PLEASE READ

This book is a faith-based companion for reflection and practice. It is not medical, mental-health, legal, or addiction-treatment advice, and it does not replace a doctor, therapist, counselor, pastor, or emergency services. The author is not a licensed clinician. Prayer belongs beside — not in place of — treatment, medication, safe housing, and safety planning.

YOUR SAFETY COMES FIRST

If you are in danger, call 911 (or your local emergency number). If you are thinking about ending your life, call or text 988 (U.S.). If you are physically dependent on alcohol, benzodiazepines, or barbiturates, do not stop suddenly without medical supervision — withdrawal can be dangerous. The resource page at the back of the book lists additional help. Phone numbers and services change; please confirm them before you rely on them.

ABOUT THE STORIES AND IDEAS

Personal testimony is shared as lived experience, not as a formula or a promise of any outcome. Interpretations of Scripture are labeled as interpretation and offered for you to test against the Bible and with wise, trusted people. Nothing in this book guarantees healing, deliverance, income, or any particular result.

WHAT'S AHEAD

What's Ahead

1

TELLING THE TRUTH · DAYS 1–10

The war underneath: childhood, body, secrecy, a date.

2

THE LIES AND THE NAMES · DAYS 11–20

Lies, names, and the moral injury of surviving.

3

THE REALM AND YOUR AUTHORITY · DAYS 21–30

Warfare, plainly: sorting, standing, forgiving.

4

THE CONTRACTS · DAYS 31–45

Vows, words, ties, the cistern, wanting out.

5

THE BLOODLINE · DAYS 46–55

Family patterns and ending the cycle.

6

THE PLAYBOOK AND THE STRUCTURE · DAYS 56–68

Patterns, cravings, daily structure, boundaries, falling.

7

GOD · DAYS 69–76

Where He was, honest anger, silence.

8

BRANDI AND LETTING GO · DAYS 77–84

Grief, guilt, children out of reach, release.

9

BECOMING HER · DAYS 85–90

Stewarding what you have learned.

BEFORE YOU BEGIN

How to Read This Book

I am not a doctor, therapist, or pastor. I am a survivor who is still building, reaching back with what I have learned, what Scripture actually teaches, and something practical you can use. Four kinds of writing share these pages, and I want you to know which is which:

WHAT SCRIPTURE SAYS

Verses are quoted or cited by reference and read in context. Unless noted, quotations are from the ESV. When the Bible is clear, these pages say so plainly.

MY TESTIMONY

Places where I am sharing what I lived and what I am still learning. It is one woman's experience — not a rule for yours, and not a finished recovery story.

INTERPRETATION AND PRACTICE

Pictures like doors, contracts, stages, and seasons are ways of seeing and tools to practice with. Christians hold different views on some of them. Test them; keep what helps.

SYMBOL AND IMAGE

Broken chains, vineyards, anchors, and re-ups are pictures of freedom and renewal. A page of writing can help you practice something new. It does not, by itself, break a curse or change God's mind.

A FEW HONEST GROUND RULES

- You can skip any exercise. You can keep your eyes open. You can use a different anchor — a cold glass of water, your feet on the floor, a hand on a pet. You never have to relive something to complete a page.
- Prayers here are conversations with God, not formulas. Saying words out loud helps many people mean them; it does not force anything.
- Not every struggle is spiritual, and not every hard day is an attack. Sleep, food, pain, grief, and old wounds are real too. Sort them out with people who know you.
- Forgiving someone is not the same as trusting them again. Boundaries protect; they are not punishment. A relapse does not make you disposable.
- If a page opens more than you can carry, stop. Reach for a safe person or one of the numbers at the back. The page will wait.

Your 90-Day Path

These books were built to be used together. Day 7 in the journal is Day 7 in Ninety Days of Standing and Day 7 in *Ninety Days of Coming Home, and each day names the Workbook section and Volume II chapter that go with it. You do not have to read everything every day. Do the journal page; read the Standing spread; dip into the Workbook or Volume II when a day points you there.

Days	Journal arc	Standing focus	Coming Home stage	Workbook	Volume II
1–10	Telling the Truth	The war underneath: childhood, body, secrecy, a date	Build Her a Safe Place	Part I · Part V Steps 1–3	Ch. 1, 10, 17 · Steps 1–2
11–20	The Lies and the Names	Lies, names, and the moral injury of surviving	Meet Her at the Doorway	1.5–1.6 · 4.3–4.4	Ch. 10, 12, 48 · Step 31
21–30	The Realm and Your Authority	Warfare, plainly: sorting, standing, forgiving	Stand Guard for Her	Part II	Ch. 1, 11, 15, 17 · Steps 8–10
31–45	The Contracts	Vows, words, ties, the cistern, wanting out	Release What She Promised	2.4–2.6	Ch. 2–6 · Steps 13–15
46–55	The Bloodline	Family patterns and ending the cycle	Show Her Her Family Line	Part VI	Ch. 8–9 · Steps 16, 26
56–68	The Playbook and the Structure	Patterns, cravings, daily structure, boundaries, falling	Build Her a House	Part V Steps 4–8	Ch. 12–18 · Steps 23–29
69–76	God	Where He was, honest anger, silence	Where Was Jesus?	3.3 · 7.6	Ch. 19–27
77–84	Brandi and Letting Go	Grief, guilt, children out of reach, release	Say Goodbye and Hello	Part VII	Ch. 38–42 · Step 30
85–90	Becoming Her	Stewarding what you have learned	Meet the New You	Part III	Ch. 28–34, 46–52 · Step 32

A SIMPLE DAILY RHYTHM (ABOUT 25 MINUTES)

- Journal page: read it, write on the lines, say the declaration.
- Standing spread: optional grounding, Scripture, reflection, one soft action, a prayer.
- Coming Home page: one step toward the child you were, a prayer, an affirmation, and a small challenge.
- Workbook or Volume II: only when the day points you there, and only as much as you can hold.
- Missed a day? Pick the page back up. The pace is the point, and the identity is in the rising.

Spiritual Warfare, Plainly

I want to be careful with this language, because it has been used on people who needed help, not hype. So here is what I stand on.

What Scripture says

There is a real adversary: a liar, an accuser, a thief (John 10:10; Revelation 12:10; 1 Peter 5:8). He is a created being, limited by God (Job 1–2), and already defeated at the cross (Colossians 2:15; 1 John 3:8). Our part is to submit to God, resist the devil, stand firm in the armor God gives, answer lies with what is written (as Jesus did in Matthew 4), and pray (James 4:7; Ephesians 6:10–18).

What Scripture does not say

It does not hand us a formula. In Acts 19:13–16, men tried to use Jesus’ name like a tool and were beaten. It does not say every problem is demonic. It does not say we should shout or boast about authority; Jesus told His disciples to rejoice not that spirits submit to them but that their names are written in heaven (Luke 10:20), and even the archangel Michael did not presume to rebuke the devil on his own (Jude 9). It does not say a child’s struggle is a spirit, or that words on a page break a curse.

How this book uses the word “warfare”

Here, warfare means refusing to agree with lies, standing in Christ, and doing the ordinary faithful things together with practical care: sleep, food, doctors, counselors, safety, honest friends, and prayer. Test every spirit (1 John 4:1). If something makes you more ashamed, more isolated, or more afraid, it is not from Him.

Where I offer a picture (doors, agreements, stages) it is interpretation. Scripture is the authority; the pictures are tools.

A Word About Your Mother

This book was rewritten for you: a daughter whose mother carried her own trauma and addiction, and who allowed your father to abuse you when you were a baby; a woman in recovery from her own addiction; a woman who is not a mother and does not want to carry any of this on. If that is not your story, read it as the nearest true thing.

What I will not do

I will not ask you to remember. You were six months old; you cannot, and you do not need to. I will not tell you your mother was only a monster or only a victim; people are often both, and you can hold that without excusing her. I will not tell you your addiction is her fault, or that it is only yours. I will not tell you that you are destined to repeat it, or that you are cursed. I will not use guilt, and I will not tell you that forgiving means going back.

What I will do

Explain, plainly and without claiming certainty, how a baby who was not protected can grow into a woman whose body reaches for relief and whose heart struggles to trust (Days 5, 6, 39, 40). Name the grief for the mother you needed. Walk you through forgiving at your own pace, setting boundaries, and releasing what is not yours. Show you concrete ways to stop the pattern with you: recovery, therapy, safe people, new habits, and a line of faith and honesty you start now, with or without children.

Right now

If you are in danger, call 911. If you are thinking about ending your life, call or text 988. If a child is at risk near the person who harmed you, Childhelp: 1-800-422-4453. SAMHSA Helpline (substance use): 1-800-662-4357. (Please confirm numbers before relying on them.)

HOW IT WORKS

How to Use This Book

1. One spread a day. The left page is grounding, Scripture, and teaching. The right page is reflection, one soft action, and a prayer.
2. Same day, same theme. Day N here pairs with Journal Day N and names the Workbook section and Volume II chapter to read with it.
3. Grounding is optional. Skip it, change it, or keep your eyes open. Use another anchor if that one does not work for you.
4. Write on the lines. You never have to write the story. Titles and single sentences are enough.
5. One soft action. Small enough to do on a bad day. Doing less is allowed. Doing it is the point.
6. Same day, same path. This book, the journal, and Ninety Days of Coming Home line up by day, so the same theme meets you three ways.
7. Stop when it is too much. Reach for a safe person or a number in the back. The page will wait.

ARC 1 · DAYS 1-10

Telling the Truth

The war underneath: childhood, body, secrecy, a date.

THE HOLY R3UP · NINETY DAYS OF STANDING

MOTHER WOUND · WARFARE · ADDICTION

SANCTUARY · OPTIONAL

Feel your feet on the floor. Keep your eyes open. Lord, You were here before I said anything.

EPHESIANS 6:12 · ESV

You have told me that your father abused you when you were six months old, and that your mother, who carried her own trauma and addiction, allowed it. You had no words, no memory, and no defense. Scripture says the struggle is real and bigger than flesh and blood, and Jesus names the thief's work: to steal, kill, and destroy. What was done to you was never God's will. You are not crazy for living with effects you cannot explain, and you do not need a single memory to be believed here.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What do I already know about my beginning, and how do I know it?

2. How does it feel to hear that I do not need to remember it?

3. What would it mean to stand against it instead of just surviving it?

SOFT ACTION

Write one sentence that starts, "What happened to me was wrong because..." Say it aloud once.

SUPPLICATION

Jesus, I did not choose the war I was born into. Stand with me in it. Name the harm as harm, and be near me while I look. Amen.

What was done to me was wrong, and God was never on its side.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What have I never said out loud about my father or my mother?

2. Who has earned the right to hear the unedited version?

3. What do I need from them when I say it?

SOFT ACTION

Name your one person and choose a day this week. Start with one true sentence. You do not have to tell it all.

SUPPLICATION

Father, I have kept this in the dark to survive. Give me one safe person and the courage to say one true thing. Amen.

I do not have to carry this alone, and I do not have to carry it in secret.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

MOTHER WOUND - ADDICTION

SANCTUARY · OPTIONAL

"For I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate."

ROMANS 7:15 · ESV

A baby has zero responsibility for what happens to her. None. And later, in your own addiction, some of what you did was your own doing, and some of it hurt people. Both are true at once. Holding only the first makes you a permanent victim. Holding only the second makes you your own warden. Your mother had both hands too: she was hurt, and she failed you. You can see that without excusing it. You need both hands to carry this, and God carries the rest.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What was done to me that was never mine to carry?

2. What did I do that was mine to own?

3. What would it be like to see my mother with both hands without excusing her?

SOFT ACTION

Make two columns: "Done to me" and "My part." Fill one line each. Stop there.

SUPPLICATION

Lord, give me honest hands, one to set down what was never mine, one to own what was. Hold the rest. Amen.

I can tell the truth about what was done to me and what I did, and still be held.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

WARFARE · MOTHER WOUND

SANCTUARY · OPTIONAL

"...for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God."

REVELATION 12:10 · ESV

Children, even tiny ones, take blame. When the people who should protect you do not, a child concludes that she must not be worth protecting. The accuser loves that conclusion and says it in your own voice: you were the problem, you are too much, no one would help. Conviction names one specific thing with a way out. Condemnation names your whole self with no door. A baby cannot be guilty of what was done to her, and God does not condemn the one who was harmed.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What does the accuser say about why this happened to me?

2. Is it specific with a way out, or sweeping with no door?

3. What would Jesus say to that sentence?

SOFT ACTION

When the sentence shows up today, answer it once with Romans 8:1 and move on. Do not debate it.

SUPPLICATION

Jesus, You stand with the harmed. Silence the voice that blames the baby. Amen.

Conviction gives me a door. Condemnation is not from God.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

CHILDHOOD · ADDICTION

SANCTUARY · OPTIONAL

"You have kept count of my tossings; put my tears in your bottle. Are they not in your book?"

PSALM 56:8 · ESV

Your body learned things before you had words: that the world is not safe, that the people meant to protect you may not, that relief has to be found. Those lessons live in the nervous system, not in stories, which is why you can feel them without remembering anything. Fight, flight, freeze, and fawn were survival strategies, and a body that learned them that early may reach for relief quickly. That is not weak faith. It is a body doing a job it learned young. God keeps count of every tear.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

1. Which survival response is my default?

Put a hand where your body holds it most. Say, "You kept me alive. You can rest now."

God, You saw every tear. Thank You for the body that kept me alive. Teach it that it does not stand watch alone. Amen.

My body is not broken. It is remembering, and it can learn a new rhythm.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

CHILDHOOD · MOTHER WOUND

SANCTUARY · OPTIONAL

Press your palms together, then let go. Jesus, You are bigger than what I am about to read.

"As one whom his mother comforts, so I will comfort you; you shall be comforted in Jerusalem."

ISAIAH 66:13 · ESV

Trauma has an age, and for you the youngest part may be pre-verbal. You cannot interview a baby; you can only hold her. That is what comfort is: warmth, rocking, a steady voice, a blanket, a hand on the chest. You do not have to dig for anything. You only have to give the youngest part of you what she needed and did not get. God promised to comfort like a mother comforts, and He means the kind of mother who stays.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. Where in my body does the oldest fear live?

2. What does she need that is simple: warmth, quiet, being held?

3. What would it feel like to give it?

SOFT ACTION

Wrap yourself in a blanket for three minutes. Say, "I am here. I will not leave you."

SUPPLICATION

Father, You comfort like a mother who stays. Come to the youngest part of me and hold her. Amen.

I can comfort her without going back into what hurt her.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

WARFARE · ADDICTION

SANCTUARY · OPTIONAL

Sit with your back against something solid. Lord, You were here before I said anything.

PSALM 46:10 · ESV

A body that was never taught to calm itself will reach for something that does it. Before you ask whether something is spiritual, calm the alarm. Breathe in four, hold seven, out eight. Name five things you see. Cold water on your wrists. Push the wall for ten seconds. Say, "This is memory, not danger." These do not replace prayer. They are what you learn instead of the thing you used, and they are what make prayer possible when your chest is on fire.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. Which reset helps me most?

2. When is my alarm loudest, and what do I usually reach for?

3. What small change could make the reset easier to reach?

SOFT ACTION

Pick one reset and practice it three times today before you need it.

SUPPLICATION

Lord, I do not have to fight with a racing heart. Slow me down and be near. Amen.

I have tools. I am not at the mercy of my own alarm.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

MOTHER WOUND · ADDICTION

SANCTUARY · OPTIONAL

Take a slow sip of water. Jesus, I do not have to perform for You.

"Search me, O God, and know my heart! Try me and know my thoughts! And see if there is any grievous way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting!"

PSALM 139:23-24 · ESV

Titles only, no stories. Three lists: what happened to me (what my father did, what my mother did or did not do), what I used and what it did, and the patterns I am afraid of repeating. Ten lines at most. Then circle the one you skipped. That is where the work is, and we are coming back to it slowly. You are allowed to leave a list blank today.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What are the main titles under what happened?

2. What are the titles under what I used?

3. What pattern am I most afraid of repeating?

SOFT ACTION

Write your three lists. Circle the skipped one. Do not write about it yet.

SUPPLICATION

God, search me, not to punish me but to lead me. Show me where to start, and not more than I can hold. Amen.

Naming it is the beginning of the end of its power over me.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

WARFARE · ADDICTION

SANCTUARY · OPTIONAL

Feel your feet on the floor. Keep your eyes open. Father, meet me exactly where I am.

JEREMIAH 8:22 · ESV

Before you decide something is demonic, ask a doctor. Early trauma changes how the body handles stress, and addiction changes the brain, so sleep, mood, anxiety, and craving can feel like attack. Look for a therapist trained in trauma (approaches like EMDR or trauma-focused therapy are options), a doctor who understands addiction, and a recovery community. If you are physically dependent on alcohol, benzodiazepines, or barbiturates, withdrawal can be deadly; do not stop alone. Prayer and medicine are not enemies.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What have I been calling spiritual that might also be physical?

2. What appointment have I been avoiding?

3. Who could go with me?

SOFT ACTION

Make the call or book the appointment today. If you are in crisis, call or text 988.

SUPPLICATION

Lord, You made healers. Give me the courage to ask for help and the humility to take it. Amen.

Treating my body is stewardship, not a lack of faith.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

ADDICTION · CYCLE-BREAKING

SANCTUARY · OPTIONAL

"Ponder the path of your feet; then all your ways will be sure."

PROVERBS 4:26 · ESV

Someday is a comfortable word. A date is a decision. If you are ready to stop using, pick the date, clear the first seventy-two hours, remove what needs removing, and tell three people. Add the reason: you do not want to carry on what was handed to you. That reason is bigger than fear, and it can hold you when a craving is loud. If medical detox is needed, do it first; call SAMHSA at 1-800-662-4357.

Date: ___/___/___

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What date am I willing to write down?

2. Who are my three people?

3. What is the reason that is bigger than my fear?

SOFT ACTION

Write the date, three names, and the reason on one card.

SUPPLICATION

Father, I am tired of someday. Give me a date, a plan, people, and a reason that holds. Amen.

I am not waiting for someday. I am choosing a day.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

ARC 2 · DAYS 11–20

The Lies and the Names

Lies, names, and the moral injury of surviving.

THE HOLY R3UP · NINETY DAYS OF STANDING

MOTHER WOUND · CHILDHOOD

SANCTUARY · OPTIONAL

"...and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."

JOHN 8:32 · ESV

Trauma does not only hurt. It teaches. Without a word, you may have learned that love comes with harm, that people who should protect you will not, that you are not worth protecting, and that relief is something you find on your own. Those lessons were installed when you were too small to argue. You may be living by house rules from a house that burned down. The work is not to hate the lessons but to notice them.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What did I learn about love and safety before I could speak?

2. Which lesson shows up in my relationships or my addiction?

3. What would I tell a child who had learned it?

SOFT ACTION

Underline the lesson that frightens you most. Write beside it, "I was taught this. I can unlearn it."

SUPPLICATION

Jesus, You are the truth. Show me the lessons I took on, and replace them with what is real. Amen.

I learned it under pressure. I am allowed to unlearn it.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

Lie, Evidence, Truth: "I Wasn't Worth Protecting"

WARFARE · MOTHER WOUND

Pairs with Journal Day 12: Lie, Evidence, Truth · Coming Home Day 12: Ask What She Believes · Also read Workbook 1.5 (Work Page 4) | Vol. II Ch. 15

SANCTUARY · OPTIONAL

Put a hand on your chest and let one long breath out. Jesus, You are bigger than what I am about to read.

"For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh but have divine power to destroy strongholds. We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ,"

2 CORINTHIANS 10:4-5 · ESV

WHAT THIS MEANS

Paul's weapons are truth, arguments answered, thoughts brought to Christ. Take the lie: I was not worth protecting. Ask who taught it. The evidence you have used is that no one stopped it. But a person's failure to protect you says everything about them and nothing about your worth. Now find one piece of evidence against it, and write the truth you choose instead. God is called the defender of the helpless. Do not give the Sunday School answer. Give the real one.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

1. Lie one, in my own words:

2. One piece of evidence against it:

THE HOLY R3UP · NINETY DAYS OF STANDING

3. The truth I choose, and where Scripture says it:

Say the truth aloud to the mirror once today. It will feel awkward. Do it anyway.

Lord, I bring this thought to You instead of agreeing with it. Teach me what is true. Amen.

I am not arguing with a lie. I am replacing it.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

CHILDHOOD · MOTHER WOUND

SANCTUARY · OPTIONAL

Look around until your eyes find the exit. You can leave if you need to. Lord, You were here before I said anything.

ISAIAH 43:1 · ESV

Somebody named you and you answered. Damaged. The addict's daughter. Too much. Not enough. The one who is just like her. A name given in someone's worst moment can follow you for decades, and a family that cannot name its own harm often names the child instead. God gives names in love. Whatever you answer to will run your life, so it is worth asking who gave it to you and whether they had the right.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. Which name have I answered to longest?

2. Who gave it to me?

3. Does God agree with it?

SOFT ACTION

Write the old name on a slip of paper. Do not tear it up yet. Just see it from the outside.

SUPPLICATION

Father, You called me by name before anyone else did. Help me hear Yours louder than theirs. Amen.

I belong to God. My name is not the worst thing that was said about me.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

WARFARE · CHILDHOOD

Press your palms together, then let go. Jesus, I do not have to perform for You.

REVELATION 2:17 · ESV

God renames people: Abram to Abraham, Jacob to Israel, Simon to Peter. His names point at who you are becoming. Trading names is not positive thinking. It is putting a new truth where the old one lived. Daughter of an addicted mother becomes daughter of God. Damaged goods becomes new creation. Addict becomes a woman in recovery. Cycle-breaker is a name you get to earn, a day at a time. Say the new one out loud each morning for thirty days.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. The name I am putting down:

2. The name I am choosing, and where Scripture says it:

3. Who will help me remember it?

SOFT ACTION

Write the new name where you will see it every morning.

SUPPLICATION

Jesus, I give You the old name. Teach me to answer to the one You give. Amen.

I answer to what God calls me, not what they called me.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What am I still blaming myself for that was never a choice?

2. What do I want to say to a baby who was hurt?

3. What would God say to her?

SOFT ACTION

Say it aloud, as if to a baby you love: "It was not your fault." Then say it to yourself.

SUPPLICATION

Father, You are not angry at the baby I was. Take the blame she picked up and give her compassion. Amen.

I am taking my name off a crime I did not commit.

ADDICTION · MOTHER WOUND

SANCTUARY · OPTIONAL

Take a slow sip of water. Holy Spirit, stay near, and do not let me go further than I can hold.

LUKE 22:31-32 • ESV

When the first people in your life were unsafe, unsafe can feel like home. Peter failed and went back, and Jesus had already prayed for him and named what came after: when you have turned again. Why you went back to the substance, to people who hurt you, to your mother or your father: it was familiar, it worked, you had no other options, or you hoped it would be different this time. Most people try more than once. The turning again is the story.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What did I go back to, and what did it give me?

2. What was I hoping would be different?

3. What do I believe Jesus prayed for me?

SOFT ACTION

Write, "I went back because..." with no excuses and no punishment. Then write, "And I am turning again."

SUPPLICATION

Jesus, You prayed for Peter before he fell. Pray for me. Strengthen me for the turning. Amen.

I was in a trap built to hold. Leaving late is still leaving.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

SANCTUARY · OPTIONAL

Feel your feet on the floor. Keep your eyes open. God, I am here. You are here. That is enough to start.

PSALM 107:9 · ESV

You can miss a mother who did not protect you. You can miss a father who harmed you. You can miss the high. Longing for a parent does not mean the parent was good; it means you were a child who needed one. Cruelty and tenderness on an unpredictable schedule bond people harder than steady kindness. Missing is not evidence you should go back. It is evidence that something in you is still hungry, and God fills the hungry.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What do I actually miss: them, or what I needed from them?

2. What hunger is under it?

3. What safe thing could feed that hunger today?

SOFT ACTION

When the missing hits, say, "This is hunger, not a sign." Then eat, drink water, and call a safe person.

SUPPLICATION

God, I am hungry and tired of feeding it with what hurts. Fill the place only You can fill. Amen.

What I feel is real. It is not a reason to go back.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

"even the darkness is not dark to you; the night is bright as the day, for darkness is as light with you."

PSALM 139:12 · ESV

You cannot remember being six months old, and you do not need to. You know what you know from what family told you, from your body, from patterns you live with. You are not lying and you are not making it up. Do not push for memory; do not let anyone lead you to "recover" scenes. A trauma-informed counselor can help you work with what the body holds without scripts. God sees the parts you cannot, and the grief of not knowing is real.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What do I know, and how do I know it?

2. What do I wish I could remember, or wish I could un-know?

3. What would it mean to let "enough" be enough?

SOFT ACTION

Write one line: "I know that ____ I do not need to know more to heal."

SUPPLICATION

Lord, the dark is not dark to You. Hold what I cannot hold. Give me grace for the gaps. Amen.

I do not need perfect memory to tell the truth or to be loved.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

"The saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the foremost."

1 TIMOTHY 1:15 · ESV

Some of you are not haunted only by what was done to you. You are haunted by what you did while surviving: the people you hurt, the things you took, the times you were the dangerous one. That is moral injury, and it is real. It is also not unforgivable. Paul called himself the foremost of sinners and God used him anyway. Forgiveness from God is complete. Repair with people is a separate road, and tomorrow takes it up.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What did I do that I cannot reconcile with who I wanted to be?

2. Who did it touch?

3. What part is guilt I can bring to Jesus, and what part is shame that lies?

SOFT ACTION

Write it in one line. Beneath it write, "Jesus came for people like me."

SUPPLICATION

Jesus, You came for sinners, and I am one. Take what I cannot carry, and lead me to repair what I can. Amen.

I did that. It was mine. Jesus paid for it. I stop punishing someone He pardoned.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

ADDICTION · CYCLE-BREAKING

SANCTUARY · OPTIONAL

Put a hand on your chest and let one long breath out. Jesus, I do not have to perform for You.

PROVERBS 28:13 · ESV

When you cannot undo the harm, you live differently where the harm lives. Amends are mostly shown: showing up when you said you would, telling the truth, not asking people to take care of your feelings, and not demanding their forgiveness. Where a person is gone or contact is unsafe, serve where that damage lives. And forgive yourself, not because you deserve it but because God decided it. You cannot walk out of the prison while you are still the warden.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. Who needs repair from me, and what would honest repair look like?

2. Where is repair unsafe, and what could I do instead?

3. What am I still collecting from myself that God already settled?

SOFT ACTION

Choose one promise you can keep this week, however small, and keep it.

SUPPLICATION

Lord, make me someone who shows up. Where I cannot repair, use me where the damage lives. Amen.

I make amends by becoming someone who does not do that anymore.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

The Realm and Your Authority

Warfare, plainly: sorting, standing, forgiving.

THE HOLY R3UP · NINETY DAYS OF STANDING

WARFARE · MOTHER WOUND

SANCTUARY · OPTIONAL

Look around until your eyes find the exit. You can leave if you need to. Father, meet me exactly where I am.

2 CORINTHIANS 4:18 · ESV

Spiritual warfare is not only for conferences. It meets us in a family where addiction, abuse, and silence ran for years: in what you believe about yourself, in cravings, in who you are drawn to. Scripture treats the unseen opposition as real and limited, and treats ordinary faithfulness as how we stand. You are not imagining what you lived through, and you do not have to make the fight dramatic. You have to show up, tell the truth, and keep Jesus near. People are not demons; the harm done through them was still wrong.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

SACRED REFLECTION

1. Where do I see the fight in ordinary moments?

2. What have I called "just my personality" that might be something else?

3. How could I meet it with something simple?

SOFT ACTION

Pick one ordinary moment today and pray one sentence in it.

SUPPLICATION

Lord, You are in my ordinary day. Teach me to see what is going on beneath the noise, and to stand there with You. Amen.

I am not imagining what I have been through, and I am not fighting it alone.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

"but test everything; hold fast what is good."

WHAT THIS MEANS

When something is tormenting you, sort it. What part is body and chemistry (sleep, withdrawal, anxiety)? What part is wound (the old fear)? What part is flesh, your untrained appetite, which needs discipline, not deliverance? What part might be spiritual? Now you have four assignments instead of one impossible one. A craving is usually several at once. Do not label a craving demonic first. Treat the body, tend the wound, build discipline, and bring all of it to God.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What is tormenting me most right now?

2. How would I sort it?

3. Who could help me with each part?

SOFT ACTION

Fill in the four categories for one craving or one fear. Do one small thing under each.

SUPPLICATION

God, give me discernment instead of panic. Teach me to fight the right thing the right way. Amen.

Discernment is not doubt. It is how I stop fighting the wrong thing.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

"Little children, you are from God and have overcome them, for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world."

1 JOHN 4:4 · ESV

The enemy is a created being, not God's opposite. He is not everywhere, he cannot read your mind, he cannot make you do anything, and he cannot snatch you from God's hand. Your biggest fear may be that you are destined to become your mother. Scripture does not say that. Patterns are strong, and they are not destiny. God keeps those who are His, and He does not promise a trouble-free life; He promises you will not face it alone or unprotected.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. Where has the fear of becoming her been louder than truth?

2. What do I believe about what the enemy can do?

3. What is God asking me to trust Him with?

SOFT ACTION

Write: "I am afraid I will become ____." Then write, "God, this is Yours."

SUPPLICATION

Father, You are greater. I give You the fear I have been carrying like a weapon. Keep what I cannot keep. Amen.

He can build a hallway. He cannot move my feet.

"Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand firm."

EPHESIANS 6:13 · ESV

Notice the verb in Ephesians 6: stand. Colossians 2:15 says Christ disarmed the rulers and authorities and put them to open shame. Authority is not volume or a formula. It is standing where Jesus has already won, and it lets you rest. It is also never a reason to skip a doctor, a counselor, a meeting, or a safety plan. Cowering and charging are both ways of forgetting He already won. You were not protected as a child. You can be, now, by Him and by the people He sends.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. Where have I been cowering?

2. Where have I been charging in my own strength?

3. What would standing look like in one situation this week?

SOFT ACTION

Stand up, plant your feet, and say aloud, "I stand in Christ." Hold it ten seconds.

SUPPLICATION

Jesus, You disarmed what scared me. Help me stand where You already won. Amen.

I am not negotiating with fear. I am standing on what Christ has already won.

Feel your feet on the floor. Keep your eyes open. Lord, You were here before I said anything.

JAMES 4:7 · ESV

The order matters. Submit to God first, then resist. For anyone in addiction, submission begins with an honest admission that you cannot do this on willpower, and that is not defeat; it is where help begins. Resisting without submitting is exhausting. Authority is not volume. Jesus answered temptation with a sentence of Scripture. Loud is for our own fear.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What am I trying to handle in my own strength?

2. What would submitting to God look like there?

3. What is one thing I can resist this week once I am under His care?

SOFT ACTION

Say aloud, "I cannot do this alone. Jesus, I am Yours." Then do one resisting thing.

SUPPLICATION

God, I give You my will, my plan, and my pride. Under Your care, I will stand against what harms me. Amen.

I get under God before I stand against anything.

"Be angry and do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and give no opportunity to the devil."

Some struggles keep getting fed by the same things: unforgiveness, lies about yourself, anger left to rot, old vows, substances. Paul says anger is not the problem. Holding it past sundown gives the enemy room. Your anger at your father and your mother is not wrong; it is information that you were wronged. The work is to bring it to God and to safe people, so it does not spill on yourself, on your recovery, or on people who did not cause it.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. Where does my anger really belong?

2. How have I been feeding it, knowingly or not?

3. Where can I safely put it?

SOFT ACTION

Name your anger in one line. Then do one physical thing with it: walk hard, scrub something, push a wall.

SUPPLICATION

Lord, You are not afraid of my anger. Take it, and keep it from feeding on me. Amen.

Everything I can name, I can bring to God and begin to change.

PSALM 27:10 · ESV

Before anything else, get under cover. David knew what it was to be left: his father and mother had forsaken him, and the Lord took him in. You do not have to pretend your parents were safe in order to receive a safe God. Say who you belong to. Say what you cannot do alone. This is not a spell, and it does not guarantee a trouble-free life. It is a child running to the one who is bigger, and being taken in.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. Who failed to take me in?

2. What would it mean to be taken in by God?

3. What do I want covered today?

SOFT ACTION

Pray aloud in your own words: "I belong to You. Take me in and cover me today."

2. What do I fear forgiveness would mean?

3. What would I keep, even after forgiving?

PROVERBS 22:3 · ESV

Forgiveness is between you and God. Reconciliation requires two people and real repentance. Where someone has harmed you or could harm you, safety decides access, not guilt or family pressure. Jesus withdrew often, and Paul named people and told others to avoid them. If your mother or father reaches out, you have options: no contact, limited contact, contact with conditions. This is not unforgiveness. It is wisdom, and in recovery it may be survival.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. Who have I let back in because I thought forgiving required it?

2. What does safety actually require right now?

3. Who can help me hold the line?

SOFT ACTION

Write one boundary about contact with a parent. Tell one safe person.

EPHESIANS 6:14-15 · ESV

Thirty seconds, out loud, before the day puts anything on you. Truth: I will not lie to myself today. Righteousness: I am covered by His, not mine. Peace: I bring it into rooms; I do not take chaos from them. Faith, salvation, the Word, prayer. This is the covering you did not get as a baby, given now by Someone who does not fail. Notice there is no armor for the back; you are built to stand, not run.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

SACRED REFLECTION

2. What is coming at me today that I need to prepare for?

3. Who do I want to be covered by?

"by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross."

COLLOSSIANS 2:14 · FSV

Scripture uses the language of debts and records, and Colossians 2:14 says Christ canceled the record that stood against us. This book uses a courtroom picture for the beliefs, vows, and conclusions people live by without choosing them. A baby does not make vows, but a body draws conclusions: I am not safe, no one comes, I have to take care of myself. Those can run an adult life. Christians hold different views on how literally to take the picture. What is clear is that Jesus came to set captives free, and you may look honestly at what you have been living by.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What conclusions do I think my body drew very early?

2. How do they run my choices now, especially around addiction and love?

3. What is it like to think they do not get the final word?

SOFT ACTION

Write one conclusion you suspect you live by, in plain words.

SUPPLICATION

Jesus, You carried the record that stood against me. Show me what I have been living by, and show me what You say instead. Amen.

MATTHEW 5:37 · ESV

Somewhere in childhood most survivors make a rule to stay alive. I will never need anyone. I will never cry. I will never be like her. It worked then, and it may be running your adult life, including the reason you cannot let anyone hold you. Even a vow made to be the opposite of someone binds you to her, because you are still living in reaction. Jesus told us to stop swearing oaths. Not because He is harsh, but because He knows vows made in fear are heavy.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What rule did I make to stay alive?

2. How old was I when I made it?

3. What is it costing me now, especially in recovery and in love?

SOFT ACTION

Write the vow in the exact words you remember. Under it write what it protected you from.

SUPPLICATION

God, a child made that promise because she had to. Thank You that she survived. Show me what it costs now. Amen.

MARK 10:14 · ESV

Jesus welcomed children and did not make them earn it. When you find the vow, speak to the child who made it, not to scold her but to release her. Say: I see you. You made that promise because you had to, and it worked. I am the adult now, and you do not have to hold the door anymore. Then, in Jesus' name, release the vow and replace it with something true: I can let safe people in. I can feel and still be okay. I can want things. A woman who learns this breaks a chain that ran before her.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What would I say to the child who made the vow?

2. What new, true sentence do I want to live by?

3. Who could witness me saying it aloud?

SOFT ACTION

Say the release aloud, in your own words, then say your new sentence three times.

SUPPLICATION

Jesus, You welcomed children. Welcome her. Come and bring her home. I take over from here, with You.

EPHESIANS 4:29 · ESV

Words matter. Many of us can still hear what was said over us: you will never amount to anything, you are just like your mother. We also repeat those words to ourselves, and sometimes to others in our worst hour. You cannot unsay what was said to you, but you can say something truer, and you can stop passing it on. Say it plainly. Repair what you can. Words can wound, and words can bless.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What was said over me that I still hear?

2. What do I say to myself that sounds like them?

3. What truer sentence can I say, and to whom?

SOFT ACTION

PSALM 34:5 · ESV

Shame is not the same as guilt. Guilt says I did something wrong. Shame says I am something wrong. A child of an addicted, absent, or complicit parent often carries shame that is not hers: the family's reputation, the secrets, the smell of the house. Shame hides, and the hiding feeds it. Safe light is what shame cannot stand. That means looking toward Him, not at your reflection in other people's faces.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What do I feel most ashamed of about my family or myself?

2. Who taught me this shame?

3. What does looking toward Jesus instead look like?

SOFT ACTION

Tell one shame-heavy true thing to your safe person. Notice that you are still here.

Telling should be done with support and never in a way that puts you in danger. If a child is at risk now, whether a sibling, a niece, a nephew, or any child near the person who harmed you, protecting that child comes before the family secret: call the Childhelp hotline at 1-800-422-4453, or 911 in an emergency. 1 CORINTHIANS 6:17 · ESV

"Soul tie" is not a phrase found in Scripture. It names a real experience: someone you barely knew, or someone who harmed you, still has a hold on your thoughts. The deepest holds are often to the first people. You may feel bound to your mother and to the substance, and in the same way. What was taken from you was a wrong done to you, not a sin you committed. A baby who was not protected may find that a substance is the first reliable comfort she ever had. That is not an excuse and not a moral failing; it is an explanation, and it points toward what was missing. The cistern is not the sin. Digging your own is. LUKE 10:41-42 • FSV

I only matter when I am useful. Many children of addicted parents learn to earn love by fixing, caretaking, or staying quiet. Jesus did not shame Martha. He named what she was carrying and invited her to sit. If rest feels like disappearing, ask who you were responsible for rescuing as a child, and whether you are still doing it. Test it honestly: who are you when you produce nothing and rescue no one?

SACRED REFLECTION

1. Who was I responsible for as a child?

2. Where do I feel guilty when I rest?

3. What would it mean to be loved at rest?

SOFT ACTION

Do ten minutes of nothing useful today. Notice what comes up. Do not fix it.

SUPPLICATION

Lord, I am anxious about many things. Let me sit at Your feet without earning it. Amen.

I am loved at rest. My worth was never output.

☐ I said it. I wrote it. That is enough for today.

Part of you decided that as long as you keep paying, it is not unpunished. So you sabotage, deny yourself, stay in what hurts, or relapse after good news. Some of the debt you are paying belongs to people who never paid it. The bill was settled. Continuing to pay may feel like humility while it refuses a payment Jesus already made. Repair with people, where it is safe, is good. Punishing yourself is not repair.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

SACRED REFLECTION

1. How do I still punish myself?

2. Whose debt am I paying?

3. What would accepting grace cost me, and what would it give?

SOFT ACTION

I am not going to keep paying for what He already bought.

A death wish is a symptom, not a sin, and not a truth. Elijah, Jonah, Job, and Moses all asked to die, and God's answer to Elijah was food, sleep, a whisper, and a new job, not a rebuke. Early trauma and addiction both raise the risk of wanting out. If that thought has teeth today, call or text 988 (or call 911) before you read another word. You can also tell your sponsor, a counselor, or a friend. This is not weakness; it is the correct use of help.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. When did I first start wanting out?

2. What is the pain underneath the wish?

3. Who can I tell today?

SOFT ACTION

If the thought is loud, stop here and call or text 988. If it is quieter, tell one person you trust today.

SUPPLICATION

God, I am tired. Feed me, let me sleep, and send me someone. Keep me here. Amen.

I choose life. I will tell someone.

I have taken your iniquity away. The accuser says it once, and you say it to yourself for thirty years: you are just like her, you will always be an addict, you ruin everything. Today you take the pen back. A defeated prosecutor does not get to write your story.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What sentence have I been finishing for the accuser?

2. What are the filthy garments I am still wearing?

3. What clothing does God offer instead?

SOFT ACTION

Cross out the sentence in your writing, and write God's sentence over it: "Remove the filthy garments."

WHAT THIS MEANS

Guilt does not transfer. You are not guilty of your mother's addiction or your father's abuse. But terrain does: patterns, wounds, habits, biology, silence. Research suggests addiction runs in families through both genes and environment, and scientists are still learning how. Exodus 20:5 says consequences reach down generations; Ezekiel 18 says each person answers for their own; the same Bible says God's steadfast love reaches thousands. You did not inherit their sin. You inherited the ground it grew on, and you get to change what grows.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What has run in my family for three generations or more?

2. Where do I see it in me?

3. What would it mean to see myself as not guilty of any of it?

ROMANS 12:2 · ESV

A pattern can travel four ways. Behavioral: you learn what you saw. Biological: severe stress can shape how bodies respond, and addiction risk runs in families. Systemic: poverty, instability, and lack of support are real walls. Spiritual: Scripture speaks of the enemy and of unhealed wounds, and Christians differ on how to understand this layer. Most people fight one layer and wonder why it did not hold. Work all four: practice new behavior, protect sleep and health, build support, and bring it to God.

Date: ____/____/____

SACRED REFLECTION

1. Which layer have I been ignoring?

2. What is one small action for each layer?

3. Who could help with the one I cannot reach alone?

SOFT ACTION

Write the four layers and one action for each, small enough to do this week.

It may help you see that the harm did not start with you, and that some of what looked like cruelty was another wounded person's survival. Hold it with humility.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What do I know about my mother's own childhood?

2. What do I not know, and can I let that be?

3. How does understanding differ from excusing for me?

NEHEMIAH 1:6 · ESV

WHAT THIS MEANS

Nehemiah prayed for his people with the words we have sinned, including himself. Daniel did too. Many believers find this meaningful for family patterns: you do not take on their guilt, you agree with God about what is true, and you ask for mercy on your line. It is a practice to consider, not a requirement for freedom or a magic formula. If it does not sit right, skip it and talk to a pastor you trust. Volume II lays out twelve patterns that show up in the lives of people who have been hurt and stuck: being unwanted, early wounds, a false name, isolation, a coping tool, a shame loop, agreements, normalizing, passing it on, derailing the calling, waiting too long, silencing the story. This is a pattern-recognition tool, not a revealed schedule. Scripture also says much of our trouble comes from our own hearts, other people, and a broken world. Use it to notice, not to decide every hard thing was a scripted attack, and never to blame yourself for what was done to you.

Isolation makes almost every harm worse. Abusers isolate. Addiction isolates. Families that keep secrets isolate their children, and a baby who learned that no one comes may still believe it. This is why you need five kinds of people, not one: the one who knows everything, the one further ahead, the one behind you, the one who is just a friend, and the one allowed to correct you. A meeting, a sponsor, a counselor, and a church small group can fill the first of these.

Boundaries that exist only in your heart are wishes. Block the number. Change the lock. Tell the relative who relays messages to stop. Decide in advance what you will do when they reach out, because they usually do right when you get peaceful. Decide what contact with your mother or father, if any, looks like, and what is non-negotiable (no substances, no abuse, no guilt trips). A boundary is a property line, not a punishment, and you do not have to explain it forty times.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What boundary do I need to set?

2. How will I enforce it this week?

3. What will I do when they push back?

SOFT ACTION

Set one real-world boundary today. Write the exact sentence you will use.

SUPPLICATION

Lord, give me a firm yes and a firm no, and keep my heart open to those who are safe. Amen.

I am not explaining it forty times. It is a property line.

MICAH 7:8 · ESV

Having a plan is not permission. Not having one gives the fall a runway. Stop at the first one. The fall is the first act, the ruin is the decision afterward. Tell someone within the hour. Have naloxone in the house if opioids are in your history, and tell a person who can help. Do not throw away ninety days over one day. Then find the link you missed and write it down. Shame says hide; recovery says tell. The identity is in the rising.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What is my written plan for the day I fall?

2. Who will I tell within the hour?

3. What will I not do afterward?

SOFT ACTION

Write the plan and share it with one person. Keep a copy somewhere you can find it.

SUPPLICATION

GENESIS 16:13 · ESV

Hagar, a mistreated servant who had run away, is the first person in Scripture to give God a name, and it is the God who sees. He was near the brokenhearted, in the room, not outside it, not arriving later. That is harder than absence, because it means He saw. It is also better than absence, because it means you were never alone, even when you felt completely alone. I do not know why He did not stop it. I know He saw, and I know He kept the record of every tear.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. Where do I most need to know He was?

2. What do I feel when I imagine Him in that room?

3. What do I want to say to Him?

SOFT ACTION

Say aloud, "You saw me." Sit with whatever comes.

SUPPLICATION

God of seeing, I did not know You were there. Show me, gently, how You were. Amen.

ISAIAH 49:15 · ESV

God made a world with real agency, because love that cannot be refused is not love. That means people can choose evil, and He does not routinely override the will He gave. He did not cause it, want it, or approve it. He hated it. That is an explanation, not a comfort, and I will not pretend it is the same. But hear how He answers in Isaiah: Can a woman forget her nursing child? Even these may forget, yet I will not forget you. He knows that mothers fail. And He says: I will not.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What do I most need to ask Him?

2. What do I do with the part that has no answer?

3. How does it feel to hear Him say, "I will not forget you"?

SOFT ACTION

Write the question you have never asked, and leave it open.

SUPPLICATION

Father, I do not understand. I trust Your character where I cannot trace Your hand. Stay with me. Amen.

JOHN 9:3 • FSV

The disciples asked whose sin caused a man's blindness, and Jesus rejected the whole premise. What was done to you as a baby was not the sentence for anything you did or were. Your suffering was not invoiced to you. Jesus paid the bill and God does not double-bill. Grief is not proof of a curse, and hardship is not a verdict. If you have been secretly wondering what was wrong with you that this happened, nothing was.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What have I secretly believed I was being punished for?

2. Where did I learn that suffering means I did something wrong?

3. What would it mean to let that go?

SOFT ACTION

Write the sentence you believe, then cross it out and write, "This was not punishment."

SUPPLICATION

Jesus, You refused the lie that suffering is always a sentence. Take mine out of that frame. Amen.

He is not punishing me. There is no condemnation.

PSALM 13:1-2 · ESV

Scripture preserves complaints. Jesus quoted a psalm of abandonment from the cross. Job accused God and God said Job had spoken rightly of Him. Lamentations is grief laid out before God, and God kept it in the canon. He can handle your rage. What He cannot work with is your distance. Say it to Him directly, even the part that says, where were You when I was a baby and no one protected me?

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What have I never said to God directly?

2. What am I afraid will happen if I do?

3. What would it look like to say it today?

SOFT ACTION

Write or say it to God, unedited, for two minutes.

SUPPLICATION

God, here it is, all of it. I am bringing it to You instead of holding it against You. Amen.

I bring it to Him instead of holding it against Him.

WHAT THIS MEANS

As long as you hold a verdict against God, you cannot receive from Him. You do not have to stop having questions. You have to stop having a verdict. And handing over your case against your father and your mother is not letting them off. It is God taking a weight that was killing you. He is the judge, and He sees everything, including what never reached a human court. Some people never face anything on earth. That is not the end of the story.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What verdict am I carrying against God?

2. What case am I carrying against my father and mother?

3. What would it feel like to hand each to Him?

SOFT ACTION

Write "I withdraw the verdict" beside the one you are ready to put down.

SUPPLICATION

I keep the questions open. I withdraw the verdict.

"It is good that one should wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD."

LAMENTATIONS 3:26 · ESV

Elijah was suicidal and looked for God in wind, earthquake, and fire, and God came in a thin silence, after He fed him and let him sleep twice. Food, sleep, then the whisper. Sometimes the silence is not rejection. Sometimes you are exhausted and He is feeding you first. In early recovery you may have no energy for a long quiet time, and that is okay. A few honest sentences are prayer.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. Have I been asking for a whisper when I need food and sleep?

2. What would feed me today?

3. What is one small way to wait?

SOFT ACTION

Eat something and rest ten minutes before praying. Then pray one sentence.

SUPPLICATION

Silence is documented. It is not rejection.

PSALM 131:2 · ESV

Noise was safety. If it was quiet, you could hear them coming, and you had to feel it. So silence may feel like danger before it feels like peace. Start with two minutes. Eyes open if closed feels unsafe. When your mind runs, say later and come back. The coming back is the prayer. The psalmist describes a soul quieted like a weaned child with its mother. You may not have had that mother. You can ask for it from the One who comforts like one.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

SACRED REFLECTION

1. How long did I sit, and what came up?

2. What does silence feel like in my body?

3. What would it be like to be quieted like a child with her mother?

SOFT ACTION

Sit two minutes today. Feet on the floor. Say once, "Jesus, I am here." Then nothing.

SUPPLICATION

Father, I do not have to say anything. I am not leaving. Quiet my soul like a child with her mother. Amen.

ROMANS 8:28 · ESV

It does not say all things are good. It says God works in all things toward good, and the next verse defines that good as being made like Christ. It is not a promise that your story will have a satisfying plot, and it is not meant to be said to someone in fresh grief. It is a promise that nothing in your story, including what happened when you were a baby and the years in your addiction, is unusable in His hands. It was not good. It will not be wasted. Those are different things.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What do I need Him to use rather than explain?

2. What have I been tempted to call good that was not?

3. What do I hope He will redeem?

SOFT ACTION

Write one thing that was not good, and one thing you are asking Him not to waste.

PSALM 147:3 · ESV

If you lost someone to addiction, you may carry the idea that you should have saved them. You may also carry it about your mother. You were not their savior. You were a child, then a sister, then a daughter, then a friend. You lost them because addiction is lethal, because they were sick, and because the world they were in was built to fail people like them. None of those were yours to control. This page is for Brandi, and for the mother you could not save. Grief is allowed here.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

SACRED REFLECTION

1. What did I do for them?

2. What do I keep telling myself I should have done?

3. Was it truly in my power at that age and in that condition?

Then count how many lines have your name on them, and how many do not. The point is not to avoid responsibility. It is to put it where it belongs, so grief can be grief and not an endless trial.

SACRED REFLECTION

2. Which lines have my name, truthfully?

3. What age and condition was I in then?

A cry does not have to be eloquent: the thief on the cross got one sentence (Luke 23:42-43). You can hope, legitimately, without lying to yourself. Hope is not certainty, and you do not need certainty to stop tormenting yourself.

WHAT STOOD OUT TO ME

Build it because it is right, and because you love them. Their name goes on it as a dedication, not a debt. A survivor does not owe her life as payment.

SACRED REFLECTION

1. Am I building out of love or out of guilt?

3. What would change if it were a dedication, not a debt?

SOFT ACTION

PSAI M 139:13-14 · FSV

God knew you before you were formed, and what was done to you never canceled what He had in mind for you. Scripture says He knitted you together in your mother's womb. Your mother's womb was not the whole story, and she was not the one who made you; He was. I cannot tell you the harm was aimed at your calling. I do not know that. WHAT THIS MEANS

Joseph was starved of family and put in charge of feeding families. Moses was drawn out of the water and sent to draw a nation out. Often, the fruit comes in the shape of the wound. JOHN 15:16 · ESV

WHAT THIS MEANS

Chosen is not a rank. It is an assignment with a destination. Scripture uses the language of being chosen of every believer, not only the dramatic ones. Many people in Scripture were marked early, isolated, delayed, misunderstood, and broken in a specific place before they were used. The cost is real: lost people, delay that looks like denial, being misunderstood by good people. It does not mean God likes you more. GOOD TO KNOW

- Narcan (naloxone) is available without an individual prescription at most pharmacies, and free through many health departments and harm-reduction programs. Keep it in the house even if you do not use. It can reverse an opioid overdose and will not hurt someone who did not take opioids.
- Withdrawal from alcohol, benzodiazepines, and barbiturates can kill you. Do not detox from those alone. That is a medical detox, not a willpower problem. Call SAMHSA or go to an emergency room.
- Numbers and services change. Confirm them before you rely on them.
