a budget, a hobby, a home)

4. The person I'll check in with every Sunday

5. What I want to be true 30 days from now

DO THIS TODAY

- ☐ Choose my daily and weekly anchors
- ☐ Put both on my calendar right now
- ☐ Tell someone my plan for the next 30 days

PRAYER

Jesus, You are the vine. I'm done running on my own supply. Keep me connected to You. Prune what needs pruning. Help me choose the next right thing tomorrow, and the day after that, and the day after that. In Your name, amen.

Hard day? If you missed a day or two, that's okay. Pick up where you left off. Progress here is measured in days you came back, not days you were perfect.

The 5 Lies That Keep People Bound

The enemy tells lies that sound like your own voice. Learn to spot them, and answer them with truth out loud.

The lie: "I'm too far gone."

The truth: Nobody is beyond the reach of God. Ephesians 2 says He made us alive when we were dead. D.O.A. is His favorite starting point. (Ephesians 2:4-5)

The lie: "If they knew the truth, they'd leave."

The truth: Some people might. The right ones won't. And God already knows and stays. (Psalms 34:18)

The lie: "One slip and it's all ruined."

The truth: A slip is information, not a verdict. The righteous fall and rise again. Tell somebody and start at the next right step. (Proverbs 24:16)

The lie: "I'll be okay when I get [that person/that thing/that money]."

The truth: Only Jesus is the Source. People, things, and money are not the plug. They're just more supply that runs out. (John 15:5)

The lie: "This is just how I am."

The truth: Your patterns are learned and they can be unlearned. Nobody is stuck. You can become someone new, one choice at a time. (2 Corinthians 5:17)

PROVERBS 24:16 (ESV)

"For the righteous falls seven times and rises again."

WRITE YOUR OWN

The lie I hear most often is...

The truth I'll answer with is...

Boundaries & Forgiveness Are Not the Same as Access

You can forgive someone and still keep the door closed. You can love someone and still say no. Boundaries are not punishment. They are how you protect what God is rebuilding.

SITUATION	WHAT YOU CAN SAY
Someone pressures you to use or drink	"No thanks. I'm not doing that anymore." (No explanation needed.)
Old friends invite you to the old places	"I love you, but I'm not going there. I can meet for coffee somewhere else."
Someone wants money and you know where it goes	"I can't give you cash. I can buy you groceries or drive you to a meeting."
A person who hurt you wants back in	"I forgive you, and I'm not letting you back in. Please respect that."
Family pressures you to "just forgive and move on"	"Forgiving is between me and God. Trust and access are earned, and they're not available right now."
Someone uses Scripture to make you stay in danger	"God doesn't ask me to stay somewhere I'm being harmed."

Safety note: if the person is dangerous, do not confront them in person. Don't announce a boundary to someone who may react violently. Talk to a hotline advocate about a safe plan first (1-800-799-7233).

MY BOUNDARIES THIS MONTH

- ☐ Someone I'm not answering right now: _____
- ☐ A place I'm not going: _____
- ☐ A thing I'm not doing: _____

GALATIANS 5:1 (ESV)
"For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery."

In crisis? Call/text 988 • SAMHSA 1-800-662-4357 • Emergency 911 • Trafficking 1-888-373-7888 • DV Hotline 1-800-799-7233

If I Slip: My Plan

Write this while you're steady. Then when you're not, you don't have to think. You just follow the plan.

FIRST HOUR

- ☐ Get somewhere safe. If I've used a lot, or feel unwell: 911
- ☐ Call my person: name / number
- ☐ Drink water, eat something, don't use anything else tonight

SAME DAY

- ☐ Tell one safe person the truth. Not tomorrow. Today.
- ☐ Go to a meeting or call one (or SAMHSA 1-800-662-4357)
- ☐ Write what happened, what triggered it, and what I'll do differently

NEXT 7 DAYS

- ☐ Go back to the last thing that was working (a step, a meeting, a person)
- ☐ Tell my counselor, sponsor, or doctor
- ☐ Restart at the next right step, not at zero

Remember: a slip is not the end of your story. Shame tells you to hide. God says come back. "There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus." (Romans 8:1, ESV)

Medical note: if you've been sober for a while and slip, your body may not tolerate the amount you used before. Overdose risk is higher after a break. Be careful, and get help.

CHOOSING A PARTNER

- Someone who tells the truth and stays.

REBUILDING, ONE SMALL PIECE AT A TIME

Recovery touches everything: sleep, money, work, family, trust. Don't try to fix it all at once. Pick one this month:

- ☐ Money: write down what I owe and one payment I can make
- ☐ Work: one application, one call, one training step
- ☐ Health: one appointment (dentist, doctor, counselor)
- ☐ Relationships: one apology made safely, or one boundary set
- ☐ Purpose: one thing I'm building (a class, a garden, a skill, a ministry step)

You did not become her overnight. You became her every time you chose not to go back.

Prayers for Hard Moments

Real prayers, short enough to pray with shaky hands. Change the words to sound like you. God isn't grading the grammar.

When the craving is loud

Jesus, I'm not going to win this one alone. Come stand between me and this. I'm going to drink water, move, and call somebody. Give me fifteen minutes, and then give me fifteen more. Amen.

When it's 3 a.m. and I can't sleep

Lord, You don't sleep, and You're not surprised by me. Quiet my mind. Take the things I can't fix tonight, and let me rest. Show me the one next right step in the morning. Amen.

After a slip

Father, I fell. I'm not going to hide it from You or from the people You've put in my life. I confess it, and I receive Your mercy, because Your Word says there's no condemnation for those in Christ. Help me get up and start at the next right step. Amen.

When I'm angry at God

God, I'm mad, and You already know. I don't understand why some things happened. I'm not going to pretend. But I'm still here, and I'm asking You to meet me in it. Amen.

For the person I love who is still bound

Lord, I can't save them. You can. Give me wisdom to love them without enabling them, and boundaries that protect me and them. Keep them alive today. Put people and doors and truth in their path. Amen.

For the person listening from the floor tonight

Lord, if someone is reading this from the floor tonight, be closer than the pain. Send help, send a phone number, send a person. Let them feel that they are seen and not alone. And give them the courage to take just one more step. In Jesus' name, amen.

MATTHEW 11:28 (ESV)

"...God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it."

1 CORINTHIANS 10:13 (ESV)

"The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness."

HOW TO MAKE THE FIRST CALL

1. Say: “I’m looking for help with (alcohol / drugs / safety). Where do I start?”
2. Ask about cost and insurance. Many places have sliding scales or free options.
3. Ask about medical detox if you’ve been using daily.
4. Write down names and numbers as you go. Bring a person if you can.
5. If the first call doesn’t work, call another. You only need one yes.

Outside the U.S.? Search for your country’s crisis line and emergency number and write them here: _____

WHERE I'LL BE HONEST

This guide is not treatment. If you take one thing from it, let it be this: tell one real person today. Then come tell me how it went.

MY COMMITMENT

IN MY OWN WORDS

The next right step I'm taking is:

The person I'm telling is:

I'll do it by (date): _____ Signed: _____

GALATIANS 6:9 (ESV)

"And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up."

Baby I know what far gone looks like Now watch what

My Testimony

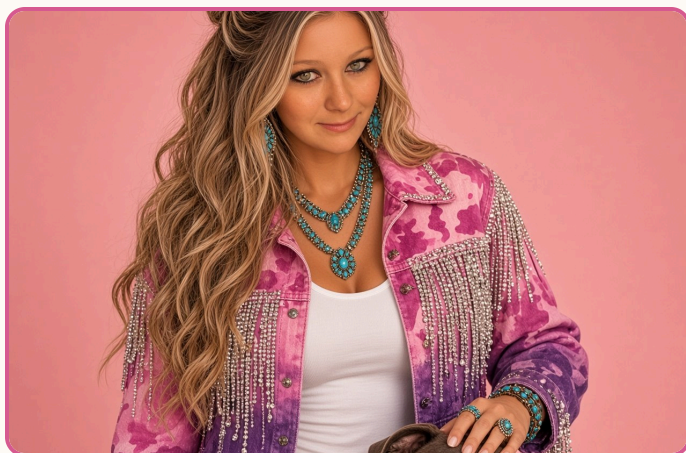

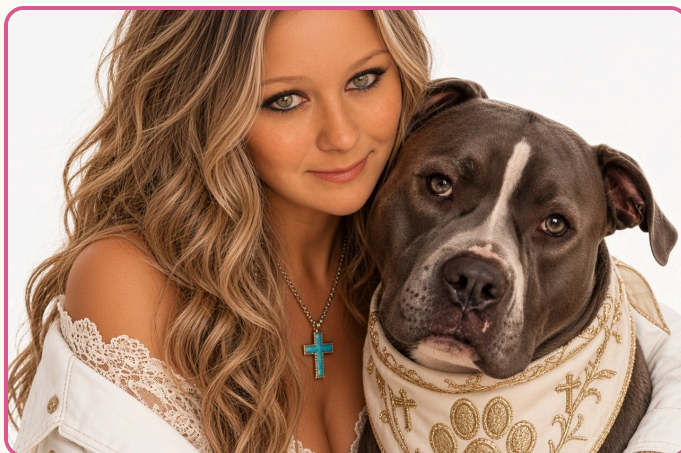

I know what the floor feels like. Overdose broke me. And I have learned that D.O.A. is God's favorite starting point — because when there was nothing left of me to work with, He still had plenty to work with.

I lost my sister, Brandi Renee. I wish she had somewhere to reach. I couldn't go back and build that place for her, so I'm building it now for whoever is sitting in a car tonight wondering where to go.

I'm not a doctor and I'm not perfect. I'm a woman who is still choosing the next right thing, with Jesus as my foundation and a 90-pound gray-and-white American Bully named Big Boy who stayed beside me while I was learning how to stay beside myself.

If you are on the floor right now: baby, I know what far gone looks like. Now let me show you what God can do from there.
